Dedication

It is with a deep sense of personal admiration and respect that we of the 1955 Oracle staff dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Leslie H. Whittemore.

We are proud to honor Mr. Whittemore as one of our class. He entered Bangor High School with us, and during our three years here he has been a constant guide to us in high human ideals, as well as in his inspired teaching of American History and Problems of Democracy. We will always remember him with pleasure as a man who helped us along the bridge of learning and taught us that the future has far horizons.

Bangor-Brewer Bridge, 1954

FOREWORD

To the Graduating Class of 1955 a bridge represents the span of knowledge lying between failure and success. In the following pages of this issue of the Oracle, the reader will notice that the staff of the Oracle has made use of a bridge and its symbolism as the theme of the sixty-fifth yearbook of Bangor High School.

The symbolism of the bridge as a step forward is made more significant to all when one realizes that during the past year, the city of Bangor has completed a new bridge spanning the Penobscot River and joining the cities of Bangor and Brewer. The completion of the bridge represents another milestone of progress in the annals of the city. Although the cost of the bridge is great, this structure, as a toll bridge, will soon pay for itself; and like this bridge, education, too, costs much in time and effort; but the returns in interest are manifold. In exchange for the original investment of time and effort, education pays dividends in knowledge, culture, and general moral, physical, and aesthetic self-development.

The Bangor High School Graduation Class of 1955 has metaphorically compared education to a bridge of achievement. This bridge represents, too, the pathway of knowledge spanning the gap between present and future over a river of ignorance and inexperience. The teachers of Bangor High School have well pointed out to their pupils the way over the bridge; it now remains with the student to continue his education for himself. Learning does not stop with formal education, but throughout one's natural lifespan, education continues as a never-ending process.

Remember the one o'clock rush?

A Message to the Class of 1955

PRINCIPAL JOSEPH B. CHAPLIN

It seems hardly possible that the year has advanced to the point where we are fast approaching June 17, the day when another senior class of Bangor High School will step from the sheltered environment of the classroom into the highly competitive and often perplexing atmosphere of adult life.

It is not by chance that it is customary to refer to events incident to graduation as commencement exercises. The completion of a secondary school program is a means to an end and not an end in itself. Education is a life process; it is not complete with graduation from high school or from college. If we are to be successful in any walk of life, we must continue to study and to learn throughout our active years.

The very fact that you have carried through to completion a program which satisfies at least the minimum requirements for a high school diploma is evidence that you have certain basic characteristics of initiative, ambition, industry, and character which have in them potentialities for success in later life. But the limited general education which you have received up to this point needs to be continued and extended.

In addition to this general education it is highly desirable that you receive specialized education or training in that phase of human activity which has the greatest appeal to you and for which you have the ability to be a success. A person who excels in any type of work does not need unemployment compensation. Your choice of occupation, whether it be in business, a profession, agriculture, or homemaking, is important only to the degree that it contributes to your individual development and happiness. I sincerely hope that all of you will find that niche in life that is right for you.

During your years in school, parents and teachers have worked cooperatively to assist you in achieving your goals. We hope that real progress has been made in this direction. The receipt of your diploma will constitute the realization of one of these important goals. However, this is more than an academic achievement. It is also a step into a transitory period of adjustment from the controlled program planned for you by the home and school into a new kind of situation in which you will make your own rules and establish your personal system of checks and balances.

We hope that we have given you some guideposts that will assist you in this new era of independent thought and action. Your future progress and accomplishments will be followed by your teachers with genuine interest and, we trust, with considerable pride. It has been a pleasure to work with you as students, and we wish for you the best of success and good fortune for the future.

FACULTY

FACULTY

In the opinion of the students, Bangor High School has one of the finest faculties in the nation. Under the leadership of Principal Joseph B. Chaplin, the teachers, Guidance Director, and Dean of Women have extended to their pupils the opportunity for success.

The faculty has received little recognition for its efforts, and at this time the Class of 1955 would like to express its appreciation for a job well done.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society inaugurated a Student Service Bureau in the fall of this year. The Bureau is designed to give scholastic aid to pupils who need and deserve it. Many of the Society's members gave their time and effort during study periods and after school to help students in mathematics and English. The candidates for this aid were selected by the teachers, who took into consideration the student's desire for assistance to maintain good ranks.

Another part of the project was the Talent Bureau in which a poll was taken to learn of the many abilities possessed by the students at Bangor High School. The services of this Bureau are available to any school organization in search of entertainment for programs.

In February, the Honor Society sponsored a cupcake sale; and at an assembly held on April 1, eighteen senior members and twelve juniors were initiated. A party welcoming the new members was held on April 9.

1955's New Members

The officers for the year were as follows: Peggyann Bean, president; Robert Ginn, vice president; Mary Jane Sullivan, secretary; and Irene Trundy, treasurer. The advisers were Miss Ruth V. Belknap and Mrs. Gladys Bridges.

