We extend our sincerest congratulations to you, Monsignor.

John Bapst Alma Mater

John Bapst we've learned from thee
Many truths that sacred be
For watchful care and fealty
We give thanks to Our High School
Though years may dim our sight
We'll be mindful of the light
That installed in our young minds
Our love for right

Graduating Class

1952

JOHN ABBOTT

John "Rusty" Abbott is the second "Rusty" in his family to complete a course at Bapst. He probably never will win a beauty contest, but he will win at the polls if and when he chooses to run. He knows when and how to express himself. "Rusty" has a lot of friends and a lot of freckles—we hope he still has the friends when the freckles are gone.

RUSSELL ALBERT

"Russy" is a real honest-to-goodness he-man. Win, lose, or draw, "Russy" can always be depended upon to give just a little more than he seems capable of to help the cause. "Russy" was a hard-running halfback and a sturdy line backer. He is a good English student and a grand lad. We feel that the Class of '52 is richer because of "Russy", and we will always remember him as a characteristic Bapst man. "Russy" is bound for Australia.

JACQUELINE BATCHELDER

"Jackie" is a lovely creature. She has an enviable following made up mostly of Tesseos and Thornes. "Jackie" was chosen Queen of the Freshman Class, but after that she chose to remain in the shadows. She has very definite ideas on the future and makes no attempt to conceal her plans. We hope "Jackie" attains to all her very noble ideals.

PAUL BLANCHARD

Paul—"Doc" to everyone—has good looks with a pair of shoulders to match. Gives ground to none on the basketball court or in any other sport. He was a member of the trophy winners in his Sophomore year. Continually questioning his teachers—often to their discomfort. He did a swell job on "Dearie" in this year's Minstrel. "Doc" is Bangor's most courteous taxi driver. He better watch out for ripped fenders while driving so close to telephone poles.

ANN BRANGWYNNE

All during her high school days, Ann was employed by the J. J. Newberry Company—drawing in the customers. Ann has dark, curly hair and blue eyes. "Late to come, early to go" is her motto. Some certain key on her typewriter is always giving her quite a time. Better call the repairman in a hurry.

RICHARD BROCHU

"Dick" has taken advantage of all the things offered in a high school education. He has maintained a high scholastic average throughout his four years at Bapst. It's easy to understand how he has won the everlasting regard of the Brothers and all his fellow-students. Most of "Dick's" spare time is devoted to hunting and fishing. If he enters the business world as expected, it may be because of his connections with Eddie Cantor, to whom he makes frequent reference.

VIVIAN BUTERA

Vivian, who is considered the most candid girl in her class, commands a staunch following because of her honesty and sincerity. Vivian did an exceptional job at the Coffee Party in offering her talents to boost the profits at the "John Bapst" booth. She has her own style of singing, plus rare ability in rendering Western interpretations. Judy Canova, beware

FRANK CLANCEY

Despite a weight handicap, Frank became a very dependable quarterback and did some shrewd play-calling. It was largely due to Frank's astuteness that Bapst had a successful season on the gridiron. Frank has done better than average work with the books and has managed to have a lot of fun besides. He has the readiest blush of any of the Seniors and that is really something as his classmates are a modest lot. Frank is heading for Castine where he will establish himself as the toast of the crews.

PHYLLIS CLOUGH

Phyllis came to us from Bangor High School where she successfully completed three years of classical study. She has been a grand contribution to the spirit of good fellowship that has been so pronounced among the present Seniors. Phyllis has won a large following from the male department at Bapst. All agree that she is a very likable and energetic creature. Her plans call for a thorough pursuit of the classical courses.

ANN COHLAN

Mischief, fun, merriment and wit, all these are a part of Ann's delightful personality. Ann, our "Snowball Queen," is busy all the day developing some scheme or other, lending a helping hand when it is needed—even studying and passing courses. Ann keeps racing ahead of us. But catching her provides its own fun, and we all love life when Ann is present. We're going to miss her singing—what a job she can do with a song—classical or popular. Mercy Hospital bound.

CLYDE CONNOLLY

"Buddy" was a Sophomore transferee from across the river. He is very talented with pen and brush. Although not too serious in his school work, he may have a brilliant future as a commercial artist. "Bud" has seldom been called to the discipline office. The class will miss "Buddy" for the very fine work he has done in drawing pictures for this Yearbook. He will never be forgotten for his ability as a fullback —honored as a member of the Commercial's "All Scholastic" this year.

JAMES CONNOR

"Jamesie" came to us from St. John's School where he established himself as a top-flight student. Since his entrance at Bapst he has lived up to all advanced billings. James has won enough scholarships and essay prizes to float a small battleship. He was elected co-editor of the "Bapstonian" and has performed his harrowing tasks in publishing the 1952 edition nobly. "Jim" expects to go to Holy Cross. After that it is a question mark, but we hope for big things.

