FOREWORD

"... in the end the truth will conquer."—John Wycliff

The staff of the 1958 Oracle has chosen as its theme the ancient lamp from which the Greek gods emitted the oracles that gave knowledge, understanding, and foresight to those who would consult them. These oracles were never-failing bearers of truth. Thus, Bangor High School and its faculty can be a lamp of truth which gives forth knowledge, understanding, and foresight, the three basic purposes of education, to those of us who seek to take advantage of a free education.

Knowledge, the scope of information without which we cannot progress as individuals or as a nation; understanding, the power to appreciate and comprehend the differences and likenesses of ourselves and others; and foresight, the ability to plan for the future in a way that will benefit our fellow men and ourselves—these three qualities given by the ancient oracles can become ours through constant striving to use our education to its best advantage.

And so may we, the class of 1958, use the truths granted to us by the oracles of education to benefit our community and our nation in the best manner possible.

MRS. RUBENA PRESSEY

Dedication

To Mrs. Rubena Pressey, Dean of Women, Teacher of English—wise counselor, generous adviser, helpful friend—for faithful service and for attentive interest beyond the call of duty the Class of 1958 dedicates this ORACLE.

For your understanding of our problems; for your insights which enabled us to see the better way; for your integrity which summoned us to be honorable; and for your determination to see us and treat us as individuals,

We thank you.

ORACLE

Because of the depredation of the flu, the annual Oracle-Orascope assembly, usually headlining the beginning of the subscription campaign, was not held. This, however, did not discourage the members of the staff.

Working cooperatively under the leadership of editor, Joy Fisher; assistant editor, Mary Deems; business manager, Betsy Paul; and faculty adviser, Miss Jessie L. Fraser, the Oracle staff combined its writing, artistic, and business abilities to fulfill any expected requirements in editing and publishing the Bangor High School Oracle.

Bangor High School Scholars

Bangor High School Scholars first were honored in 1943 when the Student Council established a Scholarship Recognition Day. A Bangor High School Scholar is a senior who has consistently maintained a rank of 85 or above for five semesters in all major subjects. Since 1943 approximately four per cent of the seniors have been Bangor High School Scholars.

This year's scholars are Mary Deems, Marcia Dolley, Sandra Keef, and Elizabeth Paul.

The juniors who are on the tentative list are Franklin Bragg, Raymond Dauphinee, Dennis Glidden, Sally Hill, Beverly Jackson, Lawrence Johnson, Guy McChesney, Roderic McClure, Frederic Newman, Clive Nickerson, David Parker, James Sawyer, Gary Slep, Gloria Smith, Marilyn Stern, Roderic Stevenson. Out of these, Clive Nickerson and David Parker received 90 or better in each subject.

Sophomores having achieved a rank of 85 or above for one semester are Marcia Batchelder, Betsy Brewster, Nancy Conners, Richard Cross, Robert Foss, Judith Goodreau, Esther Katen, Ronald Kittredge, Norman Kominsky, Carolyn Longstaff, Sandra Mason, JoAnn Peakes, William Robson, Morton Sclair, Sandra Smiley, Myrna Spencer, Mameve Stern, Susanne Watson. NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Fourteen juniors and ten seniors were made new members of the National Honor Society of Bangor High School. They were chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Membership in this society is one of the highest honors given in high school.

The society sponsored a very successful "Arrest You Friend" booth at All-Bangor Night.

A banquet honoring the new members was held in May.

The adviser was Mrs. Viola Woodward, assisted by Mrs. Gladys Bridges. The officers were Orrin Merrill, president; William Cohen, vice-president; Camilla Dunn, secretary; and Barbara Kane, treasurer.

Standing: Judith Purinton, secretary; Sally Weatherbee, treasurer.

The class of 1959 started out the year of 1957-58 with 290 students. The juniors all looked forward to their year as the "middle" class. When the year began, they threw themselves into activities and made a "good showing."