Bangor High School Scholars

This is the twelfth year that Bangor High School has awarded students maintaining an average of 85 or above in their major subjects for at least five semesters the title of Bangor High School Scholars.

For 1955 sixteen seniors whose pictures appear below earned this recognition.

Tentative juniors are Dana Fenner, Anne Frawley, Marie Ifill, Roderick Potter, Bethany Smith, Carol Stebbins, and Donald Thomas.

Oracle

Approximately ninety-nine per cent of the senior class members have subscribed to this year's Oracle. This large subscription list is the result of a very successful campaign which was conducted in the fall by the Oracle-Orascope. The campaign was launched in the fall by an assembly which took the form of a night at the Mardi Gras in New Orleans. Madalene Gerrish was the mistress of ceremonies, and the Oracle-Orascope, played by Martha Zoidis and Carol Stebbins, won the prize for the best costume. All the members of both staffs took part in the assembly. Most people were in costume. The costumes ranged from the attire of a lovely Parisian model to the garb of a spaceman from Mars.

Our artist pauses

Ruth Sclair is editor-in-chief of the Oracle and is assisted by Mary Ranlett. The art work was done by Malda Kalnins. Miss Jessie L. Fraser is the adviser.

Orascope

Twenty-seven members of the junior class edited and published the tenth volume of the Orascope this year under the guidance of Miss Jessie L. Fraser, faculty adviser. The five issues were printed under the editorship of Calvin Johnson and assistant editorship of Martha Chase.

The staff produced several new suggestions and changes this year. The popular "Corridor Conversation" was a one-column feature. Each club in the school was represented in nearly every issue.

A three-column picture of the cheering section at a basketball game was the pride of the third publication which tied in nicely with the State and New England Basketball Tournaments.

The Orascope has again this year placed in the first division of the Echo-Lovejoy Newspaper Contest, sponsored by Colby College.

Speech-Drama

"Away in the Manger . . ."

Another year of great production has come to a close for the Speech-Drama department under the guidance of Mrs. Barbara M. Browne.

Starting the year, Bradley Peters won both the school and city Voice of Democracy contests. Not too long afterwards, a one-act play night was held at which two plays, a cutting from Kiss and Tell by F. Hugh Herbert and Sunday Costs Five Pesos by Josephina Neggli, were presented. The cast of Kiss and Tell included Leslie Adkins, Merrill Allen, Alan Badine, Theresa Caruso, Michael Dolley, William Griffin, Polly Jackson, Mary Jay Osler, and Jane Redonnett. The cast of Sunday Costs Five Pesos was Linda Bowden, Sally Palmer, Judith Singal, Dolores Swett, and Jerry Weiss. This last play was chosen to be entered in the one-act play contest. In the first round of the contest it was one of the two plays from sixteen in the northern area of the state for the state finals at Brunswick. Judith Singal won top acting honors for girls at the state finals.

Top honors went to Bethany Smith in the girls' division of the Eastern Regional Spear Contest with a cutting from "Murder of Lidice" by Edna St. Vincent Millay. Donald Lewis, Jr. won second place in the boys' division with a humorous cutting "Barefoot Boy with Cheek" by Max Schulman. At the finals of the Spear Contest in Augusta, Bethany Smith won second place.

This year's Senior play "Curtain Going Up," by Gregory Johnston presented the audience with something quite out of the ordinary. Most of the play took place on an empty stage and from the audience. It was enjoyed by all including the cast Leslie Adkins, Merrill Allen, Alan Badine, Joanne Banks, Peggyann Bean, Linda Bowden, Barbara Boyd, Joan Cummings, Madalene Gerrish, Robert Ginn, Christina Rand, Gordon Richardson, Judy Webster, and Ralph White.

Second row: Dawn Turner, Sally Palmer, Judy Singal, Elinor Rapaport, Lois Geary, Jeanne Hitchcock, Pauline Jackson, Carol Davenport.
Third row: Thomas Webster, Andrew MacEwen, Bradley Peters.*

Debate Club

This year the Debate Club experienced a very successful season debating the question: "Resolved: that the Federal Government Should Initiate a Policy of Free Trade with Nations Friendly to the United States."

Comprising the varsity teams were Polly Jackson, Martha Chase; Dawn Turner, Jerry Rolnick; Thomas Webster, and Madalene Gerrish. These teams competed in the University of Maine Debate Clinic and Tourney held during the school year.

A banquet held for the members at the close of the year terminated the debate activities. Officers for the year were as follows: president, Madalene Gerrish; secretary, Barbara Roberts; and treasurer, Sally Gibson.

Second row: William Khoury, Robert Ginn, Melvin Gotlieb, William Griffin, Calvin Thomas.

Junior Exhibition 1954

Junior Exhibition for the class of 1954 was held on March 26, 1954, under the direction of Mrs. Barbara M. Browne. The program was of a pleasant variety and created an enjoyable evening for all who attended.