ROBERT CONNOR

"Bob" has been one of the most reliable standbys when it comes to public speaking or Master of Ceremony chores. Because of his marvelous tone quality, we predict a career in radio, although at this point "Bob" says he will go into agriculture. "Bob" attains very good marks with the least trouble of anyone in class. "Bob" can always be counted on to come up with the shrewdest questions in a great variety of subjects.

RAYMOND CORMIER

One of the things that will linger in the minds of the Seniors long after graduation is "Ray's" rendition of "Rock'a'bye, My Baby" in the Minstrel. He sang it with so much éclat that several of the Brothers were noticed humming it while walking along the corridors. Besides his great vocal talent, "Ray" is an ardent camera fan, with several pictures in this book illustrating his knowledge of photography. Good luck, "Ray," and we hope you are the first to get a candid picture of Brother Patricius' expression when the Red Sox win the pennant.

ROBERT COX

"Bob" has been "bobbing" in and out of Bapst classes with more careless abandon than any other student. Apparently he is a great friend of Brother Aubertus—at least they are seen in conference with great regularity. "Bob" has a great many other friends as well. Although lacking weight, he was a member of this year's football team. He was one of the "men behind the scene" in this year's Minstrel, rendering valuable aid to Brother Patricius.

ELIZABETH CRAWFORD

The life of the party, "Betty" is known for dancing the "Charleston." This curly-haired brunette is one of the prettiest girls in the Senior Class. Every afternoon you see "Betty" coming out of school dressed all in white. Doctor Gunn will have a very competent assistant come June. What's this about holding more than one job at once???

MARGARET ANN CURRIER

Margaret Ann comes to us from Bradley. She has been endowed with a keen mind for mathematics. During hunting season, she can be seen parading through the woods threatening the poor innocent animals. Busy all the day studying and passing her courses, she keeps racing ahead of us. Because of what she has achieved during her four years at John Bapst, we predict that this girl will be an asset to any group with whom she will work in the future.

BARBARA DAY

Barbara "Bubbling-over" Day is the type one wouldn't mind being stranded with. She is, besides being downright pretty, a cheery Miss with a lot of attractive, personal qualities. Barbara would make a fine nurse or social worker. It is hard to imagine a person more apt to relieve distress and give comfort. Barbara's proudest boast is her big brother Phil, who carried away everything in the way of honors last year that John Bapst had to offer. Continue to smile, "Barb"—God bless you.

JAMES DELANEY

Handsome "Jim" received recognition for outstanding basketball playing during his Senior year. It is generally believed that our team would have been in serious contention had "Jim" been spared to us during the final games of the season. He might well be called the hard luck guy of the class, since—besides his injury in basketball—a leg injury kept him out of football. "Jim" has a keen mind and a lot of ambition. He should go places when he breaks into the world of designing.

GLADYS DIONNE

Gladys lived a very subdued life during her first three years at Bapst but made up for it when she became a Senior. Her first big bid was made in the history play as "Old Mother World." She came forth again with a brilliance when she was chosen as one of the five candidates for the "Snow Ball Queen." Gladys is very photogenic and dainty. When she graduates, the Old Town contingent will lose a glamorous supporter.

JAMES DUFOUR

"Jim" came to Bapst from Old Town four years ago and has gradually acquired a Bangor style. Without saying much, "Jim" has gained great height in the way of good fellowship. We all envy his captivating smile and swaggering manners. Although "Jim" plans to join the Air Force, we hope he manages to steer his ultimate course into political circles where he could become a great influence — and probably would, as he is absolutely irrepressible.

MARY ELLEN DUNROE

Mary Ellen motors up in her green sedan every morning from Winterport. She has a full schedule of activities and is seldom available for trifling enterprises. Mary Ellen is unquestionably the most proficient elocutionist in the Senior Class. She plays a lot of piano. We regret that her skill has been confined to classical studies, but she has lots of time left for branching out into the modern field. Mary Ellen is a smooth talker, a clever chemist, and an all-round good sport.

CARL ESTABROOK

Carl brought honor to Bapst last year when he carried the purple and white banner into the State speaking finals. This year he followed up his success with a first place win in a regional essay contest. Carl is president of Class 4A and has been active in all Bapst social affairs during the past four years. Carl plans to attend Bowdoin, and we all expect big things from him in the future.

JACQUELINE FARWELL

This capable young lady will contribute a touch of glamor, sunshine a-plenty, and all round efficiency to any future work she may have—and all her co-workers will love her as we have loved her. "Jackie" is a girl who is dainty and neat, and you can't help giving her your heart. Her enthusiastic handling of hard work, her talent in dancing, her sincere friendly disposition have made her a recognized asset to John Bapst.

