Dedication

We of the Oracle Board were greatly saddened at the news of the death of Mr. Ernest Legere, for many years faculty manager of athletics and teacher of French at Bangor High School.

It had long been our plan to dedicate to him this 1952 Oracle, and we do so now, with humble and sincere thanks to a man who gave much of his life to the students of Bangor High.

This sixtieth yearbook is published as a lasting tribute to Ernie, who, as teacher and friend to many of Bangor's citizens, has earned himself a place in our hearts and memories.

Top: Mr. Chaplin receives a gift from B. H. S. faculty upon his being elected president of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Faculty

B. H. S. is most fortunate in having what we consider one of the finest faculties in the nation, the world and even the universe. Under the capable, competent and sympathetic prodding and planning of such an outstanding teaching staff, we have been able to acquire an education that will be with us to help us all our lives.

Thank you, faculty.

Our Fabulous Faculty

Foreword

After long and careful consideration of a suitable central theme for our yearbook, the Oracle Board has decided that the Bangor Ram has been too-long neglected. From the symbol of our athletic teams, the little fellow has now come into his own as our literary symbol.

On the following pages, his face will greet you often. He's a cute, rolypoly guy, but it was not for that reason we chose him as our central figure. He represents something important to us, today's youth. He is the symbol of strength, of pluck, and of sheer determination. He stands for the kind of do-or-die stubbornness, of gentle toughness that we will have to have to make a going concern of our world.

We hope this yearbook will measure up to the expectations of all, and that the little ram who cavorts between these covers will mean as much to you as he does to us.

To the Class of '52

My friends:

We are about to become adult members of an adult world. The whole future of the whole earth is in our hands and the hands of millions of other young people everywhere.

We have often heard long, wordy sermons on our future responsibilities—sermons to which we have become insensible and heedless. We have become quite satiated with good advice; the time is now here when we must sit down in a quiet corner to think. We must come to an understanding with ourselves; we must decide how we will face the difficult decisions, the hard tasks—the good things and the bad—life must bring to all.

There are just two ways to face life: courageously, with high heads and proud straight backs, with laughter and good will, with faith in ourselves and in others; or, fearfully, with bent shoulders and shadowed eyes, with dread of the future's uncertainties, with hatred of whatever may cause us misfortune.

We stand on the threshold of life; an untraveled road lies before our eyes. Let us lift our heads proudly, and step bravely across the boundary that divides the narrow, comfortable, familiar path from the unknown road.

My friends, here is life; we must accept it as a precious gift, and use it wisely and well; may you find in it all happiness and all peace.

Sincerely,

Your classmate

Oracle

The Oracle Board, under the supervision of Miss Jessie Fraser, has again attempted to comply with the wishes of the student body in presenting the Oracle.

The annual Oracle-Orascope subscription campaign was launched by an assembly program entitled "It's Written in the Stars," a comical skit written by Ruth Bowles, and presented by the combined yearbook and newspaper staffs.

Under the leadership of Editor Herbert Hammons and Associate Editor Ruth Bowles, the 1952 Oracle Staff has made this yearbook similar to those of preceding years, but with the added attraction of an artistically presented theme and more pages of informal snapshots.

To Art Chairman Geraldine Neal goes credit for the layout of the entire book.

Third row: Marjorie Arsenault, Shirley Merrill, Margery Dudley, Joseph Gould, John Hardy, Gloria Coombs, Lois Barber.

Orascope

The twenty-three members of the Orascope staff, working the B period every day, have turned out six excellent issues. On the basis of the first three, including the six-page special Christmas issue, the paper was awarded third place in the statewide Echo-Lovejoy newspaper contest.

The Orascope is now in its seventh year of publication. Issued by members of the junior class, it contains news of interest to the entire student body. The Orascope is closely linked to the Oracle through the united subscription campaign of the two publications. This year's staff has John Ranlett as editor, Kadimah Freedman as assistant editor, and Miss Jessie L. Fraser as adviser.

