From The Principal's Desk

To the Class of 1993:

June 6 will probably be the most memorable event in your lives to date. Even though the last four years passed more quickly than you thought possible, the memories will last a lifetime. Your presence, active involvement in the extra-curricular program, and the legacy that is uniquely yours is appreciated by the school.

As you look forward to college, careers, and establishing your own family, we hope the lessons learned at Bapst will serve you well. Your homes and school have provided you with the necessary tools to construct a good and productive life. We wish you well and godspeed and sincerely hope, as time permits, that you will return to your alma mater and let us know what you are doing.

May all of your dreams come true.

Joseph Sekera, Principal

Above: Mr. Sekera awards Mr. Soucy his Hall of Fame plaque.

From The Editor's Desk

As you look through this yearbook, take a moment to look at your friends. These are the people who have shared special moments with you. Together you have laughed, cried, crammed for tests, and partied all night.

As I prepare to leave John Bapst, I realize that the friendships I have made will be in my memories far longer than the daily struggles I have faced.

With any luck, in the future this book will remind you of your friendships, those that have faded and those that endure.

Amanda DeLuck, Editor

"Wherever you are, it is your own friends who make your world."

— Ralph Barton Perry

Our "Bill" of Rights

To entering Freshman he appears to be a bellowing giant, but that impression is eventually erased. He becomes a friend, coach, and mentor, affecting everyone and everything at Bapst.

He is easily found after school, usually in the weight room, to offer his expert guidance on anything and everything. He helps students through various personal problems, acts as the resident physician for sports injuries, and readily shares his knowledge of government and history, with only a minor bias in favor of the Democratic Party. He goes far above the requirements of his job and can even be found moonlighting as a DJ at Senior Class dances.

Whatever a student needs, whenever they need it, he is always there to help. For all these reasons and much more, the Yearbook Staff sincerely dedicates the 1993 Bapstonian to Mr. Billy Cowan.

Editor's Note: Coke adds life. Catch the wave. I'd like to buy the world a Coke. Its the Real Thing. You get the point.

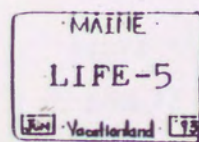

THE SIGNS OF OUR TIMES ARE ALL AROUND US...

THEY ARE THE "FOR SALE" SIGNS IN THE WINDOWS OF VACANT BUILDINGS ...

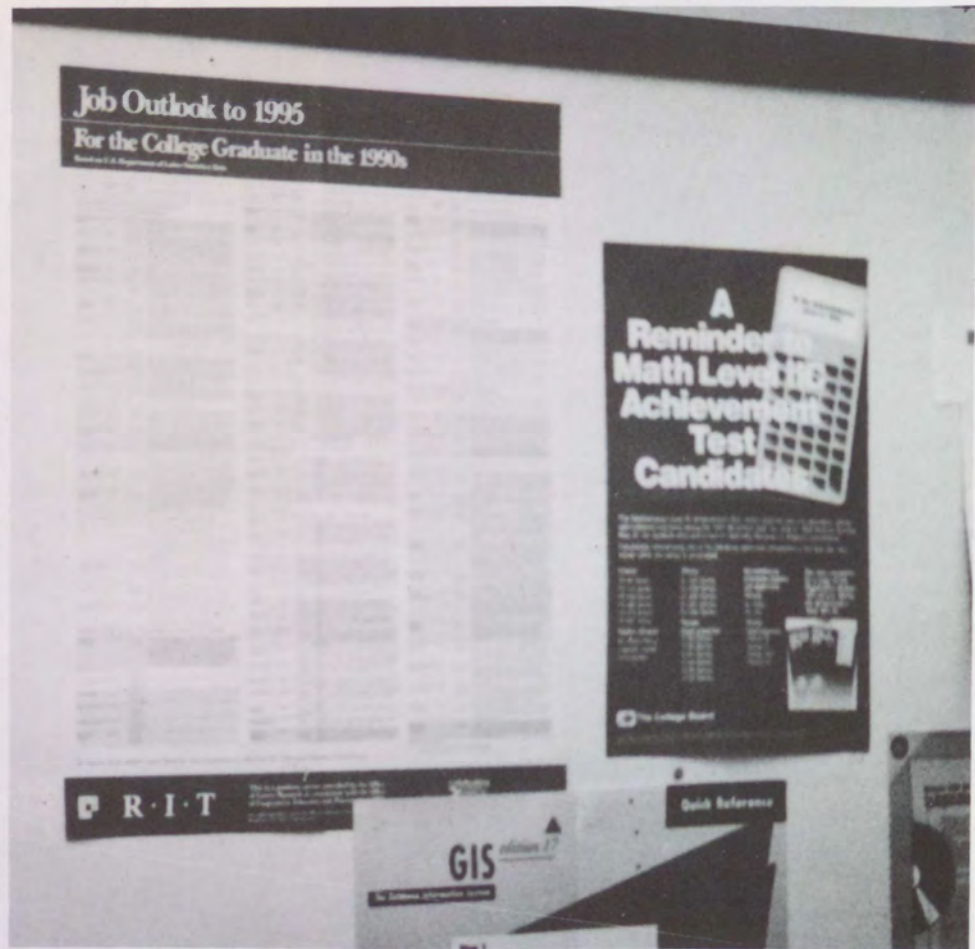

THEY ARE THE LEFTOVERS FROM THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN ...

THEY ARE IN THE EXPECTANT FACES OF THE FANS AT SPORTING EVENTS ...

THEY ARE THE NEW BULLETINS THAT TELL OF AN UNSURE FUTURE . . .

THEY ARE THE EYES OF HOPEFUL, ANXIOUS, EXCITED GRADUATES . . .

THEY ARE THE LEAVES AND BLOSSOMS OF SPRING, THE PROMISE OF FREEDOM AND SUMMER . . .

THE SIGNS OF OUR TIMES ARE AS EVER CHANGING AS WE ARE.

answer

Solve by substitution

$$7x = 12 - 3y$$

$$y - 2x = -9$$

$$y = 2x - 9$$

$$7x = 12 - 3(2x - 9)$$

$$7x = 12 - 6x + 27$$

$$7x = -6x + 39$$

$$7x = 12 - 3y$$

$$13x = 39$$

$$x = 3$$

$$y - 2(3) = -9$$

$$y - 6 = -9$$

$$y = -3$$

38) $x = 3$
 $y = -3$

Solve by multiplication - addition

$$5x - 4y = 3$$

$$(13)x + 2y = -15$$

$$4x - 5y = 7$$

$$4x - 5y = 7$$

39) $x = 3$
 $y = 3$

Renascence

The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide;
Above the world is stretched the sky, —
No higher than the soul is high.

The heart can push the sea and land
Farther away on either hand;
The soul can split the sky in two,
And let the face of God shine through.*

Figs from Thistles.
My candle burns at both ends;
It will not last the night;
But, ah, my foes, and oh, my friends —
It gives a lovely light.*

Travel
My heart is warm with the friends I make,
And better friends I'll not be knowing;
Yet there isn't a train I wouldn't take,
No matter where it's going.*

CONGRATULATIONS
