BAPSTONIAN

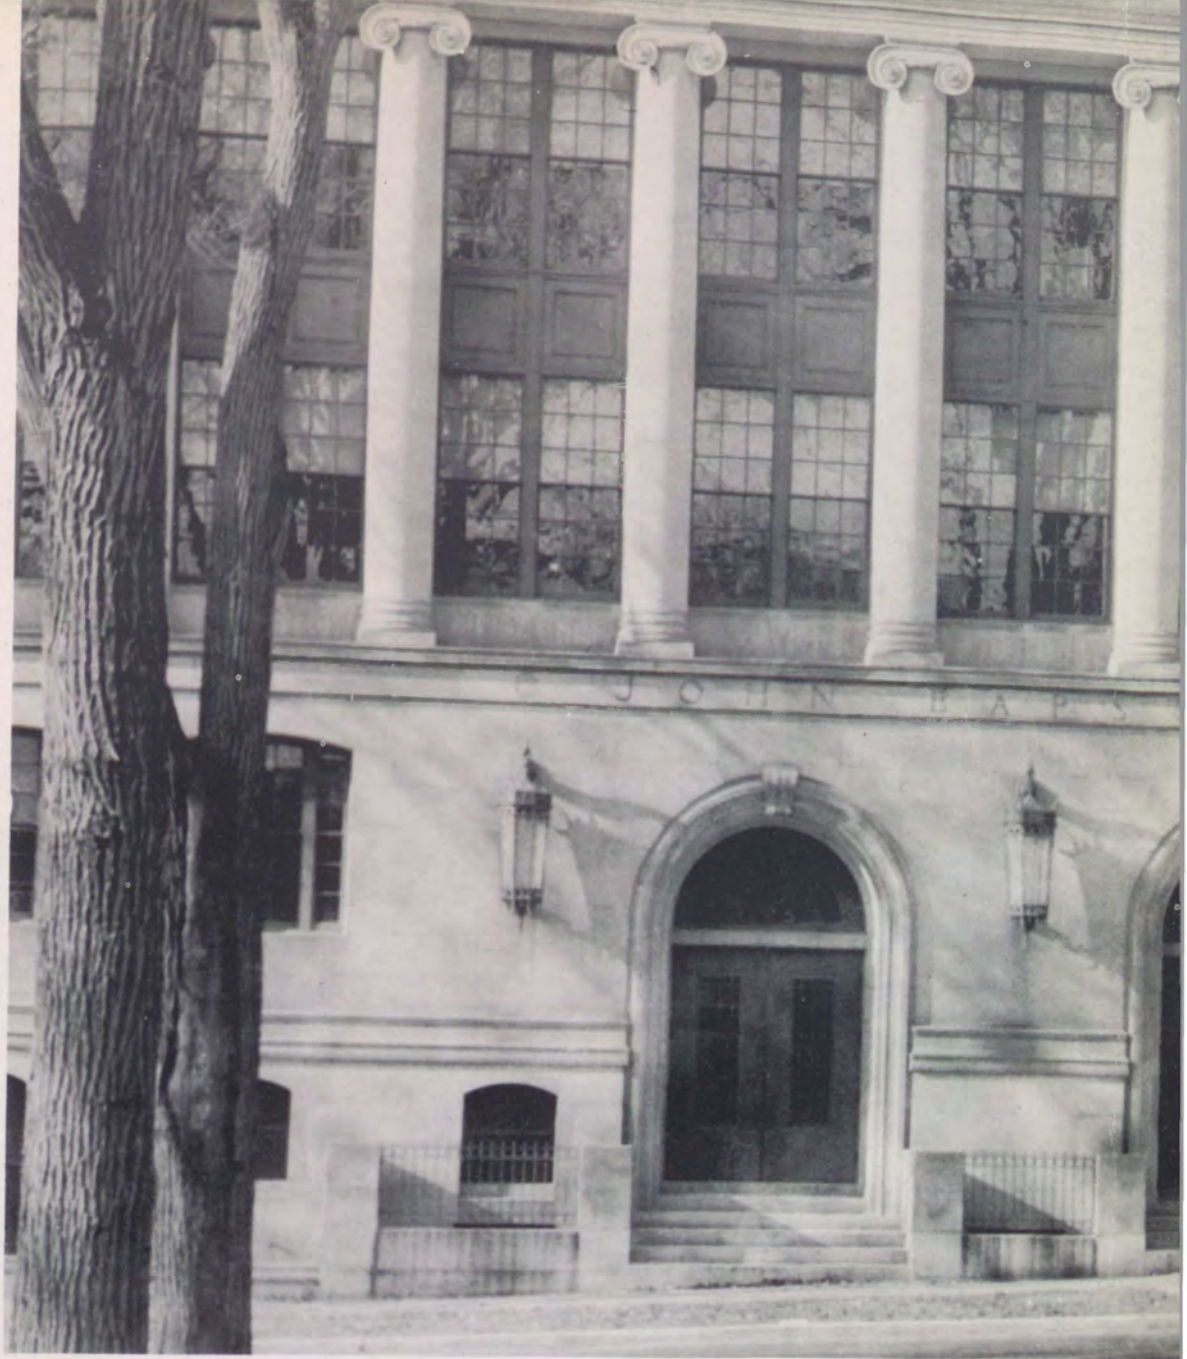
1957

PRESENTED

BY THE

CLASS OF

NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-SEVEN



JOHN BAPST

BANGOR

Our beautiful high school was dedicated to the memory of Father John Bapst, S. J. on Sunday, September 8, 1928 with Bishop John Murray presiding.

The school was opened on September 9, admitting a full quota of girls and about forty boys from the Bangor area.

The Rev. Edward M. Shannon was the first principal of the Boys' Department; he was assisted by a faculty of three, Rev. James Sullivan, Mr. Norbert Dowd, our first coach, and Mr. Raymond Carey.

HIGH SCHOOL

MAINE

The Xaverian Brothers arrived at Bapst in 1933 with Brother Adalbert as the principal. He was succeeded by Brothers Pascal, Flavian, Samuel, Rudolph, and Aubertus with Brother Evangelus as the present principal.

Mother Mary Raphael of the Sisters of Mercy was the first principal of the Girls' Department. She was succeeded by Sister M. Florence, Sister M. Callista, and Sister M. Carmel. Sister Mary Luke is the present principal.

The first graduation took place on Sunday, June 16, 1929. The class consisted of 29 girls most of whom had transferred from Girls Catholic High. Today more than 2000 girls and boys have graduated from John Bapst High School.

Foreword

We the senior class have completed our four year journey here at John Bapst. We are leaving behind our search for knowledge and the care-free life which we have enjoyed so much. These are behind us, but they will never be forgotten by any member of our class.

These years have been four of the most formative of our lives and we realize now as we review them at their completion that they have been four of the happiest years we will ever experience. In these years by the guidance we have received here at Bapst, we have been developing into young adults able to face up to our responsibilities when we leave and enter our new lives in the outside world. We have been well prepared; we look ahead at the path of life which we will travel with God as our guide.