Recognition Awards

The Scholarship Recognition Assembly also revealed the Graduation Parts, Senior Essay winners, French Contest Medal winner, Current Events Medal winner, Dramatic Award winner, and various scholarships. Four seniors received tribute for their outstanding scholastic achievement. Barbara Dearborn has the distinction of being the only member of the Senior Class to receive straight A's during her three years at B. H. S., while Stanley Furrow and Jane Vose have earned a semester rank of 90 or better in every subject during the last three years. Ruth Bowles placed in the top ten per cent in a nation-wide general aptitude test given by the National Honor Society.

All Bangor Scholars

The tenth annual Scholarship Recognition Assembly was held on May 16. During the assembly fifty-six students were honored for their academic achievement, including sixteen seniors who were named Bangor High Scholars. These sixteen, from a class of two hundred and forty, had maintained a rank of eighty-five or better for five consecutive semesters in every major subject. Principal Joseph B. Chaplin presented Scholarship Recognition certificates to Raymond Adams, Selma Bell, Ruth Bowles, Barbara Dearborn, Stanley Furrow, Herbert Hammons, Nicholas Khoury, Patricia Leahy, Murray Leavitt, Geraldine Neal, Norma Osgood, Elizabeth Rand, Freida Smith, Leigh Smith, Evelyn Stevenson, and Jane Vose.

Tentative lists of juniors and sophomores who, thus far, have maintained a rank of eighty-five or better were also read by Mr. Chaplin.

The ten candidates for this honor in the junior class were as follows: Ronald Atkins, Suzanne Bockus, Douglas Campbell, Charles Low, Eugene Merrill, Henry Page, John Ranlett, Jean White, Judy White, and Eleanor Zoidis.

The sixteen sophomores who received this recognition were Frederick Blomberg, Shirley Boulier, Jane Breen, William Cutler, Ardene Delano, William Delaware, Suzanne Gildart, Lenora Grindle, Judith Kittredge, Nancy Knapp, Beverly Segal, Robert Thomas, Allen Ventucci, Kathleen Vickery, Ruth Webb, and Emily Webber.

Alumni Honors

At the Scholarship Recognition Assembly, tribute was also paid to Bangor High's recent alumni who have won honors during the past year.

Thirty-four students, approximately twenty-five per cent of the Bangor High School graduates at the University of Maine, made the Dean's List last semester. Less than nineteen per cent of the total university enrollment qualified for this honor. The scholastic average of the thirty B. H. S. graduates in the freshman class at the University exceeded the average made by the total freshman class. Over forty-five per cent of the ranks earned by the B. H. S. group were A's and B's.

Two graduates from the class of 1950 attending Bowdoin, Paul Brontas and Ronald Gray have been named James Bowdoin Scholars. Paul was one of fifteen in an enrollment of seven hundred fifty to receive straight A's last semester.

Leonora McGinn, a junior at Wellesley College, has been named a Durant Scholar. This honor recognizes the highest scholastic achievement that can be won at Wellesley and is seldom conferred upon a student in the junior class.

The four-fold motto of the National Honor Society — Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service—was again the basis for determining eligibility for membership.

Membership this year was conferred upon thirty-one juniors and seniors. Initiation into this society is one of the highest honors given in high school.

With the guidance of their faculty adviser, Miss Ruth Belknap, the club completed a well-rounded program. Its activities consisted of sponsoring cupcake sales, sponsoring a very popular booth at All-Bangor Night, and holding a welcoming party for new members in April.

Officers for the year were Stanley Furrow, president; Jerry Pangakis, vice president; Elizabeth Rand, secretary; Herbert Hammons, treasurer.

Speech-Drama Department

The combined Speech-Dramatic Department, under the supervision of Miss Mary Hodgson, has closed another very successful year. Much fine entertainment has been offered to both the student body and the general public in the forms of assemblies, radio programs, and stage productions.