Under the leadership of the class officers, Gary Lawton, president; Sally Hill, vice-president; Judy Purinton, secretary, and Sally Weatherbee, treasurer, the junior class had another good year. Finally came the time for the juniors to choose class rings. After a little campaigning, the favorite ring won by a landslide.

Many musically talented juniors participated in the large chorus that sang at the 1958 Junior Exhibition. Ten top speech students also showed their dramatic skills as they presented excerpts from various literary works. They were Chester Clark, "The Macbeth Murder Mystery"; Sandra Gass, "The Lady or the Tiger?"; Mary Lee Grant, "Winnie the Pooh"; Barry Lieberman, "The Creation"; Jill Lyons, "The Diary of Anne Frank"; Clive Nickerson, "Milton and the Rhinoceros"; Herbert Rogan, "The Fog Horn"; Marilyn Stern, "Pygmalion"; Roderic Stevens, "Burning in the Night"; Nancy Witherly, "The Snake Pit." The ten speakers received the traditional French Medals. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Browne.

The juniors displayed their talents on several other occasions. Chester Clark was chosen best actor at the regional One-Act Play Contest. In the One-Act Play, at All-Bangor Night, and at the Spring Concert, Herbert Rogan showed his skill as both an actor and an M.C. Betty Gallison and Bonnie Bennett represented the junior girls in a trio; and Robert Clukey, Steven Kinney, and Bruce Wentworth represented the boys in a quartet.

From the juniors on the ski team, James Ross and Harry Tabenken placed seventeenth and eighteenth, respectively, out of a group of fifty in a downhill match at Sugar Loaf Mountain.

The Orascope Staff was composed of juniors under the direction of co-editors Guy McChesney and Roderic McClure. The staff published five editions of the school newspaper, in which the juniors displayed their journalistic abilities as they amassed the school news.

Juniors taking the college course had the chance to show their scholastic ability when they took the Merit Scholarship Examination. Also as a sign of scholastic ability, service to their school, and dependability, fourteen juniors were taken into the National Honor Society.

In girls' sports, the Junior Red team tied with the Senior White team for the basketball trophy. Nine junior girls were members of the G.A.H.C.

Girls on the Jayvee cheerleading squad from the junior class were Susan Bell, Caroline Perkins, Susan Wainright and Judy Purinton, captain. Varsity cheerleaders were Gailellen Fletcher, Ada Hersey, Deborah Munce, and Nancy Witherly.

Selected as the exchange student from B.H.S. to visit Greece during the summer of 1958 was Marilyn Stern. Marilyn gained this honor after several intensive screenings which she passed with flying colors.

Members of the junior class who were chosen to attend Dirigo Girls' State at Colby College were Bonnie Bennett, Kathy Haliotis, Judy Has'ey, Ann Van De Bogert, and Linda Whitney. Selected for Boys' State were Robert Clukey, Larry Johnson, Gary Lawton, Guy McChesney, Lawrence Sproul, and Archie Tracy.

Chosen as outstanding cadet from the juniors was Guy McChesney.

With two years down and one to go, the juniors are looking forward to senior year. B.H.S. is proud of them as they continue to uphold their fine scholarship and high ideals.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores make their mark at B. H. S.

The year of 1957-58 meant the start of a new experience for approximately 380 sophomore students. Beginning the first of three years at B. H. S., these students spent the first few weeks getting acquainted with the rules, regulations, and general layout of the high school. After a little confusion on the part of most, the sophomore students settled down to a year of excitement.

Several honors received by sophomores were as follows: the first and second places in the Voice of Democracy contest to Carolyn Ryer and Mameve Stern respectively; the office of Secretary of the State Regional Student Council won by Connie Beverly; and the first ski trophy in the "Golden Ski" race at a state meet won by Walter Melvin.

Jack Dunn, one of the outstanding members of the Ski Club, placed seventh in the Slalom match of the state wide ski meet. In another match he received a silver medal for having taken second place in a standard downhill race.