This yearbook is to serve as our souvenir, to recall to our minds the many gay as well as serious moments of our stay here.

Even unto our declining years, we shall ever remember what we have learned and the experiences we have had here. We shall give thanks for the watchful care of our school and for the efforts made to instill in us a love for right.

COACH JOHN MITCHELL

DEDICATION

The John Bapst Senior Class of '57, gazing confidently to the future, retain a link to the past in dedicating their BAPSTONIAN to Coach John Mitchell, who in his three years of service here has deeply impressed all those who have come under his influence.

WE TEACH YOU TO LIVE TOGETHER
WORK TOGETHER AND
PRAY TOGETHER

BROTHER EVANGELUS, C. F. X.

The Class of 1957 is very happy in having Brother Evangelus as principal. His enthusiasm, his warm and personal interest in us and John Bapst, in our problems and our development, drew an early response. Our rapport increased with time. We have one regret: that Brother Evangelus, who figures in this one of our best remembered years, was not a part of all the others.

The office door is always open. Richie Martin, Ray Curran, Walter Hall and Al Pelletier spied the Photographer first.

MONSIGNORS NELLIGAN AND WARD

Monsignor Thomas Nelligan and Monsignor Edward Ward have given their spiritual counsel unsparingly for the glory of God. They have proven themselves true servants of the Divine Master. The light of Christ shines forth in their work dedicated to their parishioners. Their endless interest in our many activities and needs will always remain a warming thought in our memories of these two gracious men of God.

SISTER MARY LUKE

Sister Mary Luke has given of her interest and consideration unstintingly to us during our years at John Bapst. Her aid and direction have helped us in attaining the goal which will be ours at graduation. We, the class of "57", sincerely appreciate the goodness and kindness which she has extended to us.

Sister Mary Luke's office door is always open too; but all her early morning visitors' eyes aren't.