Two three-act plays have been presented the past year,—the Sophomore Melodrama, "Pure as the Driven Snow," and the Senior play, "Take Care of My Little Girl." Two one-act plays were also staged—"The Fool" and "Elizabeth Refuses."

Individual honors this year go to Thomas Rogan and Eda Hayward, Speare Contest winners; Kadimah Freedman, who placed third in a field of sixty-two contestants in the humorous division of the University of Maine Contest; and Claire Lewis, finalist in the Montgomery Spear Contest. These speakers have brought credit both to the department and the high school.

Under Miss Hodgson's direction, this year's group has benefited the community as well as the school. Various programs and speeches were presented for the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, the Community Chest, the Red Cross, and many other organizations.

Any Bangor High School student is eligible for membership in this department; the ultimate objective is to give training in all fields of speech to as many students as possible.

The topic of discussion this year has been: "Resolved—that All American Citizens Be Subject to Conscription for Essential Service in Time of War."

In the fall the Debate Club, in conjunction with the speech-dramatic department, sponsored its annual Debate Club Carnival.

The club reached its acme when it gained its greatest recognition, an invitation to the Bates League Finals at Bates College in Lewiston.

Outstanding debaters of Bangor High School were Roger Gillis, Eda Hayward, Gene Carter, Gail Lyons, Selma Bell, Jack Meltzer, and Michael Rolnick.

After this concert Mr. Hill left for the U. S. Navy, and Mr. Paul Gibb assumed directorship. With Mr. Gibb as leader, the group joined forces with the girls' glee club to go caroling during the Christmas season and take part in the Christmas assembly. The two glee clubs combined once again to sing two selections at the Eastern Maine Music Festival and at the City Music Festival in May.

Ensemble

The Ensemble is a newcomer to the Bangor High School Music Department, having been organized in January of this year. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Paul Gibb, members have practiced once a week performing in small groups of not more than five players. The drill team is an extra-curricula activity for the R. O. T. C. students who have special interests in precision marching.

The platoon is named after Isaiah Stetson, Mayor of Bangor in 1861, under whose leadership military training was introduced into the Bangor school system.

Felecia Rudnicki was the skillful student leader of the group of thirty girls. Under the careful supervision of M/Sgt. Richard Clement, the girls learned many fancy, difficult marching steps.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the year was the victory over the Sangerville High School rifle team.

O. Dale Anthony received the R. O. T. C. medal for marksmanship and attendance in the Rifle Club.

Girls' Rifle Club

This year the Girls' Rifle Club may not be as large as many of the other clubs, but it certainly has been just as busy. The girls held meetings every Thursday night in the gym for two hours of diligent practice.

During the year they fired in several matches with outside teams. The girls also participated in the National Rifle Association competition.

There are no student officers in the club, but the girls are under the skillful leadership of M/Sgt. Richard M. Clement.

Student Council

The Student Council of Bangor High School has enjoyed a very successful year under the guidance of Mr. Claude Lovely.

The annual All-Bangor Night was one of the most successful the council has held. The money taken in at All-Bangor Night enabled the council to participate in statewide functions and to aid local organizations.

For example, the council sent a representative to the National Student Council in Wellesley, Massachusetts, and paid expenses for the officers and advisers in order that they might attend the State Student Council meeting at Deering High School of Portland.

A few council members

Within the school the council has also been of service. It brought Mr. William Skadden to Bangor for a very interesting talk; it gave a donation to the cheerleaders for their new uniforms; and it purchased the medals which the R. O. T. C. awards to outstanding cadets.

This year's officers were Jerry Pangakis, president; Herbert Hammons, vice president; Anthony D'Amico, secretary; and Richard Russell, treasurer.

Group singing highlighted the club's supper party, which successfully opened the year's program. The commercialists staged their annual Yuletide party late in December; after carol singing and the exchanging of gifts, refreshments were served.