DAVID FERRIS

"Dave" is the tall, impressive and gracious lad one meets weaving in and out of classes. Perhaps more than any other student, "Dave" roves about from class to class, getting from each department any foundation material that he will find useful to become a top-flight accountant. He is a convincing debator, a clever writer and a keen diagnostician of mathematical problems. "Dave" can't miss making good. He has just about every desirable quality one can find in a student.

VALERIE GALLANT

It has been a long time since the graduating class has been without a Gallant. Valerie is a worthy representative of the Gallant clan. She has a fortune in her lovely complexion and also a fortune in her Trading Post prospects. Valerie keeps her own counsel, so we hesitate to say just what her plans are. We hope Valerie lives up to her high ideals and becomes another John Bapst celebrity.

JAMES GILLIS

"Jim" is the most characteristic Bapst man participating in all sports. He is the soul of respectability and integrity. "Jim" has given his best to the cause and deserves to be numbered among the top men of Bapst. Although "Jim" has given loads of time to athletics and studies, he has managed to hold down a very responsible job in local bakeries. We feel his personality and willingness will see "Jim" through. Good luck, "Jim."

DIANA GODIN

Tall, slender and gracious, Diana always appears when the traffic gets heavy. She came into prominence at the time of the Senior Prom of 1951. Her designing and planning set a new standard for decorations at Bapst. Diana is a skillful typist and a very dependable office helper. She was a prime mover of the Camera Club. She is the one person most heartily received into all social gatherings where she lends plenty of laughter and charm. She plans to enter a school of nursing.

MARY GOODNESS

Mary Goodness—the little girl with a sweet voice and a brilliant mind—has achieved prominence in the art of good fellowship. Mary has spent most of her time with the books, but she has managed to squeeze in enough social activity to acquire a good name as a party girl. Mary has several priceless recordings which come from a distant island. What about it, Mary???

RAYMOND GOODY

Raymond is known throughout the school for his interest in rabbits. "Ray" can be seen two steps ahead of Paul Shanley as the pair arrive from South Brewer six minutes late for school. "Ray" gave the class its greatest scare when he tried to dance outside the window of the chemistry lab and nearly got washed overboard. He possesses one of the keenest minds for mathematics of any of the Seniors. We hope "Ray" pursues an engineering course, but in all probability he will go in for rabbit husbandry.

RICHARD HOWELL

"Dick" is the most popular boy in Bapst. Wherever you go, you will find "Dick" well received and thoroughly at home. It wasn't until he became a Senior that "Dick" broke into the entertainment field. His song and dance number was easily the most heartily received of any of the boy and girl combinations. "Dick" is the only mailman in town who rings twice. He can turn a good account of himself slinging cokes, and he was a very important member of the "Bapstonian" staff.

ROBERT HOWELL

"Bob" hails from St. Mary's. Although he never played varsity athletics, he is still recognized as one of the better athletes at Bapst. His only comment on things in general is, "Well, that's the way it goes." He is well liked by all the members of the Senior Class and is always willing to lend a helping hand. Although "Bob" is still undecided about the future, he has been giving some thought to attending the U. of M. to take up physical education.

FREDERICK LAWRENCE

"Freddie" might well be referred to as "Mr. Substantial." We know of no other Senior who could be depended upon more securely than the irrepressible "Freddie." He has been a hearty contributor to all activities, whether he partakes or not. "Freddie" is responsible for many of the Senior write-ups appearing in this book. He has a much keener sense of observation than one would be apt to credit him with. "Freddie" is apt, too, at dealing out cokes. He holds the unbeatable record of having attended all home games. Good luck, "Freddie."

ROBERT HARDY

Robert reported back to us last year, after a brief sojourn in the South, to tell us that there is not a single school between here and Florida that can compare with John Bapst. "Bob" owned one of the oldest but most dependable cars ever to make the journey across the Brewer bridge. He plans to attend Bowdoin next year, and we know that he will win his way into the hearts of all with whom he comes in contact.

JOHN HAYES

John, a J. B. man in basketball last year, came up with a leg injury this year to keep him out of sports. Two-thirds of Brother Michael's English periods are spent answering John's questions. John hails from the East side and is more often seen on the West, where he tells us he is interested in mortician's work???? We wonder about that, John. Whatever his course in life, John is sure to succeed because of his energetic and loyal determination.

CHARLES HOGAN

"Charlie" is the smiling bashful Senior who is bound to leave a raft of friends when he graduates from Bapst. "Charlie" managed to conceal his piano playing ability during his scholastic course, but he can't go on just playing for himself. We predict that Charles will one day head a talented family of musicians and will be the essence of respectability. He is the third and last of the Hogans to graduate from Bapst. We hope Charles will be as loyal and as enthusiastic as his brother and sister. Good luck, "Charlie," at Maine.