"That Eddie Paschal makes very cute posters, doesn't he, Sister?"

"Now here's a good test question, isn't it?"
"Sure. No one will know the answer to that!"

What Brother Benilde doesn't know is that Brother Cosmas is secretly hoping the cast will not show up for practice.

Unanimous agreement with Sister Mary Amadeus's thesis that anything they do in Portland we can do better.

SENIOR CLASSICAL

The study of Apologetics seems quite interesting to Sister Mary Beata's Senior Religion class. The girls aren't always this attentive and studious looking when the photographer isn't around to take a picture, but it looks good anyway, girls.

NO MEANS OF STOPPING.

Studying isn't one of our strong points, but we can be easily bribed into it when a picture is involved.

With a .500 season, the 1956 football team compiled one of the best records Bapst has had for some years. Our playing was even better than the record shows, since several games in the lost column were mighty close ones. The record speaks well of the team, its grit and determination.

A somewhat green and inexperienced team, lacking in depth, was the door mat in its opening game with the strong Old Town Indians, 31-6. Despite this shellacking, to the delirious delight of our loyal rooters, we rose up the very next week to a height and peak we were not quite able to achieve again, and with brilliant playing by Marty McCluskey in the line and the fast and hard running by Roy Vreeland, Tom Willett, Ed Paschal and Captain Ed Gallant we tipped the Stearns Minutemen in a very exciting game.

Slogans like "Maul Madison" and "Rock Rockland" may have helped in the next two victories, but we were not able to maintain our pace and we dropped three consecutive games, losing to Skowhegan, Brewer, and Bangor. These hard fought, "break" decided games chipped our zeal and our win over Bucksport was anticlimatic.

To Ed Gallant, Bill Conners, Mike Harkins, Charlie Hart, Roy Vreeland, Walter Hall, Ray Curran, congratulations for a great year.

THE GAME YOU'LL NEVER FORGET

Yes, this is a game the Crusaders are really proud of. It shows that with the right spirit and determination you can come back, Ed Gallant charges over for the first T.D. in the Stearns game.

A lot of thanks goes to Lt. Bob Ready, former Notre Damer, who gave freely of his time every evening to come out and assist Coach John Mitchell to make John Bapst a better team. He's not only a good coach, but a real great guy.

The members of the football squad, and particularly those of the Class of '57, wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to Lt. Bob Ready for sharing his football experience and knowledge with them. He is one person whom the Class of '57 will never forget.

So thanks, Bob, and we'll watch for your Pro-ball success.

"FOR BAPST ROOTERS, IT WAS A NIGHT TO REMEMBER."

UP!! BAPST!!

The upsurge in our athletic fortunes this year, initiated by the football squad, we had hoped would be improved upon by the basketball squad. Coincidentally, as in football, we broke even in the won-lost columns, 9-9. For weeks we had confidentally expected to make the Eastern Maine Tournament. The most extraordinary fluctuations in play kept us from consistent wins. "Hot and cold, Bapst," we were called, and with some justification. We lost four crucial games by three and two points; in one, the game at Waterville, Tilley scored 34 points—and still we were unable to spark the win.

One amazing fact in this season's play not generally noticed was that, with two exceptions, our greatest games were all on our opponents' courts. John Bapst, for instance, has the distinction this year, unsatisfactory though a loss is, of having been the only team in Maine that pressed Old Town, the Maine State Champions, for thirty-two full minutes—and this on the Indians' court, where the issue was decided in the last thirty seconds of a game that surpassed our victory over Bangor for wild excitement. The Crusaders played such a superior brand of ball in this game, won only by the most uncanny foul shooting by the Indians, that we were reaching for the Tournament.

At this time we still boasted a 7-5 record and had every hope and expectation of sweeping most of our remaining games. Unfortunately for our Tournament aspirations, we were able to take only two of these six games, and the Heal system did not place us in the Tournament.

The season had many consoling points. Our season victory percentage was the best in six years. And although we threw away our opportunity to make it two straight over Bangor, we did split the city series. Tilley was one of the high scorers in the area. The players' morale was high, impressive in fact. The students were very loyal and vociferous. And even though we lose four veterans this year, prospects for next year look fine. UP!!! BAPST!!!!

EAGLE SHARPSHOOTERS

The Purple was forced to tighten its defences against sharpshooters Wayne Rogers and Pete Farrell who kept the Eagles in contention throughout the game.

The host club managed to slice the bulge to seven points in the third frame with this pair getting clear for shots but Bapst came up with a well balanced scoring attack of its own and managed to stay in front.