Sandra Wilbur, with her excellent exhibition of paintings, won the club's hobby show.

Miss Helene Woodward's interesting talk and the St. Patrick's party were also thoroughly enjoyed by the group.

The club's adviser, Mrs. Dorothy E. Coiley, accompanied the group on a delightful trip to Augusta on April 21.

The Commercial Club of 1952 has fully accomplished its purposes to introduce its members to the business world, and to further their educational and social activities.

The officers are as follows: consuls, Herbert Hammons, Jerry Pangakis; tribunes, Sue Bockus, Mary Ellen Day; praetor, Jean White; quaestor, Pauline Hamilton; aediles, Ruth Bailey, Sharon Connelly, Mary Ella Ginn, Janet James.

The club donated to the Red Cross, the Polio Drive, and the Community Chest. The members enjoyed many varied programs put on by different membership groups. Santa Claus made an appearance at the annual Christmas party and passed out gifts, and the present-day Romans also sponsored one of the many All-Bangor Night game booths. The Latinians closed the year's activities by entertaining next year's Latin II students from the junior high schools and holding the annual Spring outing.

Junior Classical League keys have been presented to those senior members who, during their three year membership, have been outstanding in the activities of the club.

Spanish Club

Under the capable leadership of Miss Margaret Estes the Spanish Club has completed another active and successful year.

Officers were elected at the first meeting and they included Albert Rand, president; Patricia Leahy, vice president; Emma Jean Betterley, treasurer; Alex Vardamis, secretary.

Many varied programs were presented, with each class having its turn. John Hammons was the talented winner of the annual Valentine Contest held in February. Intrigue and adventure were added to All Bangor Night by the presence of a Spanish Fortune Teller played by Emma Jean Betterley.

For the final meeting of the year a genuine Spanish Fiesta was held in the assembly hall. A majority of the members attended in traditional Spanish costumes.

The splendid efforts of Sandra Dunning and Mary Murray of the Social Committee contributed much to the social events of the year.

This year the group, in addition to participating in All Bangor Night, had three enjoyable outings. In the fall they went on a bicycle trip to Pushaw Lake, in the winter they had a tobogganing and skiing party at the Penobscot Country Club, and, to end the season, an all-day outing at Lucerne-in-Maine.

The officers for the year were: president, Robert Chaput; vice president, Joan Whitworth; secretary, Claire Lewis; and treasurer, Floyd Warren.

Under the capable guidance of the retiring adviser, Mr. Harry Hopkins, and the excellent leadership of President Richard Rand, the Alpha Hi-Y Club has succeeded in again holding up its standard, "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

They have completed many projects to build up their depleted treasury, sponsoring dances and other activities for raising money.

The newly-elected officers are Jerome Pedro, president; Donald Pelkey, vice president; Earle Webster, secretary; Henry Page, treasurer; Eugene Carter, corresponding secretary; Richard Miller, chaplain; Gerald Turner, sergeant-at-arms.

Beta Hi-Y

The Beta Hi-Y Club, under the leadership of its director, Mr. Dana Giggey, has again upheld the fine reputation it has gained in the last few years. The officers for the year were Murray Billington, president; Stanley Furrow, vice president; Jerry Pangakis, secretary; John Frawley, treasurer; and Ronald Atkins, corresponding secretary.

The club started off this year's activities by initiating new members. At Thanksgiving, a chicken dinner was given to a local needy family, and at Christmas time about thirty children were feted at a party at the Y.M.C.A. In February the club sponsored its third annual Basketball Hop for the enjoyment of teams competing in the small and medium schools tournament. Representatives from the club attended both the State Older Boys' Conference and the State Hi-Y Legislature. During the spring an outing was held at Camp Jordan. The year's activities were concluded with a banquet at the Pilots Grill.