RUDOLPH LeBLANC

"Rudy" holds the record of being the youngest Senior ever to graduate. We doubt if anyone will surpass his record. When it comes to sports, "Rudy" can hold his own. The best three cents "Rudy" ever spent was for a letter to Millinocket. "Rudy's" best subject is English and he is a member of the B. B. I.'s. He has proved to be the top man in 4C when growing beards is the topic. We are all still trying to find out his secret. Does he use "Hair-Gro" or mustache wax? "Rudy" plans to complete a four year course at the U. of M. before he is old enough to be drafted.

VIRGIL LeBLANC

Virgil "Lanky" LeBlanc topped off his scholastic career at Bapst by proving to one and all that his services as an alternate in basketball were indispensable. Not only his reach and his long strides up and down the court, but also his deft handling of his little brother Rudolph proved invaluable. "Virg" impressed upon "Rudy" that he should use his own judgment. It is quite likely that Virgil will stay in the athletic department. And who knows? He may some day be a coach who is the power behind a winning combination in the Eastern Maine Tournament.

BOB LeGASSÉ

"Bob" came to Bapst last year and brought, among other grand qualities, a very likable disposition. "Bob" ran into some severe difficulty in making adjustments necessary to fit his strictly classical course into a more general academic setup. He has managed well up to now and we hope he continues to do well to the end. He has a great interest in biology and nature studies all of which might well prove his fortune. He has a thorough religious background and a lot of high principles. We feel sure he will do well when he leaves Bapst.

MARY RUTH JAMESON

Here is our lovely Irish colleen, Mary Ruth—the girl with the dimpled smile. Her happy, gay disposition makes her presence a delight on all occasions. Mary Ruth can be seen weaving skillfully about the streets of Bangor in her '50 Ford. She is bound for Mercy Hospital where we know she will be loved and will make a wonderful nurse.

MARILYN JOHNSON

A slam of the outside door, a swish up the stairs, and a hesitant opening of a classroom door announces the arrival of our Marilyn, a second Esther Williams and a third Chopin. Because of her keen interest in public affairs, we sometimes picture her in future diplomatic circles, perhaps even as a foreign ambassadress. Every September since her first year here we had feared she would not return, but happily enough for us she appeared sooner or later.

RUTH LANDRY

"Ruthie" journeys each morning from Brewer. She is the second member of her family to leave home and take up her school residence in Bangor. Her brother Paul, who preceded her, paved the way for smooth sailing. Ruth is very well liked. A recent survey showed that the most likely of all commercial activities participated in by high school students to produce husbands was ticket selling. All of which makes "Ruthie's" prospects very promising. Our fondest, "Ruthie."

EARLENE LEVEILLE

Earlene can usually be seen playing the piano for our many school activities. Popular and ambitious, she is the president of the Senior Class. A diligent and good worker, Earlene has always been at the head of her class. With her sound judgment and persevering earnestness in hard work, we know that Earlene will be an asset to any group of people among whom she will live and work in the future. One of her ambitions is to attend Beals Business College.

ELIZABETH LOBLEY

"Betty" is more apt to become a hostess than any one of her classmates. She has a charming way and an easy speaking voice. Although she has given plenty of evidence of loyalty and sincere devotion to the school, "Betty" has never any time to spare when the bell rings for prayers in the morning. She is undecided but hopes to become an exemplary domestic.

RICHARD LYNCH

"Dick" is the youngest and the likeliest of all the Lynch's to become City Manager. He has a very attractive way and is more than enthusiastic in all types of school activities. He made a grand contribution to his scientific and mathematical progress by bringing to school each Monday morning a copy of "Sporting News." Brother Patricius predicts that he will be the outstanding apple polisher of his class. We hope he continues the good record of his two brothers at Maine. Our full support, Richard.

SALLY MacDONALD

Happy-go-lucky, carefree Sally comes all the way from South Brewer. Noted for her travels, the most outstanding ones are those to Castine. Sally has a magnetic eye for Navy blue. Her one ambition is to become an airline hostess.

ARTHUR MARTIN

A sincere and modest disposition, and a quiet ability to get things done have characterized "Art" during his four years at Bapst. "Art's" lessons get a good share of his time. Although he doesn't like to admit it, "Art" is one of the better "Charleston" dancers in the area. Everyone enjoys listening to his drawl when called upon in class to give an answer. "Art" plans to further his studies at the U. of M., where we are sure he will be near the top in his class and a credit to John Bapst.