Many of the sophomore students participated in the activities of the music departments of B. H. S., becoming faithful members of the band, orchestra, and choruses. Several talented sophomore musicians represented the orchestra and band at the All-State Festival in Portland. The sophomore girls showed their musical skill by being represented in girls' trios by Judy Ernst, Pamela Lancaster, JoAnn Peakes, and Brenda Wagner. Not to be out-done, the sophomore boys had as their representative for the boys' quartet, Michael Robson. Both boys and girls were represented by Sandra Smiley and David Swett as chorus accompanists.

Always backing the school's basketball teams were several Jayvee Cheerleaders who were members of the sophomore class. They were Donna Benoit, Constance Beverly, Charlotte Gopan, Janice Weymouth, and Patricia Zoidis.

Sophomore skill in debating was shown by Laureen Severance and Jean Sprague, who received honorable recognition at the Maine Debates. Chosen by faculty members to attend the Westbrook Forum were two sophomore boys, Steven Buck and William Vomvoris.

In the military field of B. H. S., several boys from the sophomore class came forth to show their skills in army affairs. In a state rifle match, Philip Provost was awarded the Loving Cup for the fifteen year old group. The award for the Superior Junior Cadet for scholastic work, command and drill, leadership, and participation in school and military affairs was presented to Michael Robson.

Although this was their first year at B. H. S., the sophomore students, headed by their class officers, Clifford Larlee, president; Barbara Whitaker, vice-president; Marion Johnson, secretary; and Janice Weymouth, treasurer, completed a year of fun and excitement as they conquered many of the new problems to be faced in beginning a high-school life.

Semi-finalists For Junior Exhibition Chosen

The speech department has announced the names of the following Junior Exhibition participants as the winners of the second try-out:

Selected to compete in the semi-finals were the following: Sandra Gass, Mary Lee Grant, Sally Hill, Suzanne Jordan, Jill Lyons, Gloria Smith, Marilyn Stern, Catherine Viner, Glenda Wellman, Nancy Witherly, Chester Clark, Robert Clukey, William Demaso, Robert Leathers, Barry Lieberman, Olive Nickerson, Boyd Osler, Herbert Rogan, Roderic Stevenson, and Harry Tabenken.

The forty contestants who won the first round of the exhibition, competed in the second part by giving speech selections up to four minutes in length.

At a recent conference in Washington, the President urged that there be many more such "people-to-people" contacts and asked that young people of America, through groups to which they belong, be in this important work. It is not the lucky one who becomes a foreign classmate or sister in your view, but never mind—you are. From the moment they enter your high school, you are a national ambassador. Part of your job is to show him your America. Last year an Italian student living in California said, "Until I came here, I thought Americans were like the elderly tourists touring Italy, who go around Bermuda shorts."

So, find out what you can do to your parents about it. Maybe you might like to be foster parents to a visiting student during your year. Become active in your school world friendship club. Maybe you may not be the lucky American who gets to go abroad—but you may!

ORASCOPE

The twenty-four members of the Orascope staff under the combined efforts of the co-editors, Guy McChesney and Roderic McClure, and faculty adviser, Miss Jessie L. Fraser, kept the student body informed of the activities of the various school organizations.

The journalistic abilities of the entire staff were employed in the editing and publishing of the paper. However, members with special talents were given an opportunity to display their attributes in several of the special departments of the paper, such as, Skeleton Closet, Corridor Conversation, and the inevitable Cartoon.

The Orascope went to press for the last time in the 1957-1958 season with the May edition of the paper.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council sponsored several projects. The council had a successful tag day, which netted well over seven hundred dollars, for the purpose of bringing a foreign exchange student to Bangor High School next year. The Student Council also sponsored cupcake sales, and sold Ram's buttons and bookcovers.

All-Bangor Night, with the theme of Mardi Gras, provided fun for all with its gaily decorated booths and fine entertainment. The proceeds from that evening went to the Student Council treasury to provide financial support for the various programs carried on by the Council.

Members and advisers of the Student Council attended a state-wide convention in Brunswick, and Constance Beverly was elected secretary at the Eastern Maine Convention in Lincoln.