The ten finalists, each of whom received French medals for their work, were Gloria Faulkner, who presented a cutting from "Wingless Victory"; Robert Ginn, "The Man Who Walked with God"; Melvin Gotlieb, "The Gettysburg Address," and "Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address"; William Griffin, cutting from "Francis"; William Khoury, cutting from "Moby Dick"; Joanne Kopelow, cutting from "Henry VIII"; Jane Redonnett, cutting from "Alice in Wonderland"; Denise Striar, cutting from "Dark Victory"; Delores Swett, cutting from "Seventeen"; and Calvin Thomas, cutting from "Ransom of Red Chief."

This year a new idea was inaugurated on the night of Junior Exhibition. The girls in the junior chorus wore lovely pastel gowns instead of the traditional white dresses. The change added more color to the already colorful program which was presented on March 25, 1955. A delightful assortment of humor, oration, and touching tales had the audience spell-bound throughout the performance.

The speakers who were coached by Mrs. Barbara M. Browne, were, in order of appearance, Paula Pangakis, cutting from "George Washington Slept Here"; Bernard Bickford, "Workshop of Freedom"; Judith Singal, cutting from "Spring Song"; Thomas Webster, cutting from "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer"; Bethany Smith, cutting from "Our Town"; Donald Lewis, Jr., cutting from "Barefoot Boy with Cheek"; Pauline Jackson, cutting from "Peter Pan"; M. David Sclair, cutting from "The Scopes Evolution Trial"; Martha Chase, cutting from "The Snow Goose"; Donald Thomas, "What It Was—Was Football."

Band

In 1954-55, the Bangor High School Band again consisted of two groups, the varsity band, and the concert band. The varsity band, which includes anyone who plays a band instrument, made several appearances in holiday parades, at football and basketball games, and performed at the New England Basketball tournament in Boston. The concert band is composed of those members who pass auditions held by the director, Mr. Samuel Harris. This band has made successful appearances in school assemblies, and performed at the Annual Spring Concert held at Vine Street School in May.

When the U. S. Navy Band appeared in Bangor, three Bangor High School band members, Peter Anderson, Nancy Ashmon, and Donald Thomas, were chosen to appear with this unit. Nancy Ashmon represented Bangor High School in the All-State Festival Band in South Portland.

The fine showing the band made at the Western Division of the Eastern Maine Music Festival held in Dexter was one of the highlights of the highly successful season.

Second row: Janiece Furrow, Gayle Arnold, Phoebe Bragg, Sonja Brown, Jeanette Wright, Barbara Mitchell, Joanne Noyes.
Third row: Kenneth Lane, Larry Mills, Donald Thomas, Richard Dearborn, John Lyons, Bradley Peters.

A Cappella Chorus

The A Cappella Chorus, which is a small unaccompanied group, has been added to the musical organizations at Bangor High School this year. Under the direction of Mr. Marsters York, the chorus has performed in the Christmas Assembly and at the Eastern Maine Music Festival. The chorus also sang at the spring concert at the Vine Street School in May. Among the selections that the chorus has rendered are "Carol of the Bells," "Listen to the Lambs," "The Nightingale," and "Buffalo Gals."

Music Council

The music council is comprised of representatives from each musical organization. Its purpose is to establish and maintain a point and award system to provide students an incentive to accomplish more through their music. This system, based on attendance at rehearsals, has been carried out with the assistance of the group adviser, Mr. Samuel Harris.

Second row: Mr. Samuel Harris, adviser, Donald Thomas, Paula Pangakis.

Members on the council representing the school band are Donna Chadbourne, and Gloria Faulkner. Donald Thomas represents the Boys' Glee Club; Paula Pangakis, Girls' Chorus; and Nelia Kinney, School Orchestra.

Orchestra

The orchestra, one of Bangor High School's most important musical groups, has given many creditable appearances during the school year, 1954-55. Among its activities were the Eastern Maine Music Festival May 21, at Dexter; One-Act Play Festival in November at Bangor High School; and B. H. S. Music Night, May 13. The orchestra also rendered selections at Junior Exhibition, as well as at various school assemblies. They will play at the Senior Baccalaureate and Graduation.

Peter Anderson, Donna Chadbourne, Mary Field, Nelia Kinney, and Roderick Potter represented the Orchestra in the All State Orchestra at South Portland. Mary Ranlett was selected to play in the All Eastern Conference Orchestra in Boston, Massachusetts.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Marsters York, meets twice each week. Membership is open to all boys who like to sing harmony and even "off key." This year the club participated in the Christmas Assembly and at the annual music concert of the Bangor High School Parents' Musical Association held at Vine Street School. They offered renditions of the following popular songs: "Shenandoah," "The Bells of Saint Mary," and "The Whiffenpoof Song." The club's representative to the Music Council, this year, was Donald Thomas.