The late Eagle surge nipped the lead to three points but came too late.

Tilley's 21 points led the Crusaders in scoring with Dandaneau contributing ten, DeGrasse nine and Jordan eight.

Rogers dropped in 25 points, seven from the foul line, while Farrell dunked 16.

Crusaders Grab Sixth Victory Of Campaign

By WOODY BIGELOW

The John Bapst Crusaders unleashed a 43-point second half at the Bangor Civic Center last night to bomb Brewer, 70-53, for their sixth victory in nine starts against schoolboy competition.

An estimated 1800 fans witnessed the contest. Tilley, bottled up by the during the first half, loose for 16 of his 22 in the final 16 minutes of to give the Crusaders their away scoring punch. He was ed by a great floor game on e part of Bob McAllister and a terrific defensive job turned in by center Mike Harkins.

DEFENSIVE DEMON

Harkins, a 6-3 senior, scored only eight points but was brilliant on defense, grabbing rebounds off both boards and blocking a hatful of shots.

Ed Kiely, high man for Brewer with 14 points, gave the Witches a 9-6 lead late in the first period when he hit on a long set shot. George Dandaneau poked in the rebound for the Purple with 55 seconds left and when Brewer lost possession after returning the ball downcourt, it set the stage for a brief but spirited hassle. Eddie Gallant of the Crusaders took the out-of-bounds pass and let fly a long set shot with seconds left in the period. The ball bounded in and out of the basket and the period was apparently over with Brewer still leading 9-8.

Tilley Bags 26 Points

By WOODY BIGELOW

Although his John Bapst cagers had just scored a convincing 79-61 victory over Madison at the Civic Center Saturday night, coach Johnny Mitchell already was looking a full week ahead.

Here we have a picture of the Sodality meeting about to be opened with a prayer by Sister Mary Amadeus.

At 7 o'clock in the morning we find these lovely ladies up and on their way to Lewiston for the Vocational Convention.

Sophomore probies at work learning their rules with their instructress, M. E. McNally.

"The Sodality . . . aims at fostering in its member an ardent devotion, reverence, and filial love toward the Blessed Virgin Mary . . ." (Rule 1) Sodalists work together for a common purpose which is to incarnate Christ into the society of our day. The Sodalities are called Sodalities of Our Lady because each Sodalist is dedicated to Mary and professes a special devotion to her. Once a Sodalist has consecrated himself to Mary, he strives for self-sanctification as well as for the sanctification of others.

Sodalists have certain daily requirements which they must fulfill although not under pain of sin. "They should consider as addressed in a special manner to them the invitation to frequent and daily communion . . ." (Rule 391) Daily communion for a Sodalist or anyone becomes towering strength to help overcome temptation. It helps a Sodalist counteract attacks on his faith, his morals, and his ideals. With Christ he can do all things well. Whatever Christ did, no matter how great or small the undertaking, He did it well.

J. Sullivan and R. Shorette are found looking over the official Sodality magazine, the Queen's Work.

Father Walker, S. J. talks with C. O'Brien and J. McHale, at the S.S.C.A. at Fordham University.

A group of the sophomore probies look over an exhibit displayed during March, Vocational Month.

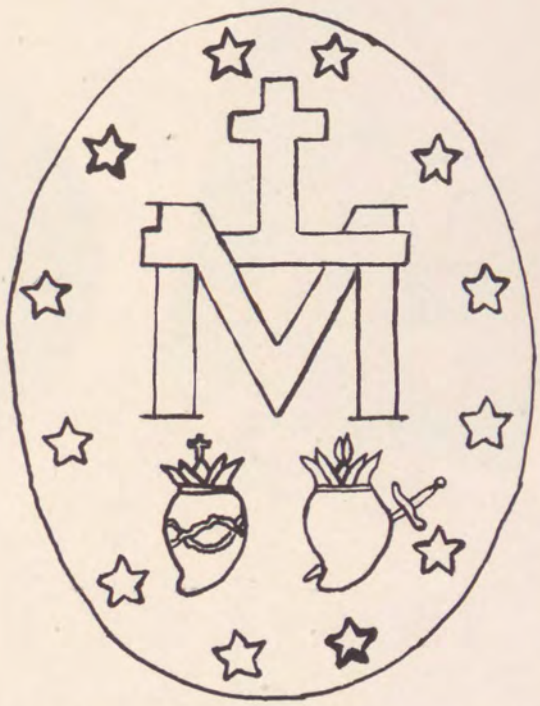
"Good Sodalists ought to be first and foremost, exemplars of Catholics . . ." (Rule 33) The Sodality wants those who are mature and capable. Spiritual schizophrenics, or rather, people with split personalities make up a dead wood Sodality. A good Sodalist who wishes to influence others displays a genuine interest in those whom he wishes to influence. He practices habitual acts of kindness. He denies himself exclusive association with intimate friends and makes a sincere effort to live up to his religious obligations.