Two paid assemblies were brought to Bangor High School this year by the Student Council. The council also revised the old constitution and provided for a new method of electing the next year's officers.

Faculty advisers were Mr. Perham Amsden and Mr. Douglas Stafford. Officers were Gail Drummond, president; Sally Hill, vice-president; Judy Purinton, secretary; and Catherine Viner, treasurer.

Are there any more Suggestions?

Foreign Exchange Student

The senior class has been very proud to have had as a member this year Lisbeth Noelscher, our American Field Service exchange student from Vienna, Austria.

"Liz," as she is called by her friends, has led a busy life since she came to Bangor last fall. Besides her studies, she has addressed various civic groups and taken part in many school activities, including girls' sports, French Club, Latin Club, Spanish Club, Debate Club, Chorus, Girls' Athletic Honor Council, Student Council, Oracle Board, and the American Field Service Student Board.

In addition to taking part in the A. F. S. assembly here at school, Lisbeth spoke to an assembly at Garland Street Junior High, to various church groups, to clubs at Bangor High, and to an assembly at Hermon High.

When she returns home, Lisbeth will have to complete one more year of high school, after which she plans to continue her studies at a university.

Says "Liz," "The friendliness of the American people has made me very happy at B. H. S. I will certainly never forget this year, for it has been one of the best in my life."

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE BOARD

For the first time since Bangor High School has supported the American Field Service Program, there was an American Field Service Student Board organized.

The Board began a successful year with an assembly which explained to the school the purpose of A.F.S., how it works, and how it began. The next project sponsored by the Board was Tag Day, the annual event that raises money for next year's exchange students. In spite of inclement weather, Bangor High students raised almost eight hundred dollars.

The Board was very fortunate to have as adviser, Captain William Schwartz, professor of military science and tactics at Bangor High School, and a former American Field Service ambulance driver.

DEBATE CLUB

This year the Debate Club was under the direction of Mrs. Ann Chadbourne. Debating has been fast and furious over this year's question: "Resolved: Foreign Aid should be substantially increased."

The Debate Club attended regional discussions at Old Town in November; and in February, the teams attended debates at the University of Maine. The debating team of Jean Sprague and Lorene Severance was among the finalists in the novice group at the Maine debates.

Practice debates were held with Lee Academy and Bucksport High. From these debates, the teams gained invaluable information.

CROSS COUNTRY—1957

Bangor High School has contributed much toward the popularity of cross country in Eastern Maine.

In 1955 the Ram dalers captured third place in the Regional Meet and in the State Meet.

In 1956 the team placed second in the State Meet and seventh in the New England Meet held at Colby College.

The 1957 squad under Coach Vincent Cuozzo, again proved to be a power in the hill and dale competition by running to an impressive record of six triumphs and a lone setback. The Rams easily won their first meet against Bucksport. The following week the Rams journeyed to Lee Academy and suffered their only loss. In the remainder of the Rams dual meets, the team was undefeated by virtue of victories over Old Town, Maine Freshmen, Howland, Maine Central Institute, and P.C.H.S. of Guilford. The JV's completed their season by being victorious in all their five encounters.

The Rams placed third in the Regional Meet and seventh in the State Meet.

At the Annual Fall Sports Banquet Coach Cuozzo awarded letters to the following seniors: Phillip Babineau, Co-Captain; William Bowler, Raymond Cormier, Earsel Goode, Richard Hammons, Paul LaCrosse, Manager; and Albert Whitmore, Co-Captain. Letters were awarded to the following juniors: Boyd Osler, James Vanidestine, and Bruce Wentworth.

Smith is on the loose after intercepting a Brewer pass.

"Let's be friends, huh, fellas," says a trapped Dick Smith.

In the 1957 football season, Coach Norman Perkins was faced with a squad that possessed little weight and experience. In spite of this handicap, the Rams developed their top potentiality as the pigskin season progressed.

After dropping their first three games to the Western Maine football powers—Lewiston, South Portland, and Portland—Bangor unleashed a powerful running attack against Gardiner and dumped the Tigers, 25-0.