Second row: Rose-Anne McPheters, Carlene Johnson, Mary Field, Eleanor Epstein, Julia Roberts, Hannah Goodman, Dorothy Woods, Maxine Covell, Glenda Jean Hatch, Sally Palmer.
Third row: Laura Beaver, Joanne Noyes, Anne Gallagher, Elaine Murray, Louise Getchell, Jane Wilson, Judith Foss, Margaret Mednis, Theresa Pressey, Rosalie Brooks.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Marsters York, has added much in the field of music this year at Bangor High School. The girls, together with the Boys' Glee Club, sang at the Thanksgiving assembly the selection "Thanks Be to God"; and the group also took part in the Christmas assembly.

In a concert at Vine Street School the Girls' Glee Club entertained the public with several songs ranging from the stately "Let There Be Music" to the gay "A Violin is Singing in the Street." The girls also attended the Eastern Maine Music Festival at Dexter in May.

Third row: Lt. Col. Wilbur J. Boegli, Infantry, P. M. S. & T. club adviser, Merrill Clark, William Springer, George Gardiner, Robert Higgins, Robert Drew, William Griffin, Henry K. Adamson III.

Officers' Club

The Officers' Club, comprised of the third year R.O.T.C. students, twenty-six in all, elected club officers at the first meeting. Elected president was Garth Cooke; vice president, Russell Ware; secretary-treasurer, Robert Ginn; and club reporter, David Freedman. The activities of the year were climaxed by the Military Ball held on June 3. The general chairman for the Ball was Henry Adamson, who was assisted by the Military Department staff and a committee.

The club is under the supervision of Lt. Col. Wilbur J. Boegli, Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Stetson Rifles

The Stetson Rifle Drill Team, under the direction of M/Sgt. Kenneth Russell, completed a full year of precision drill displays.

The Stetsons, led by Cadet David W. Khoury, made its first appearance in public during the Armistice Day parade in November. The display in the parade and on other occasions received a great deal of praise from the general public.

The drill team also appeared at the Bangor-Brewer football game, two of Bangor High's basketball games, the New England premiere of "This is Your Army," during Federal inspection, at Dow Air Force Base on Armed Forces Day, and the annual R.O.T.C. Field Day.

The guidon bearer was Cadet Calvin Johnson.

Second row: Calvin Johnson, David Wentworth, Harold Wheeler, David Sclair, Merrill Clark, Charles Garland, Stuart Jones, David Freedman, David W. Khoury, M/Sgt. Kenneth L. Russell.

Third row: Ronald Cilley, Benjamin Swett, Frank Ellis, Herbert Gordon, Richard Winship, Wayne Wibbey, Dayle Denton, Stanley Schnieder.

Boys' Rifle Team

The Rifle Squad, coached by Lt. Col. Wilbur J. Boegli and M/Sgt. Paul Sutherland and captained by Cadet Maj. Henry Adamson, completed a most successful year. At the termination of the firing this year, the squad had among its eighteen members four distinguished and six expert riflemen.

In addition to firing postal matches with other high schools, the squad fired a shoulder-to-shoulder match with the University of Maine and went to Fort Williams, Maine, to fire in the Regional N.R.A. Matches. In the Regionals, the squad took a tie for second in the individuals and second place in the team match.

High scorer on the team this year was Cadet Calvin Johnson, closely followed by Cadet Jon Webb.

Third row: Lt. Col. Wilbur J. Boegli, Herbert N. Clark, Wendall Carr, Ralph Dyer III, Charles D. Garland, Jon Webb, Lyman Hunt, M/Sgt. Paul C. Sutherland.

Second row: Christine Brasslett, Marilyn Stinchfield, Marlene Cohen, Noreen Davenport, Theresa Pressey, Dawn Furrough, Elaine Murray, Lenor Hersey, Dorothy Rush, Maureen Perry, Rachel Nowell.
Third row: Nancy Nickerson, Barbara Clark, Sandra Peavy, Sylvia Haliotis, Nedra Nash, Lillian McEachern, Mona Herbert.

Girls' Rifle Team

The Girls' Rifle team, coached by M/Sgt. Richard M. Clements, met every Wednesday in the gymnasium at 1:30 p. m. This year the team held thirty-second place in the nation, having competed in the National Rifle Association Postal Matches.

The group is divided into three teams called the first, second, and third teams. To be eligible for a team, a girl must fire in all four positions—sitting, standing, kneeling, and prone. The five girls having the best scores are on the first team; the next five on the second; until all girls have been placed on a team. A girl has to work hard to keep on a team since there is much competition. At the end of the season, the members of the first team are awarded school letters. Two medals, offered by the Penobscot Valley Rifle and Pistol Club and the National Rifle Association, are given to the highest scorer on the team.

Officers for this year were Barbara Chandler, president; Irene Trundy, vice president; Carolyn Mallory, secretary; Priscilla Hamm, treasurer; Madalene Gerrish, executive officer.