A Sodalist is a major organ of Christ's Mystical Body. If the Church is to flourish, a great deal depends upon the zeal of the Sodalist.



One of the many duties of a Sodalist is to help in parish activities. Here Sodalists help at the parish reunion selling grabs.

The Sodality officers and moderator: M. E. McNally, S. Fitzpatrick, Sister M. Amadeus, J. McHale, N. Comer.

THE REPORTERS

The two advisors of the French Club are shown here with the officers, (l. to r.) J. McDonough, S. Perry, Sister Mary Thecla, Sister Mary Cecile, M. A. Bishop, R. Shorette.

Toujours, sing the senior members of the French Club (l. to r.) B. Patch, S. Spellman, J. Hogan, R. Shorette, J. McNamara, J McHale, D. Wickett, M. A. Bishop, M. McNally.

The Junior and Sophomore French Club members are shown here holding a discussion on what they would like to do at their next meeting.

THE FRENCH CLUB

This year the French Club has been divided into two groups. The senior group has held its meetings under the direction of Sister Mary Cecile. The other group consisting of the juniors and sophomores has been directed by Sister Mary Thecla. The aim of this club is to help the girls appreciate and understand the French language and customs.

Nous parlons francais . . . say these girls who comprise the entire French Club as they line up and smile for the photographer.

Judy Sullivan, adorned in newspaper, proudly displays the fact that Adlai Stevenson is her choice for President. She is escorted by Suzanne Koch and Jackie Hogan.

Here comes Veronica Girouard portraying the pride of the Republican Party.

Stressing her point that Ike is her man, Nancy Comer gives her opinion on the Eisenhower platform.

Standing beside the piano listening to the instructions of the director, Sister Mary Cecile, are the two Glee Club Officers, (l. to r.) Frances Richardson, vice president, and Barbara Damien, president.

It takes a lot of hard work to produce a good concert. This picture shows the girls working at one of the Thursday afternoon practice sessions.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club, very ably directed by Sister Mary Cecile, has presented several concerts this year and has been quite well received by its audiences. This club provides an opportunity for the girls to gain experience in group singing while entertaining at various functions.

Thanks for the applause . . . The picture shows a pause between numbers at one of the Glee Club performances given this year.

THE MAJOR AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIE

This topic of debate was argued, both pro and con, by our Debate Team in more than 115 debates this year. The team met good competition in the several practice tournaments held at Bapst, Bangor High and Old Town High. Stiffer competition was encountered in the Penobscot Valley Conference at the University of Maine and in the Bates League Tournaments.

Members of the team participated in several panel discussions on this and other topics throughout the year. Brother Benilde,

Director, built a fine team of three Freshmen, a Sophomore and a Junior, which has a wonderful potential for a really hot club next year.

Arguing the Affirmative were Captain Mike Mosbacher, 2-A, and Jerry Higgins, 1-A. Daniel McGrath and Martyn Vickers, both 1-A, debated the Negative side of the question with John Hansen, 3-A, substituting on the Affirmative Team. Although a young team, they came through with a surprising number of victories.

BY MARI BEC

CAST

Mr. Vincent.....Charles Hart
Mr. Graham.....Edmund Paschal
Mrs. Graham.....Jean McHale
Penelope .....Jane McDonough
Cynthia .....Nancy Comer
Susan .....Betty McNally
Ted .....Tom Tilley

Mr. Vincent was first presented on October 21, 1956. The response of the student body and the Mothers' Club was so overwhelming that it was decided to enter it into the One-Act Play Contest at Brewer High School on March 22, 1957.

"Steady, Mr. Vincent." Jane McDonough painting Mr. Vincent (Charlie Hart), a disguised admirer dressed as a tramp. Both gave top performances.

This one had them rolling in the aisles. The most comical scene of the play was the finding out that Penelope brought home a tramp to paint.

"Will we win?" J. McDonough, T. Tilley, B. McNally, N. Comer, are relaxing after the dress rehearsal and discussing their chances in the One-Act Contest.
