The Oracle

1953

BANGOR HIGH SCHOOL
BANGOR, MAINE

Dedication

It is with a sense of personal gratitude that we of the Oracle staff dedicate this 1953 edition of the Bangor High School Oracle to MR. CLAUDE G. LOVELY.

For fourteen years, Mr. Lovely has devoted himself to the students of this school as teacher, guidance director, and trusted friend.

We of the class of 1953 will not soon forget this man who has done so much to guide us toward maturity. His quiet, always tactful advice, and his willingness to give us the benefit of his wisdom when we most needed it will always be affectionately remembered.

Dedication

The Oracle staff is happy to make what we feel to be a well-earned tribute by dedicating this sixty-third consecutive edition of the Oracle to MRS. MARGARET CARROLL.

For many years, Mrs. Carroll has given unsparingly of her time and of her great ability to the students of Bangor High School.

Those of us who have been fortunate enough to benefit from her teaching will remember with gratitude the warm personal interest she displayed in each of us.

Although saddened by the news of her retirement, we are glad to have this chance to wish her the greatest of happiness, as she has always wished it for us.

FOREWORD

It's the month of June, 1953, and the Queens have it. Queen Elizabeth II of England was crowned on the second amid colorful pageantry in London, England. Ten days later in the Queen City of the East the class of 1953 graduates from Bangor High School. Another big event occurs during June; the sixty-second consecutive June Oracle is published.

In the following pages the reader will see the symbol of royalty, the Queen's crown. It is the symbol of Elizabeth II and the symbol of the Queen City of the East—Bangor, Maine.

As Elizabeth the Queen has come from a long line of distinguished rulers, this issue of the Oracle is one in a series of widely known and respected books. The Oracle Board has done its best to make this publication one of which the graduating class, the school, and the Queen City of the East can long be proud.

A Message From the Principal

Commencement time approaches and another class of capable young men and women makes its final preparations for the transition from the protected and stable atmosphere of school to that of a highly competitive adult society.

For most young men their immediate future lies in a period of two or three years in some branch of the armed services. If you approach this with the right philosophy, it should prove to be a very valuable period. To devote some time and energy to unselfish service of your country may well prove to be the most satisfying experience of your lifetime. You will return to civilian pursuits more mature, better educated individuals with a far clearer concept than you now have of what really constitutes the better things in life. I do not feel sorry for you that you are to have this service experience but rather I regret that some of you will be denied the privilege because of physical disabilities. For them there will be different but important work whereby they can make their contributions.

For the girls, the situation has its challenge. For many of you it will be possible to carry out your immediate plans for further education or for employment in the work of your choice. For others it will mean the postponement of plans for marriage and the establishment of normal family living. This may well test your courage and moral fiber as much as will the experiences of the male members of your class. Perhaps it is better that youth must face these handicaps because it is out of such experiences that strong men and women are developed. That the race goes to the strong is as true now as in the days of ancient Sparta.

The teachers of Bangor High School have done their best to give you a well balanced education with a sound outlook on life and we hope to see the effect of our efforts reflected in the way in which you will live. Our best wishes go with each one and we wish for you the complete fulfillment of your personal ambitions and a long period of good citizenship in its broadest sense.

FACULTY

Bangor High School's faculty, pictured on the opposite page, is headed by Principal Joseph B. Chaplin who is now president of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Working with Mr. Chaplin in the Administrative Department are Submaster Clarence H. Drisko and Mrs. Alfreda M. Stevenson, school secretary.

Miss Paulene Dunn is school liabrarian. Miss Jessie L. Fraser is in charge of school publications. The Guidance Director is Mr. Claude G. Lovely. Mrs. Rubena C. Pressey is the Dean of Women.

Miss M. Catherine Mullen is the leader of the ten member English Department. Heading the Commercial Department is Mrs. Janice M. Burton, one of the department's five teachers. Mr. Leslie H. Whittemore is the head of the Social Studies Department which also has five members. Other department heads are Mr. Clarence H. Drisko, Mechanical Arts; Miss Marion DuBourdieu, Mathematics; Mr. Robert L. Harlow, Science; and Miss Ruth Crosby, Household Arts. Leader of the R.O.T.C. unit is Major Stephen Clark. School departments made up of one or two members include Driver Training, Distributive Education, French, Latin, Spanish, and Speech.

All Bangor High School musical activities are directed by Mr. Paul F. Gibb, city acting supervisor of music. Mr. Thomas H. Hill, supervisor of music, is on leave of absence during his Navy service.

During the year the faculty made a thorough study of the school, courses, students, and teaching methods, in order to be even better teachers. This is one of the many examples which show that the Bangor High School faculty has great interest in giving the students the best possible education.

Bangor High School Scholars

Eight seniors were named Bangor High School Scholars at the Scholarship Recognition Day Assembly held on May 15. These students, who have maintained ranks of 85 or above in all their major subjects for five semesters, are Suzanne Bockus, Douglas Campbell, Thomas Chase, John Hardy, Charles Low, John Ranlett, Jean White, and Eleanor Zoidis.

Thirteen members of the junior class are still eligible for this honor. They are Fred Blomberg, Shirley Boulter, Ardene Delano, William Delaware, Suzanne Gildart, Judith Kittredge, Nancy Knapp, Beverly Segal, Robert Thomas, Allen Ventucci, Kathleen Vickery, Ruth Webb, and Earle Webster.

National Honor Society

Seventeen seniors and twelve juniors, selected on high standard of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, were taken into the National Honor Society this year.