The Girls' Athletic Honor Council climaxed a year of activity and fun with the athletic banquet held at Pilots Grill on May 13. At the banquet Benita Dorsky, Mary Ella Ginn, Emily Webber, and Kathleen Vickery were made members of the council; and Sue Bockus, Ruth Bowles, Sally Rand, Freida Smith, Janet Scripture, Pinky Trenholm, and president-elect Mary Ellen Day received second honors. Other officers will be Sue Bockus, vice president; Emily Mower, secretary; and Jean Flagg, treasurer. Miss Mildred Megquier, the council's adviser, presented seldom earned third honor armbands to Gwen Bryant and Anita Ramsdell.

Other activities of the council included selling cokes and hotdogs at the football games, running a booth at All Bangor Night, and holding cupcake sales throughout the year to help finance athletic awards.

All-Bangor Hockey Team

Once again, the girls of the class of 1952 defeated all comers to win the coveted hockey trophy. For the third consecutive year, the classy team turned in a top performance, and sped through the season undefeated. Pat Shepard, captain and Freida Smith and Sally Rand, co-coaches, cheered and played the team to victory, while Nita Ramsdell, spirited center, sparked their offensive plays.

Rhoda Rudman, Carolyn Moor, Freida Smith, Judy Fineson and Janet Scripture were outstanding in the line, and Sondra McKusick and Gladys Hitchcock turned in sparkling performances during their first year of hockey. The combination of Sally Rand, Jodie Neal and Ruthie Bowles at the half-back positions kept the ball moving up and Pinky Trenholm, aided by Sandra Dunning, Pat Shepard, and Natalie Brown as fullbacks, successfully and capably defended the senior goal.

Coached this year by Pinky Trenholm and Janet Scripture, and captained by Nancy McGouldrick, the junior team showed championship form, and threatened to upset the Champs many times during the season.

The sophomores, coached by Nita Ramsdell and Ruthie Bowles, with Bettylou Day as captain, although handicapped by their inexperience, were scrappy, speedy players, and showed promise of becoming a top-calibre team.

Twenty-three juniors and seniors were named to this year's All Bangor Hockey Team, an honor accorded those girls who have faithfully attended practices and games for at least two seasons, and displayed sportsmanship and spirit as hockey players.

Championship Basketball Team

In a nip and tuck battle for the championship, '52 saw the Senior Reds defeat the Senior Whites by one point, to cop the trophy. Rowena Trenholm, captain of the winners, sank the winning basket with a tense last quartet shot, while Sally Rand pushed eight of the team's thirteen points through from the foul line. Hampered by the loss of co-captain and high-scorer, Nadine Gallogly, the Whites fought valiantly, and took defeat with the grins of good sports.

The sportsmanship and love of the game displayed by all concerned made '52 a top season of unforgettable fun.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Bangor's peppy squad of cheerleaders were always on hand to spur the athletes of '52 on to victory. Captained by Laura Sederquist, the spirited gals with the big voices, rooted through a year of varsity sports in a fashion that made them one of the best squads ever. Climaxing a year of activity under the direction of Mr. Malcolm O. Willis was the annual carnival dance at which next year's yell-leaders were announced. MaryAnn O'Donnell will be captain, and Sharon Connelly, Nancy McGouldrick, Helen McInnis, Carolyn O'Connor, Barbara Shaw, and Barbara Viner will join those juniors on the '52 squad to complete the roster for '53.

Jayvee Cheerleaders

The J. V. cheerleaders, sophomore and junior girls, displayed spirit and enthusiasm during a year of hard work in which they rooted for the Rams at every J. V. home game and some of those away. The squad, with Nancy McGouldrick as captain, were top yell-organizers, and showed the results of long hours of practice in their smooth displays of plain and fancy cheers.

Many new athletes were welcomed into the "B" Club as another successful year rolled along. Mr. Norman Perkins is the adviser of the club. To be eligible for membership, an athlete must have fulfilled the requirements of his respective sport, and received a varsity letter.