RONALD MARTIN

Every school day "Ronnie" could be found in the third row of Room 4C. One would have to look twice for him, as he is the least boisterous in class. We feel that his kindness and considerateness will be a great advantage when he heads into the business world. If "Ronnie" had charged for his transportation services, he would be able to retire at the close of his scholastic career. He hopes to sail through the wide blue yonder behind the controls of an F-80.

CHARLOTTE McLEOD

Charlotte is the most romantic-minded of any of the present graduating class. She has good reasons for believing that she will some day marry a sailor because she has eyes of blue and nice teeth, too. Charlotte may become a foreign correspondent. She is well practiced in the art of correspondence and has loads of evidence to support her claim.

MARY McMANUS

Mary is our little, modest maiden. Though strictly an "A" student, she does not put all her energy on her books. Mary can't wait for the day when she gets her R. N. from Mercy Hospital. She can be seen on the candy counter at Grant's. Mary has been our librarian for the past two years. Because of what she has already achieved, we predict that this girl will reach great heights.

JANET MESSIER

Janet is the smaller of the Messier twins and much the more dynamic. She has developed a fond interest in John Bapst activities. Her record of never having been absent or tardy during her four years gives promise of being one of her most useful references. She has been very helpful to Sister Mary Luke in the school office. Janet is a prominent member of the "Bapstonian" staff and is a very likable person.

MARY ANN MESSIER

Mary Ann comes from Bradley along with her sister and the rest of the gang. Mary Ann is the "Question Box" in all of her classes. A loyal rooter for Bapst, she can be seen ushering at all the games. Mary Ann's ambition is to become a cheerleader for the University of Maine. Good luck, Mary Ann!

JAMES MOORE

James came to us shortly after school opened in September. We know very little about James' early high school experience. He has almost nothing to say about himself. His modesty, however, is a charming asset, and one of several which add up to make him a very popular member of the Senior Class. Brother Alphonse is still glowing over the progress this lad made in Typing I. Good luck to you, James.

MADELINE MORGAN

Small in structure, but large in heart is Madeline. A great one for expressing her opinions. She was voted the best sales girl of the year. A lover of clothes, Madeline can always be seen with her nose in a fashion magazine. Although her interests lie in the Air Force, her ambition is to become an airline hostess.

JOAN McCLAY

Joan is a prominent West Sider. Her greatest claim to eminent success is in scholastic activities. She is very popular and is pleasingly quiet. Joan has a sweet voice which is evidenced at all choir rehearsals. She has a cute Scotch accent which may prove a profitable adjunct in later life.

IRENE McGILLICUDDY

Our popular, happy, lovable Irene has done her share in making our high school days merry. Irene's personality, ability, fine sense of humor, and love of work should help to make her a fine nurse. She will always be remembered as "Sister M. Irene" in the Mercy Day program. "Versatility plus" best describes Irene, class poet and ardent rooter for Bapst.

GERALDINE McGLAUGHLIN

Geraldine is the tiniest girl of the 1952 graduating class. Her dimpled smile has proved her greatest asset in winning many friends. Geraldine completed a full course at St. John's School before coming to Bapst. She has done better than average work here, in spite of a full time job at a local restaurant. Geraldine has a sweet voice and is a very good dancer. She plans to become head of those in the '52 Class who are looking to a domestic life as a career.

LOUIS MORNEAULT

Louis holds the distinction of having traveled the farthest to attend Bapst. He hails from Aroostook County and never fails to encourage everyone with the idea of eating Maine Potatoes. Louis is easly the best-dressed and, according to many, the best looking boy in Class 4A. Louis has maintained a very respectable average all during his four years. He is the third member of his family to graduate from Bapst. We hope he does as well as his brothers when he leaves us.

CHARLOTTE O'TOOLE

Coming from St. Mary's Parish, Charlotte is the giggler in 303. Known as the girl with the "Ipana Smile," Charlotte can be found selling tickets at the Bijou Theater. "Join the Navy and see the world at the expense of the government" is Charlotte's motto. If anyone wants to know the latest on movies, just call Charlotte.

MARY RUTH PERRY

Mary Ruth is the third of a family of very popular Perry's who attended Bapst, and she managed to uphold the high standards of scholastic rating of her brilliant sisters. Mary Ruth was the vice-president of the French Club and was a prominent member of the "Bapstonian" staff. Her greater achievement, however, was her contribution to a new activity known as the Camera Club. Mary Ruth organized this little group. We predict that she will become a prominent member of the 1956 Class at the University of Maine.

WILFRED PERRY

In keeping with an old John Bapst tradition, we are graduating a Perry. This one, happily, is as astute as his predecessors, although not quite so heavy. "Willie" is no lightweight, though. He has maintained a very respectable average in all subjects. He is somewhat undecided as to a career. We feel, however, that he will go to Maine and will finally settle in Hampden and become a very good farmer.