Under the direction of the adviser, Miss Ruth Belknap, the club has had a successful year. Its most important activity was the composition of a Bangor High School Handbook for students. Besides this project, the club sold basketball pins, put on an assembly program which included an original sketch and the annual initiation, sponsored a booth at All-Bangor Night, and had a party to welcome new members.

The officers for this year were Thomas Chase, president; Ronald Atkins, vice president; Sandra Eslin, secretary; and Mary Murray, treasurer.

Recognition Awards

In addition to the awards listed on pages 42 and 43, and presented during the Scholarship Recognition Day Assembly on May 15 Principal Joseph Chaplin read tentative lists of juniors and sophomores still eligible for Bangor High School Scholars honors. These lists are printed on page 40. Results of the National Honor Society Scholarship Test were also mentioned. A Certificate of Merit was awarded to John Ranlett who placed in the top four per cent of the 7,893 high-ranking students taking the test. Thomas Chase was in the top ten per cent.

Oracle

Ninety-seven percent of the graduating class of Bangor High School subscribed to the Oracle-Orascope during the two publications' combined subscription drive in late September. The amusing campaign-launching assembly, written by the Oracle Board members headed by Meril Smith, persuaded a large number of lower class members to subscribe.

The Oracle Board was directed by John Ranlett, editor, Meril Smith, associate editor, and Miss Jessie L. Fraser, faculty adviser. Jane Brown, a member of the class of 1953, though not on the Oracle Staff for the entire year, contributed greatly to this issue.

The most important change in the makeup of this sixty-third volume of the Oracle is the use of double division pages, a layout used in many larger schools. Working on the division pages were Nadine Leveille, Rachel Nachum, Homer Smith, and William Woodman, artists.

Thirty group pictures for the Oracle were taken exactly on schedule under the direction of editor John Ranlett and business manager Howard Silver.

As in the past three years, two bindings of the Oracle are available. The regular paper cover, and the padded cover which is secured on payment of an additional fee.

Third row: Ruth Webb, William Cutler, Charlotte Kelley, Everett McCutcheon, Suzanne Gildart, Larry Cilley, Rachel Murray.

Orascope

The Orascope, for the second time since its origin in 1945, has won first place in the large school class of the Echo-Lovejoy Newspaper Competition sponsored by Colby College. The staff of twenty-two juniors under the leadership of editor Beverly Segal, assistant editor Kathleen Vickery, and faculty adviser Miss Jessie L. Fraser, published five praise-worthy issues. The engraved plaque will stand in the show case with an identical award won by the 1950 staff.

Highlighting the year were the publication of the special six-page Christmas issue on December 19, and the printing of results of the Orascope TV poll on April 17. The December copy included two well-written sports pages made up by Everett McCutcheon, Emily Webber, and Earle Webster, the best sports staff in recent years. Two columns in the April number were turned over to television, an entertainment which has interested many high school students since its introduction in Bangor in late January.

The aim of the Orascope staff, to bring to the student body an interesting, up-to-date newspaper with thorough picture coverage, has been achieved,

Speech-Drama Department

Under the direction of Miss Mary Hodgson, stage productions, assemblies, radio shows, and community programs have been this year's contributions of the Speech-Drama Department.

"Harmony Hall" an operetta, two one-act plays—"Strange Road" and "Sham", and "Room for One More"—the senior play, have been presented. Also staged were "The Voice of Democracy" contest and the annual Junior Exhibition.

The Speech-Drama Department has made an effort this year to benefit the community at large by providing student speakers, radio programs, and discussions for the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, the Community Chest, and the Red Cross.

Special honors this year go to Barbara Viner, Spear Contest winner, and Beverly Segal, second place winner in the Dramatic Division of the Maine Speech Tournament.

During her five years at Bangor High School, Miss Hodgson has built the Speech department into a well functioning unit that has averaged six productions a year. The student participation has grown and interest has developed. Membership in this department is open to any student. Its goal is to give as broad a speech background as possible. Both the Speech-Drama Department and Bangor High School will suffer a great loss by Miss Hodgson's resignation.

Third row: Thomas Larkin, Merrill Allen, Charles Low, Ronald Boynton, Herbert Hicks, Roger Gillis, Michael Rolnick, Larry Cilley.

The Debate Club

The Debate Club, under the guidance of Miss Mary Hodgson, has enjoyed a very active and profitable year.

This year's topic for discussion has been: "Resolved—that the NATO Pact Nations should form a Federal Union."

The Debate Club again made the Bates League, winning one round and losing the second to Old Town.

Jack Meltzer and Larry Cilley won two of the four awards presented at the Debate Clinic in December, for discussion of the year's topic.

In the fall the Debate Club sponsored its annual Debate Club Carnival. The proceeds from this went towards the purchase of the debate handbooks and material.

Debate is open to all students. It is divided into two classes: beginners' debate and Varsity Debate. These groups learn the techniques of debating and then hold practice debates to prepare for the Bates League and Debate Clinic.

This year's Debate Club has had a very active beginners' group whose members will go on to be varsity debaters next year.

The varsity debaters for this year were Gene Carter, Larry Cilley, Jack Meltzer, and Michael Rolnick.

Second row: Eda Hayward, Thomas Chase, Thomas Rogan, Eugene Merrill, Julie Higgins.