The Rams overcame an early touchdown by the Waterville Panthers and shaded them, 13-12.

Bangor edged the Stephens High eleven of Rumford by a 21-18 score. George Hillman sparked the Rams' attack by registering the three Bangor touchdowns.

During the Asiatic Flu epidemic, the John Bapst Crusaders downed the Rams 13-0 for the first time in nine years.

tant tilt against their powerful archrivals from across the river. The Rams were "up" for this one and not until the last forty-five seconds in the game did the Rams bow to the Witches, 14-7. This game was one of the best of the 1957 football season, mainly because of the Rams' gallant and spirited efforts against an experienced Brewer eleven.

There were many thrilling wins and a couple of heartbreaking defeats, but the 1957 Bangor High School will always be remembered for their spirited hustle and grim determination. The clever passing of Joe Taylor, the hard running of Co-Captains Dick Smith and George Hillman, Jerry Stratton, and "Yogi" Predaris and the backbones of the line, Fred Bailey, Chuck Gerrish, Bill Huston, Dave Marley, Carl Morin, and Fred Philbrick, Bob Sloane will never be forgotten by all followers of Bangor High School sports.

The 1957 Bangor High Varsity football squad compiled a three win and five loss seasonal record under the direction of Head Coach Norman Perkins and Assistant Coach Gerald Hodge.

The Rams were victorious over Gardiner, 25-0; Waterville, 13-12; and Stephens of Rumford, 21-18. In their setbacks against South Portland and Brewer, the Rams deserved the verdict in both games because of their superb defense; but bowed in each case because of a late fourth quarter touchdown by the opposition.

Co-captains for this year's team were Richard Smith and George Hillman. Senior lettermen were Fred Bailey, Charles Gerrish, George Hillman, William Huston, Wayne Kimball, Carl Morin, Fred Philbrick, George Predaris, Richard Smith and Robert Averill, manager.

The Bangor High Jayvee football team, coached by Mr. Douglas Stafford, played six games during the pigskin season. The Ram yearlings tangled with Old Town and Fifth Street twice, and Garland Street and Higgins Academy once. Records of these games were not kept. The purpose of the program was to give the boys experience, which will be put into use by many of the Jayvee players on varsities in the coming seasons.

SKI TEAM

The newly-formed ski club had a short, but successful, season last winter under the direction of Capt. William Schwartz, adviser. Skiing, in the space of one season, has been chosen to become a varsity sport of the same class as cross country. A separate fund will be set up for equipment and clothing. Interest in the club was promoted by the wholehearted participation of the ski team in several regional events. Members of the ski team are Jack Dunn, Guy McChesney, Walter Melvin, Alan Mitchell, James Ross, and Harry Tabenken.

Bangor entered a ski team for the first time in regular competition in the Sugarloaf Hi-school Winter Carnival in February. The team placed fourth in a field of eight. In March, a team score for B.H.S. was compiled from the individual records in the Penobscot Valley Ski Association's Golden Skis held at Bald Mountain. With this composite score, Bangor came through with a first place trophy.

The officers of this year's organization were as follows: President, Franklin Bragg; Secretary-Treasurer, Carolyn Allen; Purchasing Agent, Guy McChesney; and Transportation Officer, Harry Tabenken.

Ski Club officers: Harry Tabenken, Carolyn Allen, and Guy McChesney.

Coach Donald Drossel had his work cut out for him for the 1957-58 season with a squad composed of two juniors and with the remaining men, sophomores. The Ram yearlings, though, compiled a successful seasonal slate of seven victories against eight setbacks. Three of their games were against top Class S competition. Mount Desert, a ten point victor over the J. V.'s, went on to capture the State Class S Championship. In conference games the J. V.'s took one point decisions from the Ellsworth J. V.'s and the John Bapst J. V.'s and also tripped the Waterville J. V.'s in a close contest.

The purpose of the J. V. program is to allow the boys to gain valuable game experience in order to prepare themselves for future varsities.