The Athletic Association certifies all letter winners and presents a wool "B" sweater to the first year lettermen. The sweaters are financed by the profits from the sale of program cards and the work in the concession booths at the various athletic activities.

Football

Coach Norman Perkins and his Bangor Rams were up in the running for state honors this year. Weeks of hard practice shaped the players into a well-balanced, coordinated team and the Rams certainly showed that practice had paid off by coming within a hair's breadth of tying for the state title.

They started off the season in fine form, whipping Lewiston and Cony; but suffered their initial setback at the hands of the Portland Bulldogs at Portland.

Bangor again hit the win column with a hard-fought victory over the John Bapst Crusaders, with the traditional inter-city rival, to the tune of 20-13.

The next victims to be added to the list of defeated clubs were the Waterville Panthers and Stephens High of Rumford. Then came the big test! How to whip the undefeated powerhouse from South Portland.

The South Portland Capers started out in fine style walking off the field at the half with a 14-0 lead; but, in the second half, the Rams held the Capers to a standstill while scoring three times themselves to pull the game out of the fire, 19-14.

The game with Edward Little was postponed because of conflicting schedules, but the ever-exciting Bangor-Brewer game rolled around and Bangor beat their foes from across the river for the 12th straight time, 20-6.

That left Bangor eight "Triple F" points away from a state title tie, and for that reason the Edward Little game was rescheduled. However, on a dark, dismal Friday afternoon, the Eddies of Auburn took the game and state honors away from a mudspattered, but always fighting, all Bangor team, 7-0.

There were a lot of thrilling wins and a couple of heart-breaking defeats, but the 1951-52 Bangor High School football team will always be remembered as one of the greatest teams ever to represent Bangor High. The sparkling play of Dick Merriman, the hard running of Captain Impy Treadwell, Gerry Reynolds, and Jamie Hamilton, and the backbones of the line, Dick Russell, Don Pelkey, Bill Fleming, Bob Chaput, and captain-elect Vic Anderson will long remain in the memories of all followers of Bangor High School sports.

RAMS RUN WILD

Third row: John Frawley (Mgr.), Duane Whitney, Walter Morrill, Stanley Furrow, Worth Noyes, Charles Harlow, Norman Hamilton, Duane Lane, Owen Inforati, assistant manager.

Cross Country

Cross country running was first organized at Bangor High School in the fall of 1939. It immediately proved itself an interesting and worthwhile sport, and with the exception of 1943, '44, and '45 when no teams were formed, the sport has gained continued student support.

Beginning with 1948 there has been a spectacular rise in the records of the teams and their members. That year one member, Frank Ramsdell, the first B. H. S. runner ever to participate in the New England Interscholastic Run, competed at Franklin Field, Boston.

To be eligible for New England competition, a runner must finish, second, or third. As many as 15 to 18 teams of seven runners each usually make up the field of competitors. Thus, it is apparent that real ability must be shown in order to qualify for this meet.

In 1949, the team as a group journeyed to Middletown, Connecticut, and gained a tie for sixth place among the 18 championship teams of New England.

The 1950 team placed second in the Maine championships and ninth in the New Englands, held that year at Colby College in Waterville, Maine.

The squad of 1951 won all of its contests, both varsity and jayvee, against the high schools and prep schools in its regular schedule, and in some cases nearly perfect scores were recorded. (A perfect score is 15 to 50 and is as rare in cross country as a 70 to 0 score in football. It means that all seven runners of one team finish the course before a single opponent.) The team also won the regional title, and for the second year in a row the varsity took second at the State Meet. For the third consecutive year they competed in the New Englands and this time won a third place at Burlington, Vermont, against New England's best.

The following boys won letters for the 1951 season: Murray Billington, Robert Colford, William Cutler, captain-elect; John Frawley, manager; Stanley Furrow, captain; Charles Harlow, Duane Lane, Walter Morrill, Worth Noyes, and Albert Rand.