Junior Exhibition—1952

Kadimah Freedman, delivering a cutting from George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" and William Fleming, giving a selection from "Father of the Bride" by Caroline Franke, won first places in the annual Junior Exhibition speaking contest. Eda Hayward and Jerry D'Amico won Honorable Mention for their performances. Other speakers on the evening of March 28, 1952, were Tom Chase, Julie Higgins, Eugene Merrill, Tom Rogan, Constance Schiro, and Jean Witherly. Lois Lyons was alternate.

The 1952 Exhibition was the last one in which the Charles E. French medals were awarded only to the winners. In succeeding exhibitions, all ten finalists will receive the coveted awards.

Junior Exhibition—1953

On Friday evening, March 27, 1953, a new era was introduced at the annual Junior Exhibition. No longer is this performance a contest having two winners from ten excellent finalists; it is now what its name implies, a speaking exhibition with all participants receiving a Charles E. French medal for their performance.

This year's finalists were Judie Cantor, Gene Carter, Marcella Legere, Michael Rolnick, Beverly Segal, Joyce Silver, Paul Skofield, Barbara Viner, Earle Webster, and Robert Williams.

The finalists were coached by Miss Mary Hodgson. The Junior Chorus of more than one hundred voices and the B. H. S. orchestra were under the direction of Mr. Paul Gibb.

Band

The Bangor High School band had another successful year in '52-'53. Under the capable direction of Mr. Paul Gibb, it participated in many community and school affairs which included assemblies, the annual ROTC inspection, and holiday parades. Outstanding performances were given at the home football and basketball games and at the annual winter concert held at Vine Street School auditorium.

At the Eastern Maine Music Festival in Skowhegan, the group received a high rating.

When the U. S. Navy Band appeared in Bangor, Howard Silver and Robert Herzog, members of the high school band, were chosen to perform with this unit at its matinee concert.

On May first several members performed in the All New England Band, composed of about 250 high school students.

This year's band was awarded the Band Trophy at the Armistice Day Parade. This award was based on marching performance, appearance, and playing ability.

In closing the year, the group played at the Baccalaureate Service and at the graduation exercises of the class of 1953.

The band at the Christmas Assembly

Mixed Chorus

The mixed chorus, a new group this year, has provided much fine entertainment. The chorus is under the direction of Mr. Paul Gibb.

"Legend" by Tchaikovsky and "Carole of the Bells" were sung at the Christmas assembly.

Members of the mixed chorus sang in the school production "Harmony Hall".

At the Vine Street concert in February, the chorus sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Bless This House," and the ever popular song, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

Many members of the mixed chorus also participated in the sophomore girls' glee club, orchestra, and band.

ORCHESTRA

Second row: Joanne Banks, Nancy Ashmon, Celia Roberts, Janet Wadsworth, Christine Brasslett, Judith Gooch, Mary Ranlett.

Third row: Robert Miller, Dorothy Huston, Charles Low, John Ranlett, Theodore Khoury, Thea Sloane.

Orchestra

The high school orchestra, reorganized after a year's absence by Mr. Paul Gibb, made appearances this year at the Christmas assembly playing "Around the Christmas Tree", and at the operetta, "Harmony Hall", playing "The Blue Tango".

The high point of the season was the concert at Vine Street in February. Here, the orchestra rendered "The Blue Tango", "Waltzing Cat", and "The Great Gate of Kieve". A violin solo, "Hungarian Dance", was played by Nelia Kinney, a member of the sophomore class and the orchestra.

School letters were awarded to members of the orchestra at the Vine Street concert.

Music Council

With members elected from each music group, the Music Council functioned as a coordinator of all high school musical activities. After interviewing members of the respective organizations, the council members met and suggested plans for regulating attendance at rehearsals and public appearances. Also made were suggestions about seniors playing at graduation exercises and about the band having outdoor engagements after the football season.

Throughout the year when members of the musical groups wanted something discussed by the council they told their representatives and the matter was brought up. Mr. Paul Gibb, director of music, was the group's adviser. There were no officers.

Officers' Club

Composed of all third year R. O. T. C. students, the Officers' Club, under the direction of the Professor of Military Science and Tactics, Major Stephen Clark, assists in the planning of all social functions which take place in the R. O. T. C. unit. The Officers' Club meets upon the request of Major Clark or the president, Ernest Sementilli. There are twenty-one members this year.

The officers of this year's club are Ernest Sementilli, president; Roger Gillis, vice-president; Duane Whitney, secretary; and Roy Johnson, treasurer.

The Military Ball, the annual dance sponsored by the Officers' Club, was under the supervision of Major Stephen Clark, M/Sgt. Albert R. Citrano, M/Sgt. Richard M. Clement, and M/Sgt. Edward J. Owens. Two special committees were set up for the dance. The first committee, an invitations committee, consisted of Cadet Lt. Col. Thomas Rogan, Cadet Maj. Jerome Pedro, and Cadet Capt. David Ward. The second committee, a decorations committee, was under the special supervision of M/Sgt. Richard M. Clement and consisted of all the members of the Officers' Club. The Military Ball was held on May 22 in the Bangor High School Auditorium.

Boys' Rifle Club

One unit of the R. O. T. C. battalion is the Boys' Rifle Club which is under the supervision of Major Stephen Clark and M/Sgt. Albert Citrano. Charles Barker is the treasurer of the club. At the annual Field Day, Vaughn Anthony was presented with the Rifle Marksmanship medal.