Le Cercle Francais

"Well it's this way . . . !"

"Bonjour, mes amis," was a familiar sound at the meetings of Le Cercle Francais, under the direction of Madame Viola B. Woodward, assisted by Monsieur Efthim Economu and the following officers: president, Calvin Thomas; vice president, Jane Redonnett; recording secretary, Ruth Sclair; corresponding secretary, Calvin Johnson; and treasurer, Irene Trundy. A variety of programs was presented throughout the year. Bangor High School's foreign student, Phillippe Brault, spoke about France to a very interested audience.

At the beginning of the year Le Cercle Francais accepted an invitation to join with the John Baptist group in a meeting, where French movies and songs were enjoyed. A spring fashion show was the main topic for the meeting at which the clubs from the John Baptist High School and Brewer High School were guests at Bangor High School.

At the International meeting of Le Cercle Francais, Spanish, Latin, and Library Clubs, Mrs. Herschel Peabody showed slides on her trip abroad and accompanied each slide with a short explanatory comment on the scene.

The All-Bangor Night project, "Photographie," climaxed a very full year of work and enjoyment. As the year ends, the familiar sound is "Au revoir, mes amis, a l'annee prochaine."

Latin Club

This year the Latin Club has enjoyed a very full season of programs. The senior, junior, and sophomore classes were each in charge of one of the programs for a single meeting, and other meetings included the International meeting of the clubs with Mrs. Herschel Peabody as guest speaker, and the initiation of new members at the beginning of the year.

A Christmas party was enjoyed by all; and, as usual, the members looked forward to the annual banquet at the close of the year. The club donated money to many charitable funds such as the Polio Drive and the Community Chest. The club, as usual, ran a booth at All-Bangor Night.

The officers were as follows: Consuls, Peggyann Bean, Madalene Gerrish; Quaestor, Judy Webster; Praetor, Sally Gibson; Aediles, Mary Jane Sullivan, Louise Getchell, Joanne Banks, and Barbara Boyd; Tribunes, Mary Field, and Jeannette Sementilli.

Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA)

The Future Business Leaders of America, better known as the FBLA, is a new club this year and is affiliated with a national organization. Twice each month sixty-six members meet in Room 211 at the close of school to help plan activities and projects.

The club enjoyed a Christmas party, a banquet, a trip to Augusta and the State House; at All-Bangor Night it sponsored a booth. The members participated in two impressive installation services and a food sale as projects.

The Student Council is very proud of having broken a record this year in raising, with one event, more than enough money to bring a foreign exchange student to study at Bangor High School next year. Nearly all the students in the school lent a helping hand in some way in a "Tag Day" that netted the Council a thousand dollars.

The second major event was the annual All-Bangor Night, held in April. Each club in the school decorated a booth to represent a foreign country and had games and prizes. Students and teachers provided enjoyable entertainment, and dancing for all ended the evening of fun. Proceeds from this affair went toward improvements and a public address system for the high school auditorium.

Besides these big events the Student Council sold pencils and book-covers, paid for R.O.T.C. medals and two assemblies, and sent their officers and adviser to the state convention.

Faculty advisers were Mrs. Elizabeth Halliday and Mr. Robert S. Wells. Officers were Robert Ginn, president; Jane Redonnett, vice president; Peggyann Bean, secretary; and Garth Cooke, treasurer.

 Second row: Sally McKay, Jeanette Wright, Donald Thomas, Richard Dearborn, Harold Wheeler, Phillippe Brault.
 Third row: Charles Crabtree, Jacob Weinberg, Kenneth Lane.*

Spanish Club

The initial meeting of the Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Margaret Estes, was held in October with the following officers presiding: president, Joanne Kopelow; secretary, Noreen Faulkingham; and treasurer, Garth Cooke. The annual Christmas party was observed in the Spanish theme; and in January, the club joined with the other language clubs for the International meeting of the clubs.

During the season the club ran a cupcake sale, and for All-Bangor Night the Spanish and Library Clubs jointly sponsored a candy booth. During the course of the year the members also donated to the Easter Seal Fund.

Library Club

Just browsing!

The Library Club, under the supervision of Miss Paulene Dunn, enjoyed a large increase in membership this year. The club had several projects, including raising money for a donation to the Firemen's Fund for toys. During "Book Week" in November, the club created an exhibit of books in the Distributive Education Case.

Joining with the Spanish Club, the Library Club ran a candy booth at All-Bangor Night. Officers for the year were president, Leslie Adkins; vice president, Linda Bowden; secretary, Glenda Jean Hatch; treasurer, Ruth Sclair; and publicity chairman, Charlotte Morrison.

Camera Club

The Camera Club, Bangor High School's newest group, was organized in January under the guidance of Mr. Richard Klain. The club set up a darkroom next to the chemistry laboratory, and the members process their own films. Mr. Norman "Spike" Webb of the Bangor Daily News gave a lecture to the club and showed some of his news photos. In the future, the group plans to hold photo contests among its members and take field trips of pictorial interest. The officers for this year were William Springer, president; Calvin Johnson, vice president; and David Freedman, secretary-treasurer.