Jayvee Football

With the skillful direction of Coach Mark Shedd, the Bangor Jayvees have completed another successful season, showing a great deal of talent and exhibiting a number of top prospects for next year's varsity football squad.

The Jayvees beat Fifth Street twice by scores of 13-7 and 26-0; but they lost to Garland Street in a close game 13-6.

Perhaps their best game of the season was against M. C. I., whom they beat 13-7. They were behind going into the second half but Webber Clark bulled over for a touchdown to reduce M. C. I.'s lead to one point. With less than a minute to play, M. C. I. had the ball deep in Bangor territory and they tried a pass but it was intercepted by Joe Gould, who went 91 yards for a touchdown and the game!

Webber Clark, the quarterback, directed the team like a general all through the season. Buddy Lane, Vaughn Anthony, and Jack Libby broke up many a game with their hard running; and boys like Joe Gould, Charlie Barker, and Gerry Less made the line next to invincible.

First row: Ronnie Atkins, Bob Russell, Don Pelkey, Dick Russell, Bill Pozzy, Jamie Hamilton, Paul Kelley.

Varsity Basketball

At the outset of the 1951-1952 hoop season, hampered by inexperience, the Ram quintet hit a steep decline and met defeat on five consecutive occasions. The fighting Rams, beginning their bid for a tourney berth with only one veteran, Captain Dick Russell, really had to work to offset their inexperience with good team play. Perseverance, practice and the expert coaching of Fred Barry finally pulled the team into shape with the classy combo of Dick Russell, Bob Russell, Jamie Hamilton, Don Pelkey, and Punk Pozzy leading the way to a string of victories. In one week-end, Bangor walloped the two top-seeded teams in the state of Maine, overpowering Presque Isle, Eastern Maine's No. 1 choice, 52-43, and, the next evening, journeying to the Portland Exposition Building to romp over the Blue Blazes of Westbrook, employing a new deliberate style of play.

Defeating the top teams in Maine, Bangor stood on the brink of tourney recognition, with a 10-6 record and a pile of points. For the few days before tourney choices were made public, the question uppermost in the minds of all loyal Bangor rooters was "Does Bangor have enough?" When the tourney participants were announced, the Rams were securely slated in sixth spot, scheduled to meet Old Town's Indians in the opener. The Indians, later state champs, defeated the hard fighting Rams in one of the best games of the tourney, and Bangor's 1952 hoop season was at an end.

Bangor's two high scorers were Captain Dick Russell, and Don Pelkey, dunking respectively 209 and 213 points through the net.

Punk Pozzy, a transfer from Milton Academy in Milton, Massachusetts was the scrapper of the team, and Bob Russell was always there with a fast break or a set shot when it was needed.

Jamie Hamilton, who will co-captain next year's squad with Don Pelkey, was the steady, cool play-maker.

Behind the five starters were these capable men: Ronnie Atkins, Web Clark, Stan Gass, Joe Gould, Paul Kelly, Ernie Sementelli, Manager Herb Hammons, Assistant manager Shel Hartstone, Scorer Mac Kitchen and Spotter Jerome Pedro.

First row: V. Anthony, B. Lane, W. Thompson, R. Thomas, W. Betterley, B. Stevenson, R. Russell, R. Kelley.

Second row: R. Tait, Mgr., T. Khoury, W. Cutler, P. Boardway, R. Legere, N. Hamilton, J. Hammons, N. C. Perkins, coach.

Jayvee Basketball

Coach Cy Perkins really had his work cut out for him during the past basketball season, working with a J. V. team composed entirely of sophomores. Although presenting a record of four wins and eight losses, the J. V. team showed promise.

One of the main purposes of a J. V. squad is to develop athletes for the following year's varsity. To further this development, Cy had the boys play as a team in the post-season Y tourney, and they lost only one game in that league.