JAMES PURDY

"Jim" distinguished himself at Bapst as a fine student and a glib debator. Although he invariably held up the Religion class to point up an experience that verified some principle or other, he made up for his dry interlude by smiling graciously when the subject received a quick suppression. "Jim" is the staunchest supporter of the CYO among all Bapstonians. He scored a real hit in the Minstrel with his smooth interpretation of the "Silvery Moon." He plans to attend Maine Maritime in the fall.

JOHN QUINE

Big, gracious and lazy, but withall a very popular lad. John has been the backbone of our football team and has contributed to every activity at Bapst all during his four years. As Master of Ceremonies, John proved a bit of his talent, but his best exhibition was as an endman in the 1952 Minstrel. Certainly if any of our graduating class will be hard to replace, it will be John. We know he will succeed at whatever he attempts, but we hope he will follow his daddy to the "Bar."

PATRICIA RAND

"Pat" is the second Rand to graduate from Bapst in two years. "Pat" can lay claim to sole title of "Beautiful Dreamer." She has acquired great skill in running the mimeograph and may use it to earn a livelihood. "Pat" has a rich voice and a good ear, which makes her a welcome member of any harmonizing group. "Pat" plans to marry and settle down to a quiet life in Bradley.

ROSEMARY RIVERS

Rosemary is the fourth member of the Rivers family to graduate from Bapst. She has, during her four years at Bapst, become a capable typist and should be a valuable adjunct to some business office in Bangor. Rosemary is well liked by all her classmates. She has a very charming way and moves in interesting company. God bless you, Rosemary.

SHIRLEY ROY

Shirley followed her little sister to Bangor and in no time at all acquired all the big city ways. It was perhaps a happy day for Shirley when she became interested in the dairy business. She has covered more ground than any of her contemporaries and bids fair to continue during the four years at Maine. Shirley came into her own during the Minstrel rehearsals where she blossomed out as a sparkling contralto. She is the most adept of any of her classmates on the local rinks.

GEORGE SEARWAY

"Bouncy" is one of the hardest working boys ever to come to Bapst. Whether it is on the gridiron, the diamond, the basketball court, or in the classroom, he is always in there giving all he has. Besides being a three letter man, he is the best liked among all the graduates. Although "Bouncy" seems to close his eyes when he smiles, we all know he sees enough. He is the one lad of whom it can be truthfully said: "he never misses a trick."

PAUL SHANLEY

Paul has a very keen mind as attested to by several I. Q. surveys. Although Paul has never reached the eminence he was capable of as a student, he has led his class in mathematics and science tests. Paul is an inoffensive and likable lad. He gladdened the hearts of many of his followers with his interpretation of Macbeth and later as a dancing end-man. His great ambition is to become a worldwide observer for the Associated Press.

TIMOTHY SMITH

"Tim," who has been known for his smoothness and readiness during his half-decade at Bapst, never quite reached his peak until he took over Ed Hughes' Oil Service. He is, if there ever was one, a real "oily character." "Tim's" motto is: "the 'oily' bird gets the worm." "Tim" won his J. B. in his Sophomore year while running for one of Bapst's infrequent track teams. Since then he has had no excuse for being late for class. No dance committee or Senior activity could function without "Tim." We predict a full career for him.

RALPH SNOW

"Buzzy" is another Senior who comes from Old Town. Always sees the humorous side of any situation, in and out of school. Because of his dynamic work on the "Snowball Dance" committee and of his enthusiasm in winter sports, it may be said that "Buz" will follow the trail of the "Yukon." He may live all year round as a winter hermit up where the snow flies and the wind blows. Although sidelined from school for many days due to an illness, he still is rated as a "chip off the old block" at his studies.

ANNE SOUCIE

Anne comes from Bradley. She is the first one in school and the first one to leave at 1.20. Anne loves dancing, movies, and books (that is, novels and short stories). Typing and shorthand are her favorite subjects. She spends her afternoons in the dentist's chair. Anne is undecided about the future, but whatever she does we know she will succeed and be loyal to her Alma Mater.

JOAN STE. MARIE

"Jo" is the liveliest and the gainliest Miss to come down the river since the Penobscot was dammed in '75. Voted the most apt to marry a marine, she still gives evidence of being convent bound. Joan can skate, knit, and sing with equal dexterity, and she can really laugh. What a hard person "Jo" will be to replace. We know plenty about her admirable domestic chores but not too much about her romancing. We can guess and hope that all turns to gold for our dear "Jo."