Alpha Hi-Y

The Alpha Hi-Y, which is sponsored by the Y.M.C.A., met at the "Y" each Monday evening with Mr. John Parker, the club adviser for the year.

During the past season the club sponsored many dances after the games played by the school's athletic teams. Most of the proceeds from these dances went toward World Service Projects. Some of the money, however, went to various other service organizations.

Alpha sent seven members to a Model United Nations held at the University of Maine. These boys represented two countries, France and Costa Rica. Phillippe Brault, Bangor High School's French foreign student, was the chief delegate to the U.N. from France. Bradley Peters was an officer at the U. N.

The year's activities ended with a banquet which was held at the Oronoka. The officers for the following year were elected at this banquet. The officers for the past year were Robert Ginn, president; Roy Husson, vice president; Ralph White, secretary; Garth Cooke, treasurer.

Beta Hi-Y

Every Wednesday evening Beta Hi-Y meets at the Y.M.C.A. under the supervision of the club adviser, Mr. Dana Giggey.

With Alan Badine as president, Gary Smith as vice-president, Robert Higgins as secretary, and Arthur Wardwell as treasurer, Beta has sponsored several post-basketball game dances including its sixth annual Small and Medium Schools' Tournament Dance. The proceeds from these dances were used for projects; such as, providing food and clothing to needy families, and contributing to World Service, a world-wide, Y.M.C.A. organization.

Several delegates from Beta Hi-Y were sent to the O'der Boys' Conference. Beta was also represented at the mock U.N. meeting at the University of Maine. Gary Smith was elected president of this group.

At the end of each year, the club has its annual banquet, at which the next year's officers are elected.

Second row: John Townsend, James Blackwood, Arthur Curtis, Terry Duffy, Ron Pelkey, Stanley Jordan, Owen Estey, and Ronald Cushman.
Third row: David Wentworth, Peter Stuart, Edward Maxsimic, Terry Foster, Brad Barrett, and William Hill.

Coach Barry accepts the State Championship Trophy at Waterville

Varsity Basketball

The Rams of Bangor started out on the victory trail by taking on the Greenville Lakers, with a swamping victory of 48-28. Victories over Presque Isle, Stearns, Ellsworth, Old Town, Brewer, John Bapst, Waterville, and Westbrook followed. Bangor seemed to be on its way to an undefeated season until the night of February 18 at Old Town, when the Indians pulled the surprise upset of the year by scalping the Rams 56-64. A home game against Stearns with Bangor on the winning end closed out the regular season. Bangor's regular season had ended with a 15-1 record. The Rams took top seat in the Eastern Maine Class "L."

Pairing wins in the tournament over Fort Fairfield, and Old Town came and the Rams were the victors in the Eastern Maine Class "L" tournament. Then a week later all eyes in the State were turned to Waterville where the Rams met the Shipbuilders of Morse High School of Bath.

The State championship game was very close with Morse leading Bangor by one point at the half. Then Bangor caught fire and a third period splurge followed. From then on everyone in the big Waterville Community Building knew Bangor was the State champion. Although Morse came back in the fourth quarter, it was no use. The game ended with the Rams of B.H.S. sinking the Shipbuilders of Morse, 45-36. The Rams were now Maine's representative to the New England tournament at the huge Boston Garden.

At the New Englands, the Rams beat a strong Burlington, Vermont team, in the first round 71-66. In the second round, Bangor lost a very close game to Peter Ludlow of Fairfield, Connecticut 55-58. In the game for third place, Bangor topped the very strong team of James Hillhouse High of New Haven, 66-60. Officially the Rams placed third in the tournament, but to the people of Maine, the Rams were the champions.

It will be a long time before Bangor and the state of Maine forgets Coach Fred "Red" Barry's great team of 1954-1955.

J. V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity basketball team, coached by Norman "Cy" Perkins, finished the hardwood court season with a record of nine wins and three losses.

The J. V.'s is a training ground, and next year will see many of the boys moving up to join the varsity which will be hit hard by graduation.

J. V. Football

The Junior Varsity Rams, under the direction of Coach Robert "Bob" Wells, had a very successful season with a record of seven wins and one loss.

Next year will see many of the boys moving up to join Coach Norman "Cy" Perkins' Varsity, which will have many vacancies because of the large number of Seniors graduating.

The success of the next two years of varsity football will depend in great part on this group.

Second row: Coach Norman "Cy" Perkins, Conrad Cleale, George Gardiner, Robert Morin, Robert Marley, Richard Leadbetter, Robert Drew, Roderick Potter, Assistant Coach Frederick Barry.

Third row: Manager Edward Fowler, Robert Bryce, Clinton VanAken, Porter Criner, Julian White, Everett George, Calvin Johnson, Harold Ayer.