Promising J. V. hoopsters that will be valuable assets to next year's varsity are Russ Murray, Boyd Osler, Dick Mooney, and Aivars Knuble.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

In November an experienced squad turned out for Coach Fred Barry. In the following three months, the Rams rolled up a fine record of eighteen victories against only two losses. This was the second best mark established by Coach Barry in his eleven years of coaching at Bangor High School.

The Rams' five were led by the sparkling play of Billy Cohen and Ted Leadbetter, who continually scored the clutch baskets in crucial spots.

Dave O'Brien was the Rams strong-man on the backboards and also possessed a good scoring hand.

Wayne Lawton was the sparkplug of the team with his eye-popping passes and lethal set shot.

Joe Taylor, who is always cool and calm on the floor, kept the Rams in many a game with his clutch shooting and rebounding.

Jim Mooney and Dave Schiro also played major roles in numerous games for the Rams during the season.

Behind the first seven were these capable men: Chuck Gerrish, Archie Tracy, Ronald Moores, Bill Varney, Charles Murray, James Vanidestine, Ronald Cormier, Robert Talbot, manager; and Norman Sanborn, assistant manager.

THE HOOPS

With an excellent record of sixteen triumphs and only one loss, the Bangor Rams were forced to display their best poise in seven of their games in order to win.

In the opener at Lewiston, the Rams came from behind in the last minute of play to register a 62-59 conquest over the Lewiston Blue Devils.

Two weeks later the Stearns Minutemen invaded the Queen City. The Rams again rallied in the final minutes and defeated Stearns 53-51.

The next test for the Bangor Rams was with the Old Town Indians as the Rams held off a late Indian rally to conquer Old Town, 57-53.

With both Bangor and John Bapst sporting unblemished slates and with five thousand witnesses on hand to watch, the first Bangor-Bapst tilt was labeled to be a classic production. And that it was! The Rams overcame a Crusader first period advantage and won the contest, 72-67.

Bangor conquered Brewer, 46-43, in a close tilt that saw the Rams again kill a closing rally by the opposing team.

A few weeks later the Rams journeyed across the river to tangle again with the Witches. In this game the Rams suffered their only seasonal setback as the Witches took the lead early in the second half and held off a late Ram surge to win, 54-49.

The tension for the Bangor-Bapst return battle was mounting. The Rams, after losing an early lead, came from a five point deficit with two minutes remaining to win, 63-60.

The last tight ball game was with Old Town at the Canoe City. The Rams, behind the great clutch shooting of Billy Cohen, stopped a five year losing hex at Old Town, upending the Indians, 55-54.

When the 1958 Eastern Maine Class L Tourney got underway, the Rams were the only team from Eastern Maine. The classification was due to the remarkable performance of the Rams.

In the first game of the tourney, the Rams were booked to play the Panthers but also set a school mark and a short-lived tourney record. The Rams' offense also glowed as they held Waterville to fifty-one marks. The Rams were classy, smooth, and poised in this opening round.

The following game pitted the Rams against the Caribou. The Rams won the game except for a ten-point performance by Jim Mooney; and then in the third quarter, Billy Cohen regained his shooting eye, but the Rams lost the game.

In the third period, 47-38. The Rams were together behind Cohen, I. The Rams were roaring back to knot the game in the last of minutes remaining. The Rams and the Vikings pulled together in a plugging Rams, 62-57. The Rams made a noble effort for the Rams while suffering from a bad cold.

For the second consecutive year, the Rams won the consolation game, the Rams won the opposition. This was the Rams' best year. Slick passing and around hustle led the Rams to a victory, 77-54.

SPRING TRACK

Track has become the favorite sport during the spring season. On top of all the competition of this popular sport is Bangor High. The Rams have captured the State Meet in three of the last four years enabling them to have in their possession the coveted state trophy.

This year the Bangor High 1958 track squad with the fine coaching of Coach Norman "Cy" Perkins has high hopes of becoming State Champions as they are training hard to achieve this goal.