The Rifle Club participated in several matches during the school year. These matches are the N. R. A., the William Randolph Hearst, and the First Army Interscholastic. The team also fired against Burlington High School, Vermont; Boise High School, Idaho; South Portland High School, Maine; and Manlius High School, New York. One of the most important matches was the First Army Interscholastic Match in which the Bangor club placed fifth out of a possible ten. The Boys' Rifle Club fired against the South Portland High School twice. One match was won and one was lost. In the N. R. A. match the Rifle Club placed eighteenth out of thirty-seven teams throughout the nation.

The club member with the highest score for the year was Vaughn Anthony with a score of seventy-five. Next highest for the year was George Clark with a score of seventy-four. In third place was Clarence Kent with a score of seventy-three. At the annual field Day Vaughn Anthony was presented with the Rifle Marksmanship medal.

This year's Rifle Club consists mostly of sophomores and juniors many of whom will return next year.

Stetson Rifles

Isaiah Stetson, were he alive today, would indeed be very proud of the crack drill team which is named after him and for which he was indirectly responsible. It was he who, in 1851, introduced Reserve Officers' Training Corps to Bangor High School. The Stetson Rifles was formed in 1950 in order to improve the standing of the Bangor High School R. O. T. C. unit.

The Stetson Rifles specializes in fancy drill and precision marching. Under the supervision of Major Stephen Clark and M/Sgt. Edward J. Owens, the Stetson Rifles meets each Tuesday night for practice drill. The present enrollment of the Stetson Rifles is twenty-eight.

This year's Stetson Rifles is led by Cadet Major Jerome Pedro. The guidon bearer is Cadet M/Sgt. Theodore Khoury.

The team, clothed in their khaki uniforms with white helmets, leggings, cartridge belts, and rifle slings, put on a dazzling performance during the half-time at the Bangor-Brewer basketball game. Also during the year the Stetson Rifles has participated in the Armistice Day Parade, the Federal Inspection, and the Field Day Exercises.

The Stetson Rifles has thus far accomplished its purpose. It has, without doubt, reflected great credit upon the R. O. T. C. unit at Bangor High and upon the high school as a whole.

Girls' Rifle Team

Although the girls' rifle team started late in the year, it has been very active. This year's team meets for two hours every Thursday under the direction of M/Sgt. Richard M. Clement.

At the first few sessions regular army training films on marksmanship were shown. Besides the actual mechanics of firing, these films showed proper firing positions and sight changing. Practice sessions were then held in the gym to try out the basic principles before a shot was fired.

All girls in the rifle club are eligible for a school letter. This letter is a regular "B" with crossed rifles on it. It is awarded to those having 90% attendance and an 85 average.

Last year for the first time a medal, donated by the Penobscot Rifle and Pistol Club, was awarded to the girl having the highest yearly average. This year it was awarded to Barbara Chandler.

Consideration is now being given to the awarding of standard National Rifle Association medals for the coming year. These are successive medals awarded on the completion of certain standards. If this system is started at Bangor High, a sophomore or junior can work for the Pro-marksmen, Marksman, and perhaps Marksman First Class in one year and then continue to become Sharpshooter, and Sharpshooter First Class, in the following years.

Student Council

Service was the outstanding strong point of the Student Council this year.

Council members acted as ushers for the many people who generously gave their time to speak to students on Career Day.

One highlight of the year was All Bangor Night which, under the capable guidance of Mr. Claude Lovely, was a great success. The profits paid for a school-banner, medals which will be presented on the R. O. T. C. field day, and at least one paid assembly program for next year.

Officers were Tom Chase, president; Lois Lyons, vice-president; Mary Murray, secretary; and Jean White, treasurer.

Tom Chase, Mary Murray, Jean Tulloch, and Jean White attended the Maine Student Council Convention at Auburn.

Council members proved their salesmanship ability by selling at least one red and white book cover to every student in the school.

On the agenda for next year are a welcoming dance and entertainment for the incoming sophomores and financial aid for an exchange student.

Le Cercle Francais

Aspects of French culture came to life this year at the meetings of Le Cercle Francais. Under the guidance of Mlle. Estelle Beaupré, Le Cercle Francais has conducted a varied program of French parties, quizzes, movies, and slides. Two of the most interesting meetings were an international meeting held with the Latin and Spanish Clubs and a talk on travel in France by Mrs. Herschel Peabody.

Many of the meetings were conducted partly in French to give the members practice in every day conversation.

The French Clubs of Brewer and John Bapst High Schools were guests at the Christmas party. Le Cercle Francais members were entertained at the Mardi Gras party presented by John Bapst students.

Officers this year were Judy White, president; Kadimah Freedman, vice-president; Jean White, secretary; Tom Chase, treasurer; and Emily Mower, corresponding secretary.

Latin Club

Under the excellent guidance of Miss Mary L. Copeland, the Latin Club of Bangor High School has enjoyed one of its most successful seasons. A member of the Junior Classical League of America, the present club has approximately eighty members. The officers for the 1952-53 year are as follows: Consuls—Kadimah Freedman, Douglas Campbell; Quaestor—Kathleen Vickery; Tribunes—Bettylou Day, Emily Webber; Aediles—Nancy Getchell, Jack Meltzer, Cal Thomas, and Bob Williams.

Among the organizations to which the Latin Club has made contributions are the Red Cross, the Community Chest, and the Polio Drive. The new members, consisting mostly of sophomores, were initiated into the club during the October meeting by a very impressive Roman-style ceremony. As their contribution to the successful All Bangor Night, the Latin Club sponsored a Lucky Fishpond.

