DEDICATION

Your sympathetic ear and friendliness make you much more than a disciplinarian.

And without your coaching, support, and enthusiasm, Bangor High School's athletic program wouldn't be the same.

You've changed in our eyes from an ogre to a friend.

For all of your trouble, your time, and your help
For glorious fire drills and new species of substitutes
For counseling, scolding, and caring
And just for being there
Mr. Nickerson, we dedicate this yearbook to you.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"The Oracle is in!" Each spring at Bangor High School, the arrival of the yearbook, the Oracle, is greeted with great anticipation and excitement. This, the 1980 edition, will not be an exception.

What generates such excitement and enthusiasm? We believe the printed record, history if you will, of school life at Bangor High brings into focus the sum of the high school education experience.

Underclassmen will review their accomplishments and follow their classmates through the pages.

As principal, I congratulate our seniors on their enviable school record, their individual and class achievements and their contributions to Bangor High.

On behalf of all the staff, I wish each member of the Class of 1980 all of life's greatest gifts: good health, happiness, self-satisfaction, and peace.

ATHLETICS

The members of the BHS football team are a special group. We set our goals high and have the ability and determination to achieve them. We play as a team. Everyone makes a contribution whether he is on the field or on the sidelines. No member is any more or any less important than another. The BHS football team is a proud group and we should be. We have proven we are the best in the state. That is something that we can all appreciate for life.

The squad displayed great determination and sportsmanship in the tradition of all BHS athletic teams. This first team, with its fine debut, has paved the way for other great soccer teams at Bangor High.

Both teams had a winning season and were represented in the State Meet by Dennis Rollins and Lynn Zanchi. Coach Walton is already excited about next year as the majority of the members will be returning.

AFS

The American Field Service is an international organization dedicated to making the world a little smaller through individual living experiences — both abroad and within the U.S.

In the summer of '79, the Bangor High School AFS Chapter sent two students to live with families abroad — Cubby Tsoulas to Holland and Karen Pendleton to Turkey. During the '79-'80 school year, the Chapter welcomed Daniel Arias from Costa Rica to Bangor High as an exchange student living with senior Erik Payne and his family.

As a club, Bangor High's AFS has held dinners, candy sales, the annual smorgasbord and many other fund-raising activities, not only raising money but bringing the group closer together. After all, that's what AFS is for!

MEN—WOMEN

How to get what you need to succeed.

A high school diploma, a useful skill and a mature approach are a good combination for success.

The Army can give you the skill training you want. The Army can also build your confidence.

If you qualify, you can learn one of hundreds of skills—from cook to radio operator to X-ray technician.

Whatever skill you learn, you'll have ample chance to use it and prove how good you are at something important.

Of course, the Army doesn't "give" you anything. You earn what you get. You get what you earn.

And the younger you start the lower the rates. A Metropolitan Modified Premium Life Policy can be started at any time through your age 25, when initial rates are surprisingly low.

This means a lot to someone still in school, just beginning to earn a living, or a young married. The lower starting rates enable you to buy more insurance than you might expect, earlier in life, and begin building an estate you'll be proud of, and grateful for, in later years.

Call or write me today for full details about Metropolitan's Modified Premium Life Policy.

AFTERTHOUGHTS

"It was the best of times,

It was the worst of times"

There were moments of despair and frustration,

There were moments of pleasure and satisfaction.

The end looms close. The last deadline is complete - the 1980 Oracle is hereby mailed with relief.

After hours of sweat and tears,

After hours of arduous labor,

The end looms clear.

His name is known throughout these halls,
Known by everyone is he.
His identity is scrawled on bathroom walls;
The author might be me.

He can be mean as a lion
Or gentle as a lamb.
He's not fazed by whining and crying;
He despises class clowns and hams.

Mornings, when you least suspect it,
His voice blares loud and clear
Danny Staples to the office;
Those are the words you fear.

You rise slowly,
Then slide through his office doors.
The last nail is in the coffin,
As he bellows, "Where were you three and four?"

You hic just will not click,
As you hunt for a little white lie.
You stammer out, "You see, Mr. Nick . . ."
Trying to bluff out an alibi.

But, as usual, he's caught you again,
As there's something he forgot to mention.
There with your forged note in his hand,
He sentences you to detention!

So, there you sit in detention hall,
Wondering, "Oh, Lord, why me?"
For it is Mr. Nickerson who stays on the ball,
And keeps Bangor High on its feet.