ANITA TESSEO

Anita is the last of a long line of Tesseos to attend Bapst. She came up through the parochial system and has always been a representative subject of the Catholic schools. Anita has a hearty laugh which characterizes her among her friends but which also becomes something of a boomerang when she is in class, especially during Religion period. She has no plans but feels that she will readily fit into the scheme of things when she leaves Bapst.

ROGER THERIAULT

Roger the Terrible. Who can resist this dynamic personality? Roger chews gum with the same grim determination that he grinds out shorthand assignments. Although his size looked as though it might be a serious handicap, Roger became the spark plug of the CYO Crescents. We hope his terrific left jab doesn't entice him into the boxing ring. He is much too much the gentleman to be involved in fistic activities. Without turning a hand, Roger came up with the most sparkling number in the Minstrel. He can cook, too, girls. We select "Frenchy" as "Mr. Bapst."

BEVERLY THORNE

Smiling Beverly is what most of us call her. Beverly has been referred to as "awful cute." We think so too, but we'll spare her the awe. What Beverly lacks in the way of scholastic interest is well supplied in her overwhelming charm. She has a brother whom she holds to be her proudest boast. For Beverly's sake, as well as for the sake of good old John Bapst, we hope Jerry becomes the "Toast of the School."

LEO TRAINOR

Leo is always plugging, especially when the team is behind and needs to be pulled through to victory. A speedy halfback in football, a fast moving, sharp-shooting guard and forward in basketball, a slugging left fielder in baseball, and just about an entire track team in himself—all are characteristic of Leo. He is a boy who has the best prospects of hitting the sports' headlines, and will do great in future years. Our hopes are high that he will keep on being "All-Scholastic."

WILLIAM TUTTLE

"Willie" is a born comedian who is able to see the humorous side of any situation. He has a depth of good humor and can take a joke or give one. Famous for his imitations. Always presents a neat appearance. Pretty boy of the Senior Class. Ran a daily race with "Frenchy" Theriault for superiority in shorthand and typing. Uncle Sam will get a good man in our "Bill."

ROBERT VIOLA

"Bob" Viola is the third member of the Viola clan to complete the classical course at Bapst. Although "Bob" was so involved in his father's business during his four years that he had to forego any participation in extra-curricular activities, he easily made it up by honest-to-goodness enthusiasm. "Bob" gives promise of becoming a fiery politician. During his uncle's campaign for city councilor, "Bob" showed himself to be quite a "ward heeler."

ROWENA WATSON

Rowena came up through the parochial system by way of St. John's grammar school. She acquired a deftness at writing while in elementary school that stood her in good part during the classical course. Rowena has managed to keep her own counsel. Very few know what is going on or what will ensue in Rowena's life. All of which makes her the envy of her classmates. She will perhaps strike out into the decorating work and make extensive use of her skill as a designer. Good luck, Rowena.

RICHARD WEBBER

"Dick" transferred from Orono High School to Bapst during his Sophomore year. He was immediately received into the inner circles of Bapst and has been a good choice. He is loyal to the bone and is ever handy. He was a fine cheerleader as a Junior. Richard is forever referring to New York as his home. We love his accent and his friendliness.

JOHN SPRAGUE

John is an ex-Bar Harbor lad. He moved to Bapst and caused a mild sensation with his clowning. In his second year, John took up track and made his big effort on the dog track in Lincoln. He brought down the house with his "Black Crow Act" in Brother Patricius' "51" Minstrel. This year John went into chemistry business doing a little brewing at home. In the future John intends to sail the seven seas, after completing a four year course at the Maine Maritime Academy.

The Editors

ANN COHLAN — JAMES CONNOR

THE BAPSTONIAN Staff proved to be one of the most active and enthusiastic school organizations of the current year.

To determine who would hold the offices of Co-Editors, the staff held a contest early in the year—a race to see who could obtain the largest number of yearbook patrons. Anne Cohlan and James Connor were the winners. Janet Messier led in the later job of collecting ads. Bud Connolly deserves special commendation for the beautiful sketches on the division pages.

The staff decided early to place the book under the patronage of the Sacred Heart. The book was dedicated to our beloved Father Butler; everyone considered it to be "high time" to honor a man who has rendered outstanding work to both St. John's Church and to Bapst for the past seventeen years.

BROTHER ALPHONSE
Director of Athletics

The question has been asked a great many times: Why did they leave Brother Alphonse here so long? The answer is very simple. It took a long time to find a man able to do the work.

Brother Alphonse has proven a happy choice. He learned all the tricks of planning schedules, buying equipment, selling tickets, attending conferences in a very short time. And has turned in a very good job.

Besides doing a fine job as athletic director, Brother Alphonse has built up a grammar school league that should prove a great boon to athletics at John Bapst in future years. Our sincere congratulations to Brother Alphonse in his new job.