For the first time, the Latin Club members received membership pins from the Junior Classical League. At the final banquet, Junior Classical League keys were awarded to outstanding seniors in the Latin Club.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club has finished an active and successful year under the fine supervision of Miss Margaret Estes. The officers this year were Mary Murray, president; Eda Hayward, vice-president; Suzanne Gildart, secretary; Charlene Riopelle, treasurer.

The Christmas meeting proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the year. Mary Murray and James Ruhlin participated in a cake-baking contest, which Jimmy won despite the keen competition. New members were initiated at the March meeting, managed by the juniors. The sophomores played host at the April meeting. During this meeting all members joined in the folk dance, a Mexican Hat Dance, which was quite a novelty.

The Constitution was amended lowering the rank for eligibility to "C" instead of eighty-five. The Spanish and Library Clubs had a booth at All-Bangor Night, at which Mary Murray and Ed Hayward were fortune tellers.

The May meeting, which was the final one of the year, was a real Spanish Fiesta.

Commercial Club

In carrying out its objectives as both a social and an educational organization, the Commercial Club has had a full program during the year. Starting in October with a special get-acquainted meeting in honor of the new members, the activities continued with the annual Thanksgiving supper party in November. With the Christmas season came another of the annual affairs, the Christmas Party. After the season's vacation was over, the Commercial Club members received valuable advice about what is expected by employers on the job from John F. Grant, Assistant Vice-President of the Merrill Trust Company. In March the club held a St. Patrick's Day party. A skit showing the correct procedures in applying for a job was presented at a meeting in May, and a tea in June completed an enjoyable and very constructive year.

The officers of the club are Lucille Byard, first half year, and Edith Badger, second half year; Vice-President, Edith Badger, first half year; Secretary, Jacqueline Simpson; Treasurer, Helene Pelkey; Program Chairman, Nancy Pierce; Social and Refreshment Chairman, Patricia Stevens; Publicity Chairman, Patricia Duffy.

Third row: Eunice Simpson, Marcia Hodgins, Charlene Riopelle, Marilyn Sproul, Ruth Stone, Nancy Buchanan.

Library Club

The Library Club of Bangor High School has enlarged greatly in the past school year. The club members meet monthly to discuss necessary jobs which must be done in the library for the next month. The girls have decorated the small show case outside of the Library with books of timely interest. Three club members, on Tuesday mornings, also pass library slips to pupils with overdue books. Several students help Miss Paulene M. Dunn, the club adviser, check books in and out. Also, they help members of the student body to select necessary material needed for classroom work. Another interesting job of this group of girls is to decorate the large showcase outside room 111. This is done during National Book Week.

All work and no play, however, is not the motto of this enterprising club. A very colorful Valentine party was held with games, refreshments, and a general social hour being enjoyed by the members. The club closed its season with an outing at the home of Eunice Simpson.

Conservation Club

As part of a statewide project to build up interest in conservation among high school students, the Conservation Club was founded this year. The new club, under the guidance of Mr. Gunnar Lytikainen, consists of sophomores and juniors. Members hope to take part in a Conservation Week next fall.

Regular club meetings were held twice a month in room 315. The members made a field trip to the Bradley Experimental Station, a state owned area of almost 700 acres. There a forest ranger showed them samples of four different types of cutting, ranging from the "cut out and get out" method to a selected cutting method giving a fifty per cent greater yield.

During the year the Conservation Club started a picnic area on Route 9, the "airline." The club first obtained a suitable site. Members will clear the underbrush from the area and locate benches and tables. A fireplace is also planned. Care of this picnic area will be the duty of the Conservation Club each year.

Alpha Hi-Y

"Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living," the fourfold platform of the Alpha Hi-Y, is the ultimate objective of all the members. The Alpha is a branch of the Y. M. C. A., and meets at the Y. M. C. A., every Monday night.

The officers of this year's club are Jerome Pedro, president; Donald Pelkey, vice-president; Earle Webster, secretary; and Henry Page, treasurer.

Under the capable guidance of their new adviser, Mr. Leslie Whittemore, the club has progressed greatly. The Alpha Hi-Y Club has this year held several successful dances, one of which was a Large School Tournament Dance.

During the past year the club has worked on three service projects as well as having given several contributions to various drives. One of the three projects was sending a full course chicken dinner to a needy family for Thanksgiving. The Alpha sent boys to the State Older Boys' Conference and one of the club members, Gene Carter, was president of the Model Security Council which was made up of Hi-Y members from different parts of the state.

All newspaper articles concerning the activities of the club were submitted by Gene Carter, corresponding secretary. The meetings were opened with a prayer led by Richard Miller, chaplain.

The members of the Alpha Hi-Y Club appreciate Mr. Whittemore's helpful advice and his service directing the operation of the club.

Beta Hi-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian characters," is the threefold purpose which, during the past years, has been upheld by the Beta Hi-Y Club. As a branch of the Y. M. C. A., the Beta Hi-Y meets every Wednesday night at the Y.

The Beta has had four successful dances during the year. The club held its fourth annual Small and Medium Schools' Tournament Dance, and had several post-game dances during the basketball season. The Beta Hi-Y sent delegates to the Older Boys' Conference and the United Nations Forum. The club also made up a basket of food for a Thanksgiving dinner for a needy family. At Christmas time they held a party for underprivileged children of Bangor.

The Beta Hi-Y entered a team in the Vacation Tourney at the Y. M. C. A. The Beta Club held parties at Camp Jordan and at Lucky's Landing.