The Ram cindermen showed excellent potential in all events this year. Veterans Dave O'Brien, Dave Parker, Ron Cormier, Carl Morin, Fred Philbrick, Earsel Goode, Albie Whitmore, Phil Babineau, Fred Bailey, Larry Johnson, Bob Sloane, and Boyd Osler should be very pointworthy in the State Meet at Colby College in Waterville.

In triangular meets the Rams won second place against the Colby Frosh and Deering High of Portland and also scored a second against the Maine Frosh and Lee Academy. The J. V.'s dropped a dual meet to Bucksport by a close margin, and were nosed out by the Brewer tracksters in a triangular meet.

BASEBALL

The Bangor High baseball team at the time of this writing has completed one-third of its 1958 baseball schedule. The Rams with Coach Frederick "Red" Barry at the helm have won two games and dropped two.

The Rams, being a veteran nine, have displayed excellent baseball, both on offense and defense. Veterans Wayne Lawton, Jim Vanidestine, Billy Cohen, Dick Smith, Joe Taylor, and rookies, "Ace" Schindler and Ray Dauphinee have provided the necessary punch for the Rams' victories. Billy Cohen and Dale Blackwell have accomplished topnotch efforts in their mound chores this year.

CINDER COMMENTS-1958

Ram weightmen take a brief break.

This is what you would call fast company.

The Bangor High School 1958 track squad competed in three meets as the Oracle went to press.

In a triangular meet at Waterville, Bangor scored a second place with 43 points. The Colby Frosh won the contest by registering 76 markers and Deering High of Portland gained the third spot with a 24 point production.

In the annual interclass meet, the seniors were victorious by posting 90½ points to the juniors 73½ and the sophomores 15. Ron Cormier, a senior, and Dave Parker, a junior, were double winners in this popular event.

The Maine Frosh, by scoring 79 points, defeated Bangor and Lee Academy in a triangular meet. The Ram cindermen scored 53 points and Lee Academy registered 3 markers.

As the Oracle goes to press, the Bangor Rams 1958 baseball squad sports a record of two triumphs against two losses.

The Barrymen opened their season with a hard-fought 6-3 verdict over the Ellsworth Eagles behind the stingy six-hit pitching of Billy Cohen.

The Rams' second success was at the expense of the Old Town Indians, defeating the Indians, 6-4. Billy Cohen gained recognition to "no hit" fame as he did not surrender a single safety to the Canoe City nine.

Bangor lost their two contests with John Bapst by 9-3 and 6-4 scores.

EXHIBITION SQUAD

A weight training program for off-season athletes originated two years ago at Bangor High under the leadership of Coach Norman Perkins. At that time there was a lack of equipment, and this lack of facilities made it difficult for more than ten or fifteen boys to benefit from this program.

This year, after acquiring five new bars and additional weights, the department expanded its program which proved to be very successful. Also, an extensive tumbling program was set up.

Approximately thirty-five boys took advantage of these programs. Thirteen boys were selected to present an assembly to demonstrate their procedures to the student body while Coach Perkins explained the boys' maneuvers. Assemblies were presented at Bangor High School and Fifth Street Junior High School.

JAYVEE CHEERLEADERS

The 1957-58 Jayvee cheerleaders were chosen in October and were coached by varsity substitute, Sandra Zoidis, until Judy Purinton was elected captain. They backed the Jayvee basketball team at all of the home games and at the Ellsworth and Old Town away games.

The Jayvees made all arrangements and decorations for the cheerleaders' banquet which was held at the Pilots Grill on April 1st. At this banquet, gifts were presented to the cheerleaders' advisers for their help and guidance during the year.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This year's varsity cheerleaders were under the leadership of Captain Brenda McNamara. In the fall, the girls backed the football team through all kinds of weather. During this busy season, the varsity squad also supervised the tryouts and selection of the Jayvee cheerleaders and varsity substitute, Amy Cole.

Soon after the close of the football season, the exciting basketball season began. In addition to attending the games played in Bangor, the cheerleaders traveled to Ellsworth, Old Town, and Brewer to cheer for the mighty Rams. Upon the loss of the services of the head cheerleader before tournaments, Joy Fisher was selected to take over as captain.