Plagued by injuries during much of the season, the Crusaders showed to one and all the fighting spirit which has characterized every Bapst team over the years. Fielding a green team, often times with a make-shift line-up due to injuries to key men, our new coach, Tommy Farrell, still managed to round the team into shape enough to take the final two games of the season after suffering through heartbreaking defeats in six of the seven previous contests.

Co-Captains Johnny Quine and Leo Trainor proved inspirational leaders: the former with his vicious tackling and blocking, the latter by his tremendously hard running. Both men were sidelined part of the season, Quine suffering a broken nose in the opener to cause him to miss the next game, and Trainor having a pulled leg muscle which kept him out half the season. Another player whose injury caused him to be sorely missed during most of the games was our star lineman, Ajax Cassidy.

Bud Connolly showed magnificent form and was a constant scoring threat when carrying from his fullback position. His outstanding play earned him recognition on the Bangor Commercial's All-Scholastic First Team. Quine also won this honor. Doc Blanchard and Jim Gillis filled the end positions exceptionally well and were the chief targets in our passing attack. Searway, Clancey, and Albert also had their sparkling days in their last year of wearing the Purple and White.

Many underclassmen saw steady action during the past campaign, stirring high hopes for a great Bapst team next season. Among these were Cassidy, Tremble, Spinney, Butera, Jim Kearns, and St. John in the line; and Goody, Millett, Bob Kearns, and Caruso in the backfield.

Although we were beaten by both Bangor and Brewer, our gallant forces kept the Crusaders' banner waving proudly. The Bangor Rams, having one of their best seasons in recent years, were forced to the limit in earning their 20-13 victory. Thus, for a game in which the Crusaders were defeated they probably will be best remembered.

BASKETBALL

BASKETBALL TEAM

The 1951-52 Crusaders representing John Bapst on the hardwood posted a respectable 8-8 record.

Coach Tommy Farrell could call on only two starters from last year's team, Leo Trainor and Paul Blanchard. As the season moved on, Jim Belaney and Bob LePage developed into a high-scoring combination at the forward posts. Trainor spark-plugged the quintet from his guard spot, while Bob Kearns, Jimmy Gillis, and Norby Dowd alternated at the other guard position. Blanchard and Virg LeBlanc spaced each other at center.

An expected slow start saw the Crusaders drop their first two games at the hands of Ellsworth and Waterville before snagging their initial victory in an over-time thriller from Fairfield. From then on, the scrappy Bapstmen proved a match for all opponents, toppling such regional powers as Stearns, Brewer, Waterville and Bar Harbor. They nearly pulled the upset of the season when meeting the State Champs, the Indians of Old Town, on the latter's court and forcing the contest into overtime before the superior Braves could eke out a victory.

As usual, it was the second contest against our old intra-city rivals, Bangor High, that produced what might be termed the outstanding game of the season in the State of Maine. Catching fire in the last quarter, the Crusaders came from nowhere to knot the count at 50-50 with thirty seconds remaining, only to have their gigantic rally doomed by a "desperation" shot which ended the contest in favor of the Rams. This loss extinguished any hopes the Bapst followers had for this year's Tournament—but, there is always another year.

To Leo Trainor—the little guy with the "never-say-die" spirit, to Doc Blanchard—certainly one of the most improved players in the area, to a surprising Jim Delaney—a boy who stuffed the baskets with left-handed push shots, to Bob LePage—the most-feared, one-handed set man in Eastern Maine, and to all the other members of this season's Purple and White, our thanks for a most interesting and spine-tingling campaign.

MAXIMS

TO GUIDE A YOUTH

By

One Of Your Neighbors

Keep good company or none. Never be idle; if your hands cannot be usefully employed, attend to the cultivation of your mind. Always speak the truth; make few promises; live up to your engagements; when you speak to anyone, look him straight in the face.

Good company and good conversation are the very sinews of virtue. Good character is above all things else in life. Never listen to loose or idle conversation; you had better be poisoned in your blood than in your principles. Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If anyone should speak evil of you, let your life be so virtuous that none will believe him.

Always speak the truth and act as if in the presence of your MAKER; drink no intoxicating liquors; ever live, misfortune excepted, within your income. When you retire to bed at night think of what you have done during the day. Never speak lightly of anyone; make no haste to be rich if you should prosper; small and steady gains give competency with tranquility of mind.

Never plan any game of chance; avoid the temptation through fear that may not withstand it. Earn your money before you spend it, and never run in debt unless you can see a way to get out of it.

Never borrow, if you can avoid it. Save when you are young to save when you are old. Never think what you do to alleviate the sufferings of fellow beings is time and money lost. Be kind and generous, for the whole human family is depending one upon the other.