During the year the Beta Hi-Y was entertained by several speakers: Norman "Cy" Perkins, B. H. S.; Paul Dugas, W. A. B. I.; William Bennett, Y. M. C. A.; Sgt. Charles Linderman, U. S. A. F.; and M/Sgt Albert Citrano, Bangor High School, R. O. T. C.

The club was under the guidance of Mr. Dana Giggey. The officers were William Fleming, president; Harold Folster, vice-president; Ernest Hollis, secretary; Thomas Larkin, treasurer; William Cutler, chaplain; John Hammons, corresponding secretary; and Joseph Gould, sergeant-at-arms.

B-Club

This year the B-club has been more active than in any recent year. With the help of their adviser, Coach Cy Perkins, the boys put on a combination dance and square dance. The proceeds from this dance went to help out a football player who had received a very costly injury while setting up an important play in the Portland game which Bangor won 13 to 12. This was the first square dance put on by a club from Bangor High School at the school. It was accepted with general enthusiasm by all and will probably become an annual event. General Chairman for this dance was Bob Herzog, whose orchestra furnished music for dancing between square dances. Members of the Publicity committee were Jim Ruhlin, Lloyd George, Bob Ronan, and Robert Legere. The Refreshment Committee consisted of Gerald Turner, Tony Vafiades, Victor Anderson, William Fleming, and Charles Barker.

The qualification for membership in the B-Club is that a boy must have earned a varsity letter in any major sport. The main duty of the club is to execute the regulations on the wearing of B-sweaters and B's.

Football

Bangor High School fans, students and otherwise, really had reason for cheering this fall. As usual, people were skeptical as to what kind of football team Bangor would field, but Coach Cy Perkins combined a fighting, spirited defensive line with a versatile offense to form the most powerful Bangor football team in a decade. The Rams turned in a season of eight wins and one loss. Bangor lost the state title to a strong Portland club which they defeated. Portland won the coveted crown on a slim margin of points which are awarded according to the size of the school competed against. For the second straight year, Edward Little of Auburn proved to create the difference between a good season and state recognition for Bangor. Although the Rams' record was marred by a defeat by an inspired Edward Little team at Auburn, they brought about the upset of the season by defeating Portland on a rainy night at embattled Garland Street Field by the narrow margin of 13 to 12.

Perhaps the surprise of the season was Brewer's battling Bangor to a standstill in the traditional Armistice Day game. Brewer came from two TD's behind to go ahead of Bangor in the last quarter. Things looked black for the Rams, but with half a minute remaining, sophomore fullback, Bill Daley, circled Brewer's right end and raced for the winning touchdown. Bangor gridders reached their peak in defeating a potentially strong Rumford team by the score of 29 to 0. Some high-lights of the 1952 season are as follows: Bob Ronan's juggling catch of a partially blocked pass in the Lewiston end-zone; Lloyd George's long run in the Portland game which set up the first touchdown; Webby Clark's 70-yard touchdown, returning a Waterville punt; Don Pelkey's long touchdown run on a kickoff at Edward Little; Gerry Reynold's long runs down at South Portland; and Bill Daley's last minute touchdown run in the Brewer game. All these were made possible by the fine fighting spirit of Bill Fleming, Captain Vic Anderson, Red Turner, Tony Vafiades, Bobby Legere and Art McKenney, who were opening holes in opponents' lines, many of which outweighed our own. The blocking and tackling of these boys, the hard running of Jamie Hamilton, Gerry Reynolds, Bob Herzog, Pete Taylor, Bill Daley and Gunnar Van Aken, plus the pass receiving of ends, Don Pelkey and Bob Ronan, turned in a season to be proud of. The Bangor High football team of 1952 will not soon be forgotten by true football fans in this area.

J. V. Football

This year, Mark Shedd's junior varsity football team came through the football wars with an unmarred record. Displaying a powerful offense and a stubborn defense, they overcame each team they faced. The backfield combination of Taylor, Anthony, Bartlett, and Webster manufactured many a touchdown behind the stellar line play of Russ Ware, Bob Ginn, Ben Welsh, Gordon Richardson, and Jim Hachey.

The junior Rams inaugurated the season by defeating the Bucksport J. V.'s 41 to 0. Then they were put to the test by the M. C. I. J. V.'s and came out on the long end of a 32 to 7 score. Vaughn Anthony scored four touchdowns during the game which was highlighted by an 85 yard touchdown run on an intercepted pass by Foss of M. C. I. The J. V.'s then defeated the two junior high schools, Garland Street and Fifth Street, by scores of 19 to 0 and 21 to 0 respectively. The Bucksport J. V.'s were again defeated, this time by the score of 38 to 13. Next came the Old Town Jayvees who were beaten 26 to 2. The J. V.'s of Bangor wound up their season by repeating their wins over Fifth Street, M. C. I. J. V.'s, and Garland Street. Head coach "Cy" Perkins is always pleased to see a successful junior varsity eleven, as many of the boys on the team will be under his tutelage the following year.