Varsity Football

The 1954-55 Bangor High School football team was one of the powers to be reckoned with in the Pine Tree State.

The Rams under the fine coaching of Norman "Cy" Perkins had a highly successful season of six wins and two losses.

The club's backfield was led by All-American nominee Bill Daley FB, Charlie Taylor QB, Pete Taylor and Clinton VanAken HB.

A powerful line headed by Gordon Richardson, and Ted Taylor, stopped many opponents' offensive thrusts.

The fall of '54 can long be remembered by all Bangor fans who love the great game of football.

You've Got to be Fast

Second row: Senior Manager Edward Archer, Carl Snow, Rodney Pelkey, Daniel Drinon, Richard Dudley, John Ingalls, Neil Burke, Coach Vincent Cuzzo.

Cross Country

Last year's state championship cross country team from Bangor High School was hard hit by graduation. The 1954-55 year was a building one for Coach Vincent Cuzzo, but a fairly impressive season ended with a 6-3 record.

The Rams participated in two post season meets, the regionals, and the state meet, finishing fourth in both instances.

Letter winners this year are as follows:

Seniors—Gary Smith, captain; Edmund Archer, manager; Edward Maxsimic, Roy Husson.

Juniors—Rodney Pelkey, Ronald McReavy.

Sophomores—Lyle Maunder, Lloyd Hassen.

Third row: Rodney Pelkey, Harold Ayer, Everett George, Stanley Jordan, David Wentworth, Lloyd Hassen, Ronald McReavy, Manager John Rodick.
Back row: Manager Edward Hadley, Donald Farnsworth, Kenneth Lane, Julian White, Charles Duffy, Phillippe Brault, Dale Delano, Philip Devoe, Charles Travis.

Track

The Bangor High School speedsters and defending state champions seem at this writing to be well on their way to a repeat performance at the state meet.

Veteran dash men are Peter Taylor, Stanley Jordan, Russell Ware, and Owen Estey.

Success in the high and low hurdles, high jump, and low jump, is due to Theodore Taylor's efforts.

Shot and discus events are won regularly by Clinton VanAken and Paul Silsby.

School records have been broken by Theodore Taylor and Paul Silsby. In a meet with the University of Maine Freshmen, Taylor ran the 120 yard high hurdles in 16.3 to establish a new school record. Silsby threw the javelin 170' 10½" in the "Interclass Meet," won by the seniors, to erase the old record of 168' 2" held by Raymond Cox, '49 since 1948.

Coach Norman "Cy" Perkins' powerful and well-balanced squad should be a definite threat to all opponents.

Baseball

Bangor High School's baseball nine showed good form this year with a five and two record at the time of this writing.

The Rams' prospects for this year seem to be better than average. Among the veterans back from last year's squad are catcher, Charles Taylor; pitcher, David Carlisle; second base, John Graham; shortstop, Daniel Drinon; third base, William Daley; right field, Cornelius Mullaney; and left field, Stanley Craig. Coach Frederick "Red" Barry got a powerful addition to the squad from transfer Karl Daigle.

Coach Barry's biggest worry this year has been pitching; he had to rely solely on David Carlisle who received credit for several wins.

Third row: Rodney Pelkey, Robert Ginn, Danny Drinon, Roderick Potter, Garth Cooke, Robert Cimbollek, Theodore Taylor, Lloyd Hassan, Clinton VanAken, Ralph White.

"B" Club

In concluding the section of boys' sports, the "B" Club is a natural finish; all boys who have won letters in athletics are members of the club.

An assembly sponsored by the club was presented at which time letters and sweaters were presented to those who had earned them.

The annual square dance held by the club was a huge success and all proceeds went into an accident fund to help those who are not covered by sufficient insurance.

The success of this year's club was due in large part to president, Charlie Taylor; secretary-treasurer, Roy Husson; and Coach Norman "Cy" Perkins, adviser.

Second row: Martha Chase, Theresa Caruso, Carlene Johnson, Jane Redonnett, Melba Metcalf, Nancy Pomroy, Margaret Girvan, Ann Frawley.
Third row: Nancy Nickerson, Noreen Faulkingham, Madalene Gerrish, Judith Webster, Joanne Banks, Barbara Chandler, Martha Zoidis.

Girls' Athletic Honor Council

The Girls' Athletic Honor Council ended a very successful year with the annual athletic banquet held at Pilots Grill on May 17. Among the highlights of the banquet was the initiation of the following new members: Jane Goode, Paula Pangakis, and Maureen Perry who automatically received first honors. Second honors for outstanding work were presented to Theresa Caruso, Barbara Chandler, Noreen Faulkingham, Madalene Gerrish, Margaret Girvan, Marie Ifill, Nancy Pomroy and Judith Webster. Third honors were presented to president, Irene Trundy; and seven-inch chenille B's given for participation for three years in three sports, were awarded to Sandra Adams, Peggyann Bean, Linda Bowden, Barbara Boyd, Theresa Caruso, Barbara Chandler, Noreen Faulkingham, Madalene Gerrish, Margaret Girvan, Melba Metcalf, Elaine Murray, Irene Trundy, and Jacqueline Washburn. The new officers for 1955-56 installed by the president, Irene Trundy, are president, Marie Ifill; vice-president, Carol Stebbins; secretary, Nancy Nickerson; and treasurer, Martha Zoidis.