Promising J. V.'s were lanky Bob Thomas, Buddy Lane, Punk Kelley, Bernie Stevenson, Dick Russell, and Wayne Thompson.

Many of these boys will probably play on next year's varsity club.

KAM HOOPSTERS

Baseball

"Red" Barry, at the helm of the Bangor Rams, has once again turned a group, made up mostly of untried, inexperienced boys, into a smooth well-balanced baseball team. The team hasn't fared too well of late, losing their last four games in a row, after winning their first three, but it is very likely that they will come through with the same scrap and determination that Bangor teams have been noted for in the past.

In the first game of the season, Bob Gammons pitched a nifty 4-hitter to down Fort Fairfield, 4-3. Then came one-sided victories over Brewer and Bucksport, 15-2 and 19-6, respectively. Al Kelley pitched the Brewer game, allowing only two or three bingles and Jerry Hayes spread ten hits evenly to rack up his first win of the season against Bucksport.

They suffered a defeat at the hands of Old Town 9-6 and then, as Jim Britt would say, "The rains came." Four straight times the Bangor-Bapst game was rained out and finally, under an ever-threatening sky of thick black clouds, Bapst eked out a 2-1 win, despite Al Kelley's masterly pitching.

The following weekend, the Rams journeyed to the Northland to face Fort Fairfield and Houlton on consecutive days, the Fort Fairfield game resembling the first encounter between the two clubs with the Tigers winning 5-4 in extra innings. Houlton led by Bob Dow who allowed only five baserunners and struck out 15 men took the number of the Rams with an 8-2 verdict.

A hit

When this is published, the season will be completed, and we hope that the Rams will be able to look back upon a well-played year, full of victories and thrills. With the able mound corps, headed by Gammons and Kelley, and the rest of the team, led by such capable stickmen as Captain "Jug" Merriman, Jim Hanson, Jamie Hamilton, and Bob Russell, they have the ability and drive to do just that.

Second row: Roland Perkins, Murray Billington, Nick Khoury, Stan Gass, Bob Chaput, Bill Fleming, Harry Folster, Hugh Morrison, Jerome Pedro.

Third row: Asst. Coach Vincent Cuzzo, William Cutler, William Betterley, Robert Thomas, Ernest Messer, Millard George, Donald Hamilton, Harlan Henry, Coach Norman Perkins.

Track

This year's track team, coached by Norman Perkins, completed its regular season with a two and two record. The cindermen started off the season with an interclass meet which the Seniors won 104 19/20 to 61 9/20 for the Juniors and 28 3/5 for the Sophomores. Don Pelkey was the standout of the meet, scoring 31½ points.

The Bangor team began its regular season with a meet against the University of Maine Freshmen. The Frosh edged out Bangor 59¼ to 57¼. Don Pelkey scored 16 points to lead the Rams.

Pelkey again sparked Bangor as they defeated the Colby Freshmen, 66½ to 50½. The well-balanced Rams defeated their Skowhegan rivals the next week, 64 3/5 to 52 2/5. In Bangor's last meet of the year at Pittsfield, M. C. I. kept its unbeaten record by setting down the Rams, 71½ to 45½.

Bangor also sent a delegation to the Bates Relays where they placed third behind Portland and Skowhegan.

The brunt of the scoring during the year was carried by five so-called "P Boys," whose last names begin with P. Don Pelkey was way ahead with 62½ points. He scored in the hurdles, broad jump, high jump, and discus in nearly every meet. George Petrikas was next with 25 points scored in the dashes and the broad jump. Bill Pozzy piled up 20 9/20 points in the hurdles, javelin, and high jump. Roland Perkins was next with 19 points in the mile, and Romeo Pedro scored 18 by throwing the javelin.

Others who won letters by scoring five or more points in one meet were Stan Furrow with 16 points for the year, Charles Harlow with 12 9/20 points, Gerry Reynolds and Duane Lane with 12, and Nick Khoury with 10.