Cross Country

Last fall Coach Vince Cuzzo came up with some top cross country candidates from the sophomore class. With Captain Billy Cutler, backed up by sophomores Roy Husson and Gary Smith and seniors Ronnie Atkins, Harry Folster, and Joe Gould, the Ram Harriers completed a good season. The first meet was with Howland. The Rams won the meet on the fine running of Gary Smith and Billy Cutler, who placed first and second respectively. Then came the Old Town meet which the Rams also won. A three-way meet with Lee Academy and Ellsworth resulted in Bangor's being the middle man. The J. V.'s of each school also ran. Bangor won the J. V. meet with Lee second and Ellsworth third. Bangor then lost to the Maine Freshmen by fifteen points. Captain Cutler placed fourth in this meet. In the next meet, the varsity whipped M. C. I., by 33 points, with Smith and Cutler tying for first place. In the mean time the J. V.'s had lost to Carmel by a narrow margin and had beaten the M. C. I. J. V.'s soundly. Bangor placed third in the regional meet behind Presque Isle and Lee. The first Bangor runner was Cutler in eighth place. The Rams wound up the season by taking fifth place in the state meet. The first Bangor man under the wire was Gary Smith in sixth position.

Varsity Basketball

The varsity basketball team of Coach "Red" Barry completed a good season with 11 wins and 5 defeats. It was a season in which the fans saw many changes in the lineup, as Coach Barry experimented to find the best clicking combination. Before tournament time, he had just about settled on the following combination: Jamie Hamilton and Charlie Taylor at the guard spots, Joe Gould and Don Pelkey at forward and Web Clark in the pivot position. The tournament hopes of the Rams suffered a severe jolt when Pelkey became ineligible because of the age limit.

Bangor started off the season by defeating Fort Fairfield 54 to 45. On the northern trip they split, losing to Presque Isle and winning from Caribou. Stearns, Waterville, and Berlin, New Hampshire, were the only teams to win over the Rams for the rest of the season as they defeated Houlton twice, Brewer twice, and John Bapst twice, and Presque Isle, Waterville, and Westbrook once each. Bangor went into the Eastern Maine Tournament with high hopes, but were disappointed when they lost a close game to the scrappy quintet from Waterville. Some highlights of the season were Stan Gass's steady improvement from week to week, Bobby Russell's driving lay-up to knot the score in the Houlton game, Webber Clark's surprise development into an excellent pivot man, and Don Pelkey's game-saving scoring sprees all season long.

J. V. Basketball

The pride of the underclassmen at Bangor High School this winter was the Junior Varsity basketball team. "Cy" Perkins worked a group of boys with some height and shooting ability, into a combination which could use its height and make its shooting lethal to any opponent. After some severe trials, the junior Rams came through the season with an undefeated team.

During the season the bays set up some beautiful plays and stopped many an offensive drive with its tight defense. The first victim of the season was the J. V. team from Higgins. Our J. V.'s made their debut in fine style taking a 48 to 27 decision from the black and orange squad. Then a strong Stearns J. V. team went down to ignominious defeat. The Minutemen lost by a score of 62 to 43. The Old Town Indians' junior crop had a very rangy crew, but they could not cope with the cool brand of ball displayed by the Bangor J. V.'s.

The Junior varsity went on down their list of conquests as they whipped the Brewer J. V.'s, the Bapst J. V.'s, the Presque Isle J. V.'s, and the Waterville J. V.'s. The junior Rams then, by the score of 63 to 37, trounced Beals, a team which was breezing along in class S competition. They won over Stearns 54 to 49, slaughtered Brewer 87 to 30, and ended the season by defeating the John Bapst and Waterville J. V.'s.

Baseball

Bangor High's 1953 baseball team is sprinkled with promising sophomores. As we go to press, the Rams have won five and lost one. In these encounters the younger members of the squad have proved capable of performing their share of the duties.

The Rams met their arch rivals, John Bapst, in the first game of the season and came out on the long end of a 9 to 3 score. Al Kelley, veteran Bangor pitcher, allowed only six hits while striking out eleven Bapst batters. One of the sophomores who have earned first string berths, Charly Taylor, sparked the Rams at the plate by banging out three hits. Bangor showed a smooth infield which gave Kelley good support.

Bangor played the Bucksport team and sophomore Gunnar Van Aiken pitched his team to an 11 to 4 win. Jamie Hamilton, Bill Daley, Bobby Russell, and Charly Taylor looked good at bat collecting ten hits among them.

Ronnie Boynton, another sophomore, hit safely twice in pinch hitting roles in the two games driving in a run each time.

The weather man has prevented the playing of two of the scheduled games. The Rams, with a number of capable underclassmen on the squad, have excellent prospects for the coming year.

Track

In the first track meet of the season, the Bangor Rams showed that even without such veterans as Don Pelkey and Gerry Reynolds, the team will be a strong one. The squad is well packed with talented underclassmen, and this building season should be a successful one. In the first meet the Rams met a Colby Freshman team headed by a former captain of track at Bangor, George Petrikas. Bangor won the honors that day by compiling 60 points to Colby's 57. Jerome Pedro broke a point deadlock late in the meet by winning the javelin event. Gary Smith won the mile, Roy Husson came from behind to take the 880, and Bill Fleming and Bill Betterly won the discus and pole vault events.

The next meet was against the Maine Freshmen, and Bangor met some really stiff competition. The Rams dropped the meet 78 to 39. Sophomore Dave Silsby won the discus event with a toss of 129 feet 2¾ inches. Buddy Webster took a first in the 120 yard low hurdles, and Pedro again won the javelin event.

Javelin and cindermen

The next time out Bangor won a meet with Skowhegan 67 to 50. Harry Folster won the grueling mile run, and Stan Gass threw the shot put 41 feet 2 inches to win that event. Dave Silsby won the discus, Gary Smith won the 880, and Buddy Webster won the 120 yard low hurdles. These wins gave Bangor enough points to insure victory.