After basketball, the annual cheerleaders banquet was held at which seniors, Amy Cole, Joy Fisher, and Sandra Zoidis were presented their cheerleaders' awards and pins. The next week found the girls aiding in the selection of next year's varsity cheerleaders. They are as follows: 2nd substitute, Barbara Whittaker; 1st substitute, Caroline Perkins; regulars, Gail Ellen Fletcher, Jacqueline Weymouth, and Nancy Witherly, captain.

The advisers for the cheerleaders were Mrs. Louise Hammons and Mrs. Rubena C. Pressey.

Girls' Athletic Honor Council

Football season found the members of the G.A.H.C. selling refreshments for all hungry, thirsty fans at the home games. This was only part of the activities of the Honor Council.

After participating in a season of field hockey, the council sponsored a hockey party at which six new members were taken into the council. They were Susan Benoit, Marcia Dolley, Sandra Keef, and Lisbeth Noelscher, seniors; Barbara Jordan, and Ann Van De Bogert, juniors.

During the basketball season, the girls ushered at the B.H.S. home basketball games. The girls also played games on their own girls' basketball teams. The senior members of the council coached the junior and sophomore teams, giving them the backing needed to play a good basketball game.

At the G.A.H.C. assembly, the girls gave the students at B.H.S. a view of the different sports around the world. At this assembly four new members were accepted into the council. They were Lois Brown and Judy Pearson, seniors; Johanna Hunt, junior; and Roberta Rankin, sophomore.

The busy G.A.H.C. year ended with the traditional banquet held at the Oronoka for any girl who had played any sport during the school year. In the traditional ceremonies, new members were taken in; and next year's officers were installed.

The officers for this year were President, Joy Fisher; Vice-President, Barbara Kane; Secretary, Ruth Rankin; and Treasurer, Catherine Patterson. The adviser for G.A.H.C. is Miss Mildred McGuire.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

This year the hockey season was cut short by bad weather and the "flu"; however, the girls were able to play several games. The senior team emerged the winner. The juniors and sophomores played very well. The captain of the senior team was Catherine Patterson. Members of the team were Lois Brown, Sally Christofferson, Mary Deems, Marcia Dolley, Camilla Dunn, Joy Fisher, Lucille Gilbert, Philippa Guerrette, Sandra Hebert, Judy Higgins, Barbara Kane, Sandra Keef, Helen McKenney, Catherine Patterson, Judy Pearson, Ruth Rankin, and Sandra Zoidis.

The captain of the junior team was Johanna Hunt. Paula Rolsky and Janice Jordan were the co-captains of the sophomore team.

Senior members of G.A.H.C. coached the teams. Sandra Hebert, Catherine Patterson, and Ruth Rankin coached the sophomore team. Joy Fisher, Philippa Guerrette, and Barbara Kane coached the junior team. The senior team was coached by Mary Deems and Camilla Dunn.

Joy Fisher acted as manager during the hockey season, assisted by Regina Crook, assistant manager.

At the annual hockey party, 14 seniors and 8 juniors were elected to the Honorary All-Bangor Field Hockey Team. This honor is given to girls who have faithfully played hockey for at least two seasons.

USHERS

The B.H.S. ushers for the year 1957-1958 were chosen by Mrs. Rubena Pressey and Miss Mildred McGuire and were under the direction of Mr. Frederick Pinkham.

These girls, headed by Carolyn Watson, worked faithfully at the B. H. S. home basketball games to direct the sports fans to their appointed seats. Even with the confusion of a crowd of over 5,000 fans who appeared to witness one game, the girls came through with a smile for all.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

An exciting basketball season came to a close with two teams tying for first place. These teams were the Senior White team, captained by Philippa Guerrette, and the Junior Red team, captained by Nancy Witherly. The Junior White team, with co-captains Alberta Caler and Maxine Staples, tied for second place with the Sophomore Red team, with Jackie Graham as captain. See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.