Special council activities during the year included operating a concession booth at football games, ushering at basketball games, running a refreshment booth at All-Bangor Night, and assisting Miss Mildred McGuire in carrying out the girls' athletic program at B.H.S. Officers for the 1954-55 season were president, Irene Trundy; vice-president, Peggyann Bean; secretary, Barbara Boyd; and treasurer, Sandra Adams.

Girls' Hockey

Concluding a very successful and competitive season, the junior eleven topped the senior and sophomore teams. The excellent talent displayed on the hockey field by the players of the junior class was the result of a great deal of practice and the wholehearted cooperation of each member. Under the leadership of the captain, Noreen Davenport, and coaches, Madalene Gerrish, Margaret Girvan, and Judy Webster, the junior champs came out on top in three out of four games played. The Junior Hockey Team members were as follows: Bonnie Bean, Martha Butler, Louise Getchell, Sally Gibson, Mona Herbert, Lenor Hersey, Marie Ifill, Donna James, Gail Moran, Nancy Nickerson, Paula Pangakis, JoAnn Potter, Lou Ann Potter, Carol Stebbins, Nina Webster, Kay Woodward, Martha Zoidis.

Much credit is also due to the senior and sophomore teams for their fine sportsmanship and teamwork. The senior team, captained by Melba Metcalf and coached by Theresa Caruso, Nancy Pomroy, and Irene Trundy, provided keen competition and rousing spirit on and off the hockey field. Captain Jane Goode and Coaches Sandra Adams, Peggyann Bean, Joanne Banks, and Melba Metcalf led the fiery sophomores who proved themselves very capable with a hockey stick, promising success in the future.

The results of the tournament games were as follows:

	First Game	Second Game
Senior-Junior	1 - 2	0 - 2

The honorary All-Bangor Field Hockey Team, consisting this year of nineteen seniors and three juniors, grants membership to those girls who have faithfully attended practice games for at least two seasons.

Girls' Basketball

Exciting competition was present on the basketball court this season. Two junior teams tied for the possession of the championship trophy. A surprising victory for the Junior Red team, captained by Carol Stebbins and coached by Margaret Girvan and Jane Redonnett, over the Junior Blue, spurred on by the captain, Marie Ifill, and the coaches, Irene Trundy and Judy Webster, upset the undefeated record of the Blue team, thus putting both teams in first place. Although members of the two teams showed capable ball-handling and carefully planned plays, the Senior Red team, second place winner, also exhibited talented teamwork. The members of the senior team are Captain Nancy Pomroy, coaches Peggyann Bean, Barbara Chandler, and Madalene Gerrish, Joanne Banks, Linda Bowden, Betty Burbank, Theresa Caruso, Marlene Cohen, Margaret Girvan, Carolyn Hill, Melba Metcalf, Elaine Murray, Jane Redonnett, and Joy Thompson.

The results of the tournament games were as follows:

	Won	Tied	Lost
Junior Red	5	0	1
Junior Blue	5	0	1
Senior Red	4	0	2
Senior White	2	1	3
Sophomore Red	1	1	4

Varsity Cheerleaders

Bangor's spirited squad of varsity cheerleaders backed the football and basketball teams through their victorious seasons. Expertly captained by Jackie Frost, the routines of the group clicked with precision. As a climax to the year's activities, under the leadership of Mrs. Rubena Pressey and Mrs. Louise Hammons, the girls in their swirling skirts performed in the Boston Gardens. Next year's varsity cheerleaders, as announced at All-Bangor Night, will be led by Beverly Bodge with Linda Albert, Betty Beverly, Kay Dean, Betsy Kline, Carolyn Mallory, Margo Nealley, Nancy Nickerson, and Jeannette Sementilli supporting her.

Jayvee Cheerleaders

The Jayvee cheerleaders, comprised of sophomore and junior girls, deserve a great deal of credit for the hard work and enthusiasm displayed by them this year. The peppy squad, captained by Mona Herbert, was present at all the home games rooting for the Rams. Rosemary Hopkins will head next year's J. V. rooters and the rest of the squad will be selected in the fall. The group is under the leadership of Mrs. Louise Hammons and Mrs. Rubena Pressey.

Congratulations

to

CLASS of '55

You are now entering a new phase of your lives with more and more decisions to become your own.

You will find I "measure up" to your most exacting standards for a better way to modern living in the home, on the farm and in industry.