Winners in the state meet, held the last week of school, will go on to compete in the New Englands.

Girls' Athletic Honor Council

The Girls' Athletic Honor Council ended another successful year with the annual athletic banquet held at the Y. W. C. A. on May 12. New members initiated into the council at the banquet were Peggy Ann Bean, Theresa Caruso, Barbara Lindsey, and Jean Tulloch. The officers for 1953-1954 installed by outgoing president, Mary Ellen Day, are Kathleen Vickery, president, Betty Lou Day, vice-president, Cynthia Searles, secretary, and Jean Zoidis, treasurer. Second honors were awarded to Benita Dorsky, Emily Mower, Eunice Simpson, Beverly Talbot, and president-elect Kathleen Vickery. A new award, the seven inch chenille B given for three years of three sports at B. H. S., was awarded for the first time to Sue Bockus, Mary Ellen Day, Jean Flagg, Mary Ella Ginn, and Eunice Simpson.

Other activities of the council included the selling of hot dogs and coke at football games, ushering at basketball games, and running a booth at All Bangor Night. The council, under the capable direction of Miss Mildred McGuire, carried out the girls' athletic program at B. H. S. Another project was running of a cafeteria during teachers' convention for the convenience of teachers and exhibitors.

 Absent when picture was taken: Ruth Bailey.

Girls' Hockey

After two seasons of mediocre play the Senior team really got rolling this year; and, in spite of some tough opposition, went on to win the coveted hockey trophy. Sparked by the brilliant offensive play of speedy captain Beverly Talbot and cheered on by co-coaches Mary Ella Ginn and Sue Bockus, the seniors fought their way to victory. There were several seniors for whom this season represented their first try at field hockey. Patricia Duffy, Nancy Hackett, Margaret Davis, and Eleanor Ward all did a fine job—as did the more experienced center, Jean Flagg, and goalies, Emily Mower and Mary Murray.

Coached by Mary Ellen Day and Jean Flagg, and captained by Mary Glidden, the junior team showed a highly improved form from last year and put up a good fight against both seniors and sophomores.

The sophomores, coached by Emily Mower and Benita Dorsky, and captained by Irene Trundy, showed the scrap and speed of a championship team and gave the champs a good deal of trouble.

The results of the tournament games were:

	1st game	2nd game
Senior-Junior	1-0	0-0

Twenty juniors and seniors were named to the All Bangor Hockey Team. This honor is awarded to the girls who have faithfully attended practice games for at least two seasons. The players and their positions are:

L. W. Jacqueline Doughty	C. H. B. Mary Ella Ginn, Ruth Webb
L. I. Nancy McGouldrick, Mary Ellen Day	R. H. B. Sue Bockus
C. Jean Flagg, Marlene Smith	L. F. B. Shirlee Connors, Jean Zoidis
R. I. Eunice Simpson, Betty Lou Day	R. F. B. Benita Dorsky, Barbara Hasey
R. W. Beverly Talbot, Emily Webber	Goal Emily Mower, Mary Murray
L. H. B. Ruth Bailey, Jeannette Bowles

Second row: Wilma Dunton, Shirlee Connors, Mary Ellen Day, Helen West, Beverly Talbot.
Third row: Nancy Hackett, Sue Bockus, Mary Ella Ginn, Constance Schiro, Nancy McGouldrick.

Championship Basketball Team

The Senior team took possession of the championship trophy for girls' intramural basketball after a hard-fought tourney against stiff competition. Two of their seven wins were nearly losses in very close decisions with the two second place teams, Junior Blue and Sophomore Blue. The members of the second place teams who showed plenty of fight in nearly defeating the Seniors were Junior Blue coached by Nancy Hackett, Emily Webber, Captain Norma Benton, Jeannette Bowles, Bettylou Day, Barbara Hasey, Georgia Ketchu, Dale Starbird, and Beverly Willey; Sophomore Blue coached by Jean Flagg and Eunice Simpson, Theresa Caruso and Carolyn Smith, co-captains, Barbara Chandler, Marlene Cohen, Joan Dean, Dawn Furrough, Madeline Gerrish, Margaret Given, Connie Goldman, Carolyn Hill, Nancy Pomroy, and Judith Webster.

The results of the games of the Intramural tourney were as follows:

	Won	Lost
Seniors	7	0
Junior Blue	5	2
Junior Red	4	3
Sophomore Purple	3	4
Sophomore Red	2	5
Sophomore White	2	5
Junior White	0	7

Good sportsmanship and good basketball were exhibited by all participating and helped to make the season an enjoyable one for coach, players, and officials alike.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

First row: Suzanne Bockus, Nancy McGouldrick, Maryanne O'Donnell, Helen McInnis, Sharon Connelly.

Cheerleaders

The Varsity cheerleaders have completed a successful year under the able captainship of Maryanne O'Donnell and the direction of Mr. Malcolm O. Willis. At the annual dance, entitled the "May Day Fair," next year's squad was announced. Carolyn O'Connor is the new captain, and members are Constance Elliot, Jacqueline Frost, Donna Springer, Denise Striar, and sub, Nadine Leville.

The Jayvee cheerleaders, captained by Donna Springer, showed outstanding ability, enthusiasm, and a penchant for hand whirled. Members of next year's squad who were announced at the dance are Mildred Ayer, Patricia Cole, and Christina Rand.

Second row: Denise Striar, Glenise Arnold, Constance Elliot, Patricia Cole, Barbara Lindsay.
